Interlocking Lives:

Ethnomusicology and its Intimacies Stephen Cottrell, Dafni Tragaki, Stephen Wilford, 2023-12-12 Ethnomusicology and its Intimacies situates intimacy a concept that encompasses a wide range of often informal social practices and processes for building closeness and relationality within the ethnomusicological study of music and sound These scholarly essays reflect on a range of interactions between individuals and communities that deepen connections and associations and which may be played out relatively briefly or nurtured over time Three major sections on Performance Auto biographical Strategies and Film are each prefaced by an interview with a scholar or practitioner with close knowledge of the subject that links the chapters in that section Often drawing directly on fieldwork experience in a variety of contexts authors consider how concepts of intimacy can illuminate the ethnographic study of music addressing questions such as how can we understand ethnomusicological and ethnographic research and performance as processes of musically mediated intimacy How are the longstanding relationships we develop with others particularly intimated by and through musicking How do we understand the musically intimate relationships of others and how do these inflect our own musical intimacies How does music represent inscribe constrain or provoke social or personal intimacies in particular contexts The volume will appeal to all scholars with interests in music and how it is used to construct relationships in different contexts around the world The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Dr Mark Silverberg, 2013-04-28 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg s detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets The Program Hal Niedzviecki, 2011-07-27 The Program is a unique work of stark humour and pathos that seduces its readers into the world of advertising guru Maury Stern Through chain restaurants forest reserves Zionist summer camps abandoned amusement parks and eastern European shtetls the novel chases a mystery what happened to Maury's son Danny the night he was left alone with his uncle Funny fallible and lost Maury blows up his life attempting to find the answer His monster brother the bogeyman of Danny's childhood has gone missing is Maury still his brother's keeper His mum Bubby Stern is plugging her brain with the contents of American soap operas to avoid the secret she has carried since her girlhood why can't Maury be a good son and make her happy When a simple camping trip with Danny turns into another horror show Maury takes one look at the reproach in his wife's eyes and runs away Staggering under the weight of everyone's desire for him to please be normal again the wounded Danny can't tackle the mystery of himself directly Instead he disappears into the computer lab where he writes The Program as a way to an alternative reality where the conflicting agendas of past present and future may be resolved

Desperate Romantics Franny Moyle, 2012-11-08 Their Bohemian lifestyle and intertwined love affairs shockingly broke 19th Century class barriers and bent the rules that governed the roles of the sexes They became defined by love triangles played out against the austere moral climate of Victorian England they outraged their contemporaries with their loves jealousies and betrayals and they stunned society when their complex moral choices led to madness and suicide or when their permissive experiments ended in addiction and death The characters are huge and vivid and remain as compelling today as they were in their own time The influential critic writer and artist John Ruskin was their father figure and his apostles included the painter Dante Gabriel Rossetti and the designer William Morris They drew extraordinary women into their circle In a move intended to raise eyebrows for its social audacity they recruited the most ravishing models they could find from the gutters of Victorian slums The saga is brought to life through the vivid letters and diaries kept by the group and the accounts written by their contemporaries These real life stories shed new light on the greatest nineteenth century British art A Seer Out of Season Harmon H. Bro, Harmon Hartzell Bro, 1996-10-15 The gift of prophecy Millions worldwide have turned to the writings of Edgar Cayce for advice on holistic medicine and spiritual growth Hailed as the father of the New Age movement his works have been translated into dozens of languages and he has received outpourings of acclaim from individuals doctors and spiritual leaders around the globe A Seer out of Season Drawing from his experience as Cayce's longtime associate Dr Harmon Bro has written the first ever full length biography of the gifted spiritualist Long awaited by followers and skeptics alike this definitive intimate account tells the story of how an enigmatic Kentucky farm boy with no formal education became the soft spoken seer who inspired so many It is also the story of a man hounded by disbelievers who again and again branded him a charlatan only to walk away stunned by his power

