localized than before these essays examine the dynamic between the movement of capital images and technologies without regard to national borders and the tendency toward fragmentation of the world into increasingly contentious enclaves of difference ethnicity and resistance Ranging across issues involving film literature and theory as well as history politics economics sociology and anthropology these deeply interdisciplinary essays explore the interwoven forces of globalism and localism in a variety of cultural settings with a particular emphasis on the Asia Pacific region Powerful readings of the new image culture transnational film genre and the politics of spectacle are offered as is a critique of globalization as the latest guise of colonization Articles that unravel the complex links between the global and local in terms of the unfolding narrative of capital are joined by work that illuminates phenomena as diverse as yellow cab interracial sex in Japan machinic desire in Robocop movies and the Pacific Rim city An interview with Fredric Jameson by Paik Nak Chung on globalization and Pacific Rim responses is also featured as is a critical afterword by Paul Bov Positioned at the crossroads of an altered global terrain this volume the first of its kind analyzes the evolving transnational imaginary the full scope of contemporary cultural production by which national identities of political allegiance and economic regulation are being undone and in which imagined communities are being reshaped at both the global and local levels of everyday existence
