Death, Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England Clare Gittings,2023-10-13 First published in 1984 Death Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England traces how and why the modern reaction to death has come about by examining English attitudes to death since the Middle Ages In earlier centuries death was very much in the midst of life since it was not as now associated mainly with old age War plague and infant mortality gave it a very different aspect to its present one The author shows in detail how modern concern with the individual has gradually alienated death from our society the greater the emphasis on personal uniqueness the more intense the anguish when an individual dies Changes in attitudes to death are traced through alterations in funeral rituals covering all sections of society from paupers to princes This gracefully written book is a unique scholarly and thorough treatment of the subject providing both a sensitive insight into the feelings of people in early modern England and an explanation of the modern anxiety about death The range and assurance of this book will commend it to historians and the interested general reader alike

Funeral Rites Reformation for Any African Ethnic Community Based on the Proposed New Funeral Practices for the Agikuyu Johnson Nganga Mbugua,2016-06-17 This book has been written on the premise that the mode of coping with death of virtually all African ethnic communities has taken proportions and turns that are neither cultural scriptural nor necessary Current rites are complicated time consuming expensive and are leaving most families and their neighbors impoverished They have been extremely commercialized and a large number of Africans do not have resources to bury their dead the modern way Were the Agikuyu read Africans to curb numerous funeral demands which they deem necessary and customary when in actual fact they are not funerals for them would become cheaper faster and simpler would be decent enough for the dead would take care of those left behind and would be environmentally friendly How Africans in the Diaspora away from their ancestral homeland should cope with death is also addressed Also addressed is the issue of cremation It is shown that at the resurrection God will accord us new spiritual bodies which will have no bearing with the material substance of our earthly mortal bodies Funeral Industry United States.
