Literature and Psychology Meria Zakiyah Alfisuma, M.Pd., 2024-03-01

Jean Baptiste Grenouille starts his life in the squalor of Paris in 1738, born amidst the filth of a fish heap. His surroundings are filthy and repulsive, setting the tone for his early years. Despite the unsavory conditions, Grenouille develops an exceptional sense of smell from a young age. Unfortunately, he faces rejection from his mother, who mistakenly believes he was stillborn, leading her to abandon him and his siblings, resulting in her execution. This leaves Grenouille as an orphan, compelled to move from one place to another as no one is willing to provide a permanent home. Only a few individuals briefly care for him until he ultimately ends up in the care of a nursemaid. Grenouille grows up devoid of the love and warmth of human connection as he is rejected by both his mother and society due to his lack of a natural body aroma. Faced with this rejection, he directs his focus towards his extraordinary sense of smell, becoming fixated on all things related to odor. From an early age, he harbors an obsession with capturing every scent in the world, constructing his own world by meticulously cataloging each fragrance he encounters. Frequently wandering alone, he immerses himself in the act of smelling everything around him. During his youth, Grenouille exhibits an exceptional talent for crafting perfumes, even surviving exposure to harmful gases while working for a tanner. Undeterred, he continues his quest for unique scents throughout the city. His journey takes a dark turn when he becomes captivated by the fragrance of a young girl in rue de Marais, leading to a tragic outcome. Driven by an insatiable desire to possess the divine scent of the girl, Grenouille unintentionally causes her demise in the pursuit of his overwhelming ambition. Soon after the tragic incident, Grenouille's exceptional talent catches the attention of the renowned perfumer Baldini, who takes him under his wing as an apprentice. Grenouille flourishes under Baldini's guidance, creating an outstanding perfume that elevates him to the status of a master perfumer and brings wealth. Despite his success, Grenouille indulges in peculiar experiments, such as attempting to distill the essence of porcelain and even extracting the unique scent

from his own body including his hair These endeavors prove unsuccessful resulting in a period of illness lasting several weeks During his recovery Grenouille discovers an alternative technique for capturing the human scent that differs from distillation Upon conceiving the idea Grenouille embarks on a journey to depart from Paris and make his way to Grasse However midway through his trek an overwhelming sense of confinement in the societal roles of humanity takes hold Fueled by the longstanding rejection he has endured since birth he decides to distance himself from human existence The rural surroundings intensify his aversion to the scent of people prompting him to adopt an indifferent stance toward the world Grenouille chooses seclusion seeking refuge in the tunnel of the mountain of solitude marking the beginning of a seven year period of self imposed isolation During this time he endeavors to unravel his own distinctive scent The tunnel becomes a space where he grapples with delusions hallucinations and disorganized behavior A particularly nightmarish experience considered a delusion of persecution coupled with the realization that he lacks a personal scent prompts his return to the realm of humanity In a sudden shift he no longer avoids things associated with human existence Employing cunning tactics Grenouille deceives people by fabricating a tale of being captured by thieves Through a series of captivating performances showcasing his talents he manages to make his way to Grasse where he encounters Madame Arnulfi Under her guidance he learns a new method for perfume production However an atmosphere of alarm descends upon the town when news of a murderer targeting women spreads Grenouille adopting a sinister modus operandi breaks into homes leaving behind his victims unclothed and with shaved heads After claiming the lives of twenty four girls his murderous spree inexplicably halts A perceptive wealthy man discerns the pattern in the killings and becomes aware that his daughter Laura might be the next target In an attempt to protect her he endeavors to leave the town but Grenouille is relentless tracking and stealing Laura s scent just as he did with his previous victims Shortly after Grenouille murders Laura he is apprehended and condemned to death Strikingly he exhibits no sense of guilt either for the heinous acts committed or when facing police capture Undergoes torture during police interrogation he remains defiant admitting to nothing beyond his need for the scents of the girls On the day of his execution an enveloping perfume surrounds Grenouille like an aura Realizing the potency of the perfume he created the crowd is captivated cheering and considering him an angel Yet to Grenouille their love and adoration transform into hatred The realization dawns that his attained supremacy elicits not happiness but repulsion and animosity Despite being the object of adoration he feels unloved purposeless and devoid of meaning Faced with this disillusionment he returns to Paris In the city Grenouille encounters a group of primitive people engaging in open campfire lovemaking Seeking acceptance he deliberately applies his secret perfume The impact is so profound that the group devours him like cannibals until nothing remains marking a stark and unsettling end to Grenouille s complex and troubled journey

Developmental Spans in Event Comprehension and Representation Paul van den Broek, Patricia J. Bauer, Tammy Bourg, 2013-12-16 This book is about building metaphorical bridges all sorts of bridges At the most basic level it concerns the bridges that individuals build to understand the events that they experience the bridges that connect the events in the mind s eye At another level it is about bridges that interconnect findings and theoretical frameworks concerning event comprehension and representation in different age groups ranging from infancy to adulthood Finally it is about building bridges between researchers who share interests yet may not ordinarily even be aware of each other s work The success of the book will be measured in terms of the extent to which the contributors have been able to create a picture of the course of development across a wide span in chronological age and across different types of events from the fictional to the actual The individuals whose work is represented in this book conduct their work in a shared environment they all have an intellectual and scholarly interest in event comprehension and representation These interests are manifest in the overlapping themes of their work These include a focus on how people come to temporally integrate individual snapshots to form a coherent event that unfolds over time to understand cause and effect and to appreciate the role of the goal of events Another overlapping theme involves the possibility of individual differences These themes are apparent in work on the early development of representations of specific episodes and autobiographical memories and comprehension of complex events such as stories involving multiple characters and emotions The editors of this volume had two missions to create a development span by bringing together researchers working from infancy to adulthood and to create a bridge between individuals working from within the text comprehension perspective within the naturalistic perspective and with laboratory analogues to the naturalistic perspective Their measure of success will be the extent to which they have been able to create a picture of the course of development across a wide span in chronological age and across different types of events from fictional to actual

