Further Side Of Silence:

The further side of silence, by Sir Hugh Clifford Hugh Charles Clifford (Sir),1917 Index to Short Stories ,1929
Bulletin Johnson Public Library (Hackensack, N.J.),1908 The Outlandish Art of Mahlon Blaine Brian Hunt,2009-12-04

In 1923 Mahlon Blaine burst upon the art scene with striking works of imagination and vision Within a short time his work was published in everything ranging from children s books and mainstream magazines to erotic portfolios The body of work he produced between 1926 and 1930 was nothing short of phenomenal but after 1931 his output became increasingly sporadic Sadly like so many artists before him who have given us so much Blaine died penniless and mostly forgotten in January of 1969 This volume samples Mahlon Blaine s unique artistic visions from his grand emergence in the roaring 20 s through his declining years in the swinging 60 s Words of praise for this volume This is an overdue recognition of Blaine s fine eye for details in his drawings You have presented his work in chronological order which shows his development over the years giving us an insight into his imaginative art I am happy to see this fine volume in print Helen de la Ree The Were-Tiger Sir Hugh Clifford,2019-01-01 The earliest European account of the existence of the were tiger comes from the Malacca Portuguese records British Victorian era explorers to Malaya not only recorded stories about the were tiger but told of several were tiger villages hidden deep in the jungles of Malaya These mythical shapeshifters struck fear in rural Malay society as they were able to kill their unsuspecting victims usually out of vengeance The Were Tiger was written by the renowned Malayan colonial Sir Hugh Clifford and it was originally published in 1916 It is a short story of a village s experience with a migrant Sumatran trader and a supernatural big cat that occurred in Slim Pahang Sir Hugh Clifford served as the British Resident at Pahang and later as British High Commissioner in Malaya The Further Side of Silence Sir Hugh Charles Clifford,1922 Distant Archipelagos Peter Moss,2004-08 He dropped money bags from low flying biplanes on remote rubber plantations and tin mines spent nights in deep jungle longhouses aboard fishing kelongs manned by aboriginals far out at sea in mosquito infested swamps collecting malarial parasites and on beaches where giant leatherback turtles came to lay their eggs He accompanied commonwealth troops hunting for terrorists on the Thai Malaysian border flew reconnaissance patrols seeking guerilla camps and escorted Field Marshal Templer on his return visit to the country he had liberated from communist insurrection He met Lady Edwina Mountbatten wife of the architect of India s independence interviewed actors Orson Welles and Sir Donald Wolfitt and was conversing with the French Ambassador when a ghost walked into the room He worked with William Holden Susannah York and Capucine on a film in which nearly everyone ended up miscast He helped conceal an escaped prisoner in a hilarious fake jail break trailed the Sultan of Pahang on a regal progress through Malaysia s largest state and befriended one of President Soekarno s infamous red beret parachutists sent on a sabotage mission during the height of Indonesian confrontation Mostly he loved the land and its people so much that he shunned the cocktail circuit and the city life for the simple pleasures of the kampong and the open road learning the language and feeling his way towards what French author Henry Fauconnier had called the Soul of Malaya With Distant Archipelagos Peter Moss follows up his account of an Anglo Indian childhood in Bye Bye Blackbird by painting a vivid portrait of another vanished world The Bellman ,1916 The Further Side of Silence Sir Hugh Charles Clifford,1929 The New Republic Herbert David Croly,1916 Fiction, a Finding List of Novels, Stories and Other Forms of Prose Fiction in English for Adults in the Chicago Public Library, January 1, 1921 Chicago Public Library,1922 Notes and Queries ,1924 Everybody's Magazine ,1919 The Rice Institute Pamphlet ,1922 The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1917 Book Notes Illustrated ,1926 Rice University Studies ,1922 Eastern Figures Douglas Kerr,2008-06-01

Eastern Figures is a literary history with a difference It examines British writing about the East centred on India but radiating as far as Egypt and the Pacific in the colonial and postcolonial period It takes as its subject the East that was real to the British imagination largely the creation of writers who described and told stories about it descriptions and stories coloured by the experience of empire and its aftermath It is bold in its scope with a centre of gravity in the work of writers like Stevenson Kipling Conrad and Orwell but also covering less well known literary authors and including Anglo Indian romance writing the reports and memoirs of administrators and travel writing from Auden and Isherwood in China to Redmond O Hanlon in Borneo Eastern Figures produces a history of this writing by looking at a series of figures or tropes of representation through which successive writers sought to represent the East and the British experience of it tropes such as exploring the hinterland going native and the figure of rule itself Eastern Figures is accessible to anyone interested in the literary and cultural history of empire and its aftermath It will be of especial interest to students and scholars of colonial and postcolonial writing as it raises issues of identity and representation power and knowledge and centrally the question of how to represent other people It has original ideas and approaches to offer specialists in literary history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries cultural historians and researchers in colonial discourse analysis postcolonial studies and Asian area studies and history It is also aimed at students in courses in literature and empire culture and imperialism and cross cultural studies The Publishers Weekly ,1917 Havelock Ellis Isaac Goldberg,1926
