The Handbook of the Evolving Research of Transformative Learning Kathleen P. King,2009-05-01 Associate Editor Seamus King This handbook is a much expanded version of the original Learning Activities Survey published by Dr Kathleen P King of Fordham University in 1998 Based on her ground breaking research in this field where she used a mixed methodology research approach to study transformative learning the book will provide a model of research firsthand perspective of how research design develops reprints of articles based on the related research and specific assistance in conducting further research in this area Over 50 studies around the world have been conducted base on King s original research and her work has extended across more than 12 studies since the original publication Moreover this volume is a vital research companion book to King s popular book Bringing Transformative Learning to Life Krieger 2005 Based on our history with the prior edition it is sold out this book will have wide appeal among adult education human resource development psychology and counseling researchers students professors and practitioners and it serve as an excellent textbook or personal introduction studies of foundations of adult learning applied research or transformative learning Professors and students of adult learning counseling human resource development staff development educational administration and leadership psychology and other social sciences use this as a guide for research studies especially in the area of adult learning and or transformative learning Readers will find that this handbook provides an overview of King s transformative learning research dating back to 1997 a manual for use of the research tools a research methodology and an approach to open new vistas of research The first manual published in 1998 is now out of print and this 10th anniversary edition not only fills the gap but also continues where it stopped This handbook delineates the original model and the expanding and evolving research which has developed from 1997 to 2008 More than a manual instead this book uses a variety of formats to accomplish this goal reflection formal discussion instructions technical information personal and learner stories selected research articles and several modified forms of the original Learning Activities Survey LAS instrument

Adult Learning and Technology in Working-Class Life Peter Sawchuk,2003-03-03 This explores everyday learning among working class Canadians exploding the myth that such learning is class neutral Adult Education Gordon G. Darkenwald,Sharan B. Merriam,1982 Recognition of Prior Learning Per Andersson,Andreas Fejes,Fredrik Sandberg,2017-10-02 Recognition of prior learning RPL has emerged in recent decades as an important policy area and policy concept It is a phenomenon with a certain variation in practices as well as contexts concepts and conceptions However there is a basic idea about giving recognition to prior learning wherever and whenever learning has taken place Such ideas can be materialised in formal assessment systems providing the basis for recognition as well as in informal processes where prior learning is made visible and gets recognition This book provides a range of empirically and theoretically based contributions from different parts of the world where RPL or an equivalent is mobilised as part of educational practices for adults Discussion in this area often takes place locally This volume compiles different kinds of contributions to create a broader dialogue among scholars and practitioners not only on the specific topic of RPL but also on more general issues faced in educational research It was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education

Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners Carrie J. Boden,Kathleen P. King,2013-10-01 Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners is the second volume in a series of scholarly publications associated with the annual Adult Higher Education Alliance AHEA The Alliance conference The title of this volume derived from the theme of the 2012 conference co sponsored by American Association of Adult and Continuing Education AAACE in Las Vegas NV encompasses significant issues and questions at the forefront of the field of adult education At the conference scholars practitioners and adult educators gave presentations and received feedback on some of the most significant and timely issues in their praxis The Alliance which values collaboration transformative dialogue and collegiality among professionals considers this volume a continuation of those conversations as the presentations were expanded into chapters We are glad that you are joining the conversation This volume confirms not only that adult learning higher education and both fields of research have many contexts but also that there is so much more to learn about different perspectives and opportunities for research and practice Opportunities for symbiotic relationship abound We hope that Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners will be a book that you pull off your bookshelf or open in your e reader often We know that as we engage in program and course planning design and teaching this book will provide needed refreshment and new vision When research ideas seem too similar this volume will also provide many seeds for new opportunities Adult Learning and Education Kjell Rubenson,2011-01-07 As individuals and societies try to respond to fundamental economic and social transformation the field of adult learning and education is rapidly getting increased attention and new topics for research on adult learning have emerged This collection of articles from the International Encyclopedia of Education 3e offers practitioners and researchers in the area of adult learning and education a comprehensive summary of main developments in the field The 45 articles provide insight into the historical development of the field its conceptual controversies domains and provision perspectives on adult learning instruction and program planning outcomes relationship to economy and society and its status as a field of scholarly study and practice Saves researchers time in summarizing in one place what is otherwise an interdisciplinary field in cognitive psychology personality sociology and education Level of presentation focuses on critical research leaving out the extraneous and focusing on need to know information Contains contributions from top international researchers in the field Makes MRW content affordable to individual researchers

Popular Culture as Pedagogy Kaela Jubas, Nancy Taber, Tony

Brown, 2015-10-30 Grounded in the field of adult education this international compilation offers a range of critical perspectives on popular culture as a form of pedagogy Its fundamental premise is that adults learn in multiple ways including through their consumption of fiction As scholars have asserted for decades people are not passive consumers of media rather we re make our own meanings as we accept resist and challenge cultural representations At a time when attention often turns to new media the contributors to this collection continue to find old forms of popular culture important and worthy of study Television and movies the emphases in this book reflect aspects of consumers lives and can be powerful vehicles for helping adults see experience and inhabit the world in new and different ways This volume moves beyond conceptually oriented scholarship taking a decidedly research oriented focus It offers examples of textual and discursive analyses of television shows and films that portray varied contexts of adult learning and suggests how participants can be brought into adult education research in this area In so doing it provides compelling evidence about the complexity politics and multidimensionality of adult teaching and learning Using a range of television shows and movies as exemplars chapters relate popular culture to globalization identity health and health care and education The book will be of great use to instructors students and researchers located in adult education cultural studies women s and gender studies cultural sociology and other fields who are looking for innovative ways to explore social life as experienced and imagined