WPA, Writing Program Administration, 1993      Novel Preaching Alyce M. McKenzie, 2010-02-01 In this lively and accessible book Alyce McKenzie explores how fiction writers approach the task of writing novels how they develop their ideas where they find their inspiration and how they turn the spark of a creative notion into words on paper that will captivate the masses McKenzie's study shows how preachers can use the same techniques to enhance their own creativity and to turn their ideas into powerful well crafted sermons Novel Preaching offers a wealth of advice from successful fiction writers including Isabelle Allende Frederick Buechner Julia Cameron Annie Dillard Natalie Goldberg Stephen King Toni Morrison Joyce Carol Oates and Melanie Rae Thorn and also includes a number of sample sermons from McKenzie herself      Anglica

Owen, Jr., 2017-08-24 Fireflies is a book about how writing poetry can help us explore memory and identity and it is also a book of poetry that explores memory and identity This work is an example of the liminal scholarship advocated in The Need for Revision 2011 by the same author occupying a space in the academic world's windows and doorways not exactly in any one field but rather in the spaces between where the inside and outside commingle it seeks to trouble the boundaries between teacher and writer critic and artist writer and reader and teacher and student in a way from which all parties might benefit Fireflies aims for a different kind of scholarship and hopes to offer new ways for teachers to be professional and academic The second section of the book is a full length poetry text the author s own exploration of the notions that people who teach writing should also be writers and that poetry is more something you do than something you are The book says we should write poems not because of some inborn gift for it but because the act of writing poetry is good for us and helps us understand ourselves better it is a book written in the hopes that other books will be written Maybe by you David Owen has taken his understanding of currere the root of curriculum to a new level with his demonstration of the value of reading and writing poetry He argues that writing poetry develops an attitude of adventure into everydayness As his first chapter Songs of Ourselves suggests we all can be Whitman s if we take up our pens to celebrate what lives around us as well as in us Owen demonstrates this theory with a calendar of poems he wrote that share small frozen moments of the seasons of a year Connecting his memories with forays into night skies and fireflies and the fractals that God makes David Owen s poetic images suggest that our deep connection with Earth can be recovered if we let a little more oak in the voice of our words Mary Aswell Doll author of The Mythopoetics of Currere

Parabolic Figures or Narrative Fictions? Charles W. Hedrick, 2016-06-10 Hedrick contends that parables do not teach moral and religious lessons they are not in whole or part theological figures for the church Rather parables are realistic narrative fictions that like all effective fiction literature are designed to draw readers into story worlds where they make discoveries about themselves by finding their ideas challenged and subverted or affirmed The parables have endings but not final resolutions because the endings raise new complications for careful readers which require further resolution The narrative contexts and interpretations supplied by the evangelists constitute an attempt by the early church to bring the secular narratives of Jesus under the control of the church s later religious perspectives Each narrative represents a fragment of Jesus s secular vision of reality Finding himself outside the mainstream of parables scholarship both ecclesiastical and critical Hedrick explored a literary approach to the parables in a series of essays that among other things set out the basic rationale for a literary approach to the parables of Jesus These early essays form the central section of the book They are published here in edited form along with unpublished critiques of a thoroughgoing literary approach and his response

Banned in Berlin Gary D. Stark, 2012 Imperial Germany s governing elite frequently sought to censor literature that threatened established political social religious and moral norms in the name of public peace order and security It claimed and exercised a prerogative to intervene in literary life that was broader than that of its Western neighbors but still not broad enough to prevent the literary community from challenging and subverting many of the social norms the state was most determined to defend This study is the first systematic analysis in any language of state censorship of literature and theater in imperial Germany 1871 1918 To assess the role that formal state controls played in German literary and political life during this period it examines the intent function contested legal basis institutions and everyday operations of literary censorship as well as its effectiveness and its impact on authors publishers and theater directors

Black Lives Matter vs. All Lives Matter Abdul Karim Bangura, 2021-09-20 In the wake of the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis the debate between proponents of Black Lives Matter and All Lives Matter has been reignited For proponents of Black Lives Matter the slogan All Lives Matter is not a call for inclusiveness but a criticism of the Black Lives Matter movement On the other hand advocates of All Lives Matter insist their slogan is about diversity and colorblindness The contributors included in Black Lives Matter vs All Lives Matter A Multidisciplinary Primer approach the subject from fields as wide ranging as sociology mathematics linguistics business politics and psychology to name a few This collection adds complexity and international perspectives to the debate allowing these seemingly simple quarrels over phrasing to be unpacked from many angles A refreshing variety of looks at one of the defining social movements of the last decade and the reaction to it this collection will be valuable to those seeking to understand these movements in ways beyond how they are typically framed
