Fundamentals Of Christianity:

The Fundamentals of Christianity Henry Clay Vedder, 1922 Fundamentals of Christianity: a Bible Study and Guide Andrew Barber, 2018-09-15 What is truth Who is God Who is Jesus Christ Who am I What is the meaning of life and death Answers to these questions can be found in Dr Andrew Barber's book Fundamentals of Christianity A Bible Study and Guide In this book Christian principles ethics doctrines and beliefs are explored examined and explained using the Holy Bible as the authoritative source This book will guide the reader through the fundamentals of the one true faith Learn about God his works and his will and teach others Grow in your knowledge and discover the mysteries revealed in God's Word for there you will find the answers to your questions problems desires and hopes All topics definitions scriptures and discussions have been derived directly from God's Word the Holy Bible The Christian Faith Evangelical Covenant Church of America. Publication Committee, 1918 The Fundamentals of Christianity K.V. Anglin, 2012-01-17 God initially gave His Word to earth by way of the Jewish community so that Jewish culture could be reflected in his Word throughout the world Rom 3 1 2 This results in their translation of the Bible being the closest to his intention for mankind For that reason I use The Complete Jewish Bible CJB as my text for this manuscript CHRISTIANITY Christianity is not a religion It is that type of being wherein the life of Jesus Christ is portrayed in and through the life of another person It originates from the term Christ which means The Anointed Originally Christ Jesus was the image of God's person Heb 1 3 but was now anointed to carry out two missions 1 To become the prototype for man and 2 to bring man into conformity to his own person thus making man the image of God Rom 8 28 30 The process of redemption effects in man the transformation that renders him a new creature 2Cor 5 14 21 Gal 2 19 20 Redemption is possible only through faith in the shed blood of Christ Having gone through this process one becomes a Christian and his lifestyle is Christianity It is therefore not a religion but it supersedes religion The Fundamental Doctrines of the Christian faith R. A. Torrey, 2019-11-21 In The Fundamental Doctrines of the Christian Faith R A Torrey presents a compelling exploration of essential Christian beliefs addressing key doctrines such as the nature of God the person of Christ and the Trinity with precision and clarity Torrey's literary style is direct and didactic reflecting his background as a theologian and educator with an aim to educate both laypeople and clergy alike The book is situated in the context of early 20th century evangelical thought responding to the challenges posed by modernism and skepticism and seeks to reaffirm the foundational tenets of Christianity amid a rapidly changing societal landscape R A Torrey was a prominent American evangelist pastor and theologian known for his fervent commitment to the Christian faith and his role in the fundamentalist movement His experiences in evangelism and theological education including his academic tenure at several institutions provided him with a unique perspective on the necessity of doctrinal clarity These experiences undoubtedly influenced his desire to produce a text that stands as a robust defense of traditional beliefs at a time of doctrinal confusion This book is recommended for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Christian doctrine or wishing to gain subject of discussion They are the fundamental data on which the entire discussion proceeds so nearly axiomatic in the author's View that the mere statement of them should secure hearty assent from the thoughtful Christian reader Indeed his fear is that more readers will pronounce them truisms than untruths But it is only fair to give warning that any reader who seriously dissents from them will do well to lay the book aside at this point as it would probably be pure waste of time and mental energy for him to read further For if these fundamentals are untrue or even doubtful the following pages are worthless About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Fundamentals of Christianity a Study of the Teaching of Jesus and Paul Henry C. Vedder, 2015-06-14 Excerpt from The Fundamentals of Christianity a Study of the Teaching of Jesus and Paul The specific sources for the writing of such a book as this are of course the Gospels for the teaching of Jesus and the Epistles of Paul for the teaching of the apostle But we cannot understand these without taking into account the whole literature of the Hebrew people of which these writings are an inseparable part Though the modern Jew refuses to recognize the later collection of writings known to us as the New Testament he cannot deny that it is as Jewish as the older collection The apostles may have been apostate Jews but they were certainly Jews Only a single gentile writer so far as we know contributed aught to the New Testament and even Luke was Jew by conviction if not Jew by birth These writings are without exception deeply imbued with the spirit of the people who produced them and of the times in which they were composed Jew and Christian are agreed in regarding them as a divine revelation though the Jew of course would deny this character to the later collection but all intelligent people of both religions have come to recognize in these books a human element as well as a divine They were not handed down from heaven or even dictated by God to human amanuenses but composed under the guidance of the divine Spirit by men who had the limitations of other men The writers were not of a uniform grade of mentality or spiritual insight and so great differences are discernible in the writings in particular the older books give us a different ideal of God and teach different ethics from the later Men can no longer shut their eyes to this fact the wonder is that for ages they were able so completely to ignore it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