Relocating Sovereignty Neil Walker, 2018-02-06 This volume brings together a collection of classic and contemporary texts which engage with the core problem of sovereignty from the perspective of various legal and law related sub disciplines legal history and theory constitutional law international law and relations and EU law Many of the highlights from the intense debates about the continuing relevance or otherwise of the internal sovereignty of national legal orders and the external sovereignty of states in a rapidly globalizing world are reproduced here c Postcolonial Audiences Bethan Benwell, James Procter, Gemma Robinson, 2012-03-12 Without readers and audiences viewers and consumers the postcolonial would be literally unthinkable And yet postcolonial critics have historically neglected the modes of reception and consumption that make up the politics and pleasures of meaning making during and after empire Thus while recent criticism and theory has made large claims for reading as an ethical act as a means of establishing collective quasi political consciousness as identification with difference as a mode of resistance and as an impulsion to the public imagination the reader in postcolonial literary studies persists as a shadowy figure This collection answers the now pressing need for a distinctively postcolonial take on the rapidly expanding area of reader and reception studies Written by some of the top scholars in the field these essays reveal readers and reception to be varied and profoundly unstable subjects that challenge many of our assumptions and preconceptions of the postcolonial from the notion of reading as national fellowship to the demands of an ethics of reading Life Lines Forrest Church, 1997-09-17 In this eloquent personal hopeful book writer and minister Forrest Church explores the lifelines that can sustain us in times of trouble deeper connections to neighbor and stranger a better understanding of human limits and a larger view of our place in the universe Albatross Graham Barwell, 2013-10-15 At length did cross an Albatross Through the fog it came As if it had been a Christian soul We hailed it in God s name The introduction of the albatross in Samuel Taylor Coleridge s The Rime of the Ancient Mariner remains one of the most well known references to this majestic seabird in Western culture In Albatross Graham Barwell goes beyond Coleridge to examine the role the bird plays in the lives of a wide variety of peoples and societies from the early views of north Atlantic mariners to modern encounters by writers artists and filmmakers Exploring how the bird has been celebrated in proverbs folk stories art and ceremonies Barwell shows how people marvel at the way the albatross soars through the air covering awe inspiring distances with little effort thanks to its impressive wingspan He surveys the many approaches people have taken to thinking about the albatross over the past two hundred years from those who devoted their lives to these birds to those who hunted them for food and sport and discusses its place in the human imagination Concluding with a reflection on the bird s changing significance in the modern world Barwell considers threats to its continued existence and its prospects for the future With one hundred illustrations from nature film and popular culture Albatross is an absorbing look at these beautiful birds

Popular Memories Ekaterina V. Haskins, 2015-03-11 A critical exploration of the ways public participation has transformed commemoration and civic engagement in the United States In the last three decades ordinary Americans launched numerous grassroots commemorations and official historical institutions became more open to popular participation In this first book length study of participatory memory practices Ekaterina V Haskins critically examines this trend by asking how and with what consequences participatory forms of commemoration have reshaped the rhetoric of democratic citizenship Approaching commemorations as both representations of civic identity and politically consequential sites of stranger interaction Popular Memories investigates four distinct examples of participatory commemoration the United States Postal Service s Celebrate the Century stamp and education program the September 11 Digital Archive the first post Katrina Carnival in New Orleans and a traveling memorial to the human cost of the Iraq War Despite differences in sponsorship genre historical scope and political purpose all of these commemorations relied on voluntary participation of ordinary citizens in selecting producing or performing interpretations of distant or recent historical events These collectively produced interpretations or popular memories in turn prompted interactions between people inviting them to celebrate to mourn or to bear witness The book s comparison of the four case studies suggests that popular memories make for stronger or weaker sites of civic engagement depending on whether or not they allow for public affirmation of the individual citizen s contribution and for experiencing alternative identities and perspectives By systematically accounting for grassroots memory practices consumerism tourism and rituals of popular identity Haskins s study enriches our understanding of contemporary memory culture and citizenship

Theories of Adolescent Development Barbara M. Newman, Philip R. Newman, 2020-05-05 Adolescence is both universal and culturally constructed resulting in diverse views about its defining characteristics Theories of Adolescent Development brings together many theories surrounding this life stage in one comprehensive reference It begins with an introduction to the nature of theory in the field of adolescence including an analysis of why there are so many theories in this field The theory chapters are grouped into three sections biological systems psychological systems and societal systems Each chapter considers a family of theories including scope assumptions key concepts contributions to the study of adolescence approaches to measurement applications and a discussion of strengths and limitations of this family A concluding chapter offers an integrative analysis identifying five assumptions drawn from the theories that are essential guides for future research and application Three questions provide a focus for comparison and contrast How do the theories characterize the time and timing of adolescence What do the theories emphasize as domains that are unfolding in movement toward maturity Building on the perspective of Positive Youth Development how do the theories differ in their views of developmental resources and conditions that may undermine development in adolescence Includes biological psychological and sociological theories Identifies historical roots assumptions key concepts applications measurement strengths and limitations of each theory Compares and contrasts theories Concludes with an integrated perspective across theories

Psychiatry and Its Discontents Andrew Scull, 2021-06-08 Psychiatry and Its Discontents provides a wide ranging and critical perspective on the psychiatric enterprise The book's historical sweep is broad ranging from the age of the asylum to the rise of psychopharmacology and the dubious triumphs of community care Freud and Foucault Christian Science and Scientology psychosurgery and modern drug treatments trauma and the effects of war on the human psyche the siren song of neuroscience and the predicaments confronting the profession at the dawn of the new millennium are but some of the issues considered here Collectively the essays that make up Psychiatry and Its Discontents provide a vivid and compelling portrait of the recurring crises of legitimacy that mad doctors as they were once called have endured and of the impact of psychiatry's ideas and interventions on the lives of those afflicted with mental illness

The Films of Fred Schepisi Brian McFarlane, 2021-11-15 Fred Schepisi is one of the crucial names associated with the revival of the Australian film industry in the 1970s The Films of Fred Schepisi traces the lead up to his critical successes in feature filmmaking via his earlier award winning success as a producer in advertising commercials in the 1960s and the setting up of his own company Unlike some directors he derived from this experience a sure sense of the commercial aspects of filmmaking as well as its aesthetic considerations The volume also considers stories of his early education in a Catholic seminary which he drew on in his semiautobiographical film The Devil's Playground the success of which launched him as an exciting new feature director The volume expands on Schepisi's success story to chart his development as a director in demand in other countries notably in the US and the UK as well as continuing to make major films in Australia Brian McFarlane argues that Schepisi's career is symptomatic of Australian directors who have made their presences felt on the international stage Whereas other key directors of the Australian film revival such as Peter Weir and Bruce Beresford have been the subject of book length critical studies Schepisi's career has not to date been so explored McFarlane takes a critical account of Schepisi's film output including such standouts as The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith Plenty Roxanne Six Degrees of Separation Mr Baseball and Last Orders and he augments analysis with interviews with the director By discussing the production histories and both critical and popular receptions McFarlane's study shines a new light on Schepisi's work and his rise to prominence in the global film industry

Enforced Marginality Bluma Goldstein, 2007-08-21 This illuminating study explores a central but neglected aspect of modern Jewish history the problem of abandoned Jewish wives or agunes chained wives women who under Jewish law could not obtain a divorce and of the men who deserted them Looking at seventeenth and eighteenth century Germany and then late nineteenth century eastern Europe and twentieth century United States Enforced Marginality explores representations of abandoned wives while tracing the demographic movements of Jews in the West Bluma Goldstein analyzes a range of texts in Old Yiddish German Yiddish and English at the intersection of disciplines history literature sociology and gender studies to describe the dynamics of power between men and women within traditional communities and to elucidate the full spectrum of experiences abandoned women faced

Stigma and Culture J. Lorand Matory, 2015-12-02 In Stigma and Culture J Lorand Matory provocatively shows how ethnic identification in the United States and around the globe is a competitive and hierarchical process in which populations especially of historically stigmatized races seek status and income by dishonoring other stigmatized populations And there is no better place to see this than among the African American elite in academia where he explores the emergent ethnic identities of African and Caribbean immigrants and transmigrants Gullah Geechees Louisiana Creoles and even Native Americans of partly African ancestry Matory describes the competitive process that hierarchically structures their self definition as ethnic groups and the similar process by which middle class African Americans seek distinction from their impoverished compatriots Drawing on research at universities such as Howard Harvard and Duke and among their alumni networks he details how university life while facilitating individual upward mobility touting human equality and regaling cultural diversity also perpetuates the cultural standards that historically justified the dominance of some groups over others Combining his ethnographic findings with classic theoretical insights from Frantz Fanon Fredrik Barth Erving Goffman Pierre Bourdieu and others alongside stories from his own life in academia Matory sketches the university as an institution that particularly through the anthropological vocabulary of culture encourages the stigmatized to stratify their own

100 Must-read Prize-Winning Novels Nick Rennison, 2010-09-25 A large number of people each year make their reading decisions on the basis of prizes like the Booker and Orange Guide to Fiction This new title in the successful Must Read series provides an overview of prize winning fiction over the decades With 100 titles fully featured and over 500 read on recommendations this unique survey of literature incorporates some of the finest contemporary fiction ever produced including Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children Booker Jonathan Coe's What a Carve Up John Llewellyn Rhys Andrea Levy's Small Island Orange Louis de Bernieres's Captain Corelli's Mandolin Commonwealth Writers Prize Zadie Smith's White Teeth Guardian First Book Award Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Booker As well as Booker and Pulitzer prize winners the book also finds room for those that have triumphed in less familiar prizes such as the Betty Trask and the John Lewellyn Rhys It looks at prize winners in certain genres such as crime and science fiction as well as prize winners from other countries the French Prix de Goncourt and the Australian Miles Franklin award Because of the sheer range of prizes across countries and genres this is a diverse and rich list that no book worm would want to be without

Poetics of Cinema David Bordwell, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty five years of work on what he has called the historical poetics of cinema David Bordwell presents an extended analysis of a key question for film studies how are films made in particular historical contexts in order to achieve certain effects For Bordwell films are made things existing within historical contexts and aim to create determinate effects Beginning with this central thesis Bordwell works out a full understanding of how films channel and recast cultural influences for their cinematic purposes With more than five hundred film stills Poetics of Cinema is a must have for any student of cinema

Why Men Lie Linden MacIntyre, 2012-03-27 This latest novel from Scotiabank Giller Prize winner Linden MacIntyre Why Men Lie offers a moving and emotionally complex conclusion to the Cape Breton trilogy Two years after the events of The Bishop's Man we re introduced to Effie MacAskill Gillis sister of the troubled priest Duncan It's 1997 and Effie is an independent middle aged woman working as a tenured professor of Celtic Studies but her complicated and often disappointing love life has left her all but ready to give up on the opposite sex Then suddenly a chance encounter with a man on a Toronto subway platform gives Effie renewed hope J C Campbell is an old friend she hasn't seen for more than 20 years an attractive single man who appears to possess the stability and good sense she longs for Effie met her last husband Sextus in her hometown of Cape Breton when the two were still children As they grew older together and started a family she soon learned that when it came to other women Sextus couldn't be trusted After one too many betrayals Effie leaves him behind and so when she and J C seem to hit it off his relaxed open demeanour is a welcome change But after a happy start to their relationship cracks begin to show and J C proves himself to be just as unpredictable as the others one evening Effie spots him in a seedy part of town but he denies ever having left his house when she notices a scratch below his eye he lies about its cause blaming it on the cat Then J C a journalist becomes unhealthily engrossed in a story involving a convict on death row and he and Effie begin to drift apart Although he still checks in sporadically and insists there's nothing going on she soon learns he has a deeply personal reason for his covert trips to that seedy downtown street In fact it turns out there's a lot about his past that Effie doesn't know and a lot he's still learning himself While J C is busy chasing his own past Effie is rarely able to escape her own Family ties and hometown connections to Cape Breton mean her two ex husbands Sextus happens to be the cousin of her first husband John are constantly coming and going in a turbulent mess of comfort and commotion while her grown daughter Cassie brings some unexpected news of her own After all of her experience in relationships with men Effie thought she knew all she needed to about what to expect and how to maintain her self sufficiency Why do men lie she wants to know But whether it's for love for protection or for more selfish reasons Effie soon learns that no amount of experience can prepare you for what might resurface from the past and for the damage that might cause emotionally or otherwise

Embracing the Tune of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within Interlocking Lives

In a global taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic elegance and mental symphony created by the prepared word usually fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant noise and interruptions that permeate our lives.
