Interfaith Dialoguepeacebuilding:

Interfaith Dialogue and Peacebuilding David R. Smock,2002 As the Christian Muslim and Jewish contributors to this volume have discovered firsthand religion is better at fostering peace than at fueling war Rarely conclude the authors is religion the principal cause of international conflict even though some adversaries may argue differently But religion can often be invaluable in promoting understanding and reconciliation and the need to exploit that potential has never been greater Drawing on their extensive experience in organizing interaction and cooperation across religious boundaries in the Middle East Africa Southeast Asia Northern Ireland and the Balkans the contributors explore the formidable potential of interfaith dialogue The first part of the volume analyzes the concept and its varied application the second focuses on its practice in specific zones of conflict and the third assesses the experiences and approaches of particular organizations When organized creatively interfaith dialogue can nurture deep engagement at all levels of the religious hierarchy including the community level It draws strength from the peacemaking traditions shared by many faiths and from the power of religious ritual and symbolism Yet as the authors also make plain it also has its limitations and carries great risks

Intercultural and Interfaith Dialogues for Global Peacebuilding and Stability Peleg, Samuel,2019-05-31 Communication is vital to the prosperity and survival of the community with the quality of communication amongst its members directly improving or worsening the value of the community However with the increase in immigration and relocation of refugees the need to accommodate diverse cultural groups becomes imperative for the viability and survivability of a community while posing challenges to communication Intercultural and interfaith dialogue can be used constructively to cultivate manage and sustain diversity and wellbeing in particularly deeply divided communities Intercultural and Interfaith Dialogues for Global Peacebuilding and Stability is a critical research publication that explores the importance of conflict resolution strategies among populations that include a varied amalgamation of cultural and religious backgrounds With the increasing emphasis on intercultural understanding promoted by governments civil societies and international mediators this book offers relevant remedies for major afflictions in the world today such as exclusion marginalization xenophobia and racism It is ideal for government officials policymakers activists diplomats lawyers international trade and commerce agencies religious institutions academicians researchers and students working in a variety of disciplines including political science international relations law communication sociology and cultural studies

Religion as a Conversation Starter Ina Merdjanova,Patrice Brodeur,2009-01-01

Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Renáta Katalin Nelson,2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects What Works? Renee Garfinkel,2008-09 Interfaith Dialogue Muhammad Shafiq,Mohammed Abu-Nimer,2011-01-01 Islam recognizes a plurality of religions and asks Muslims to respect other religions The primary role of interfaith dialogue is to remove misunderstanding and accept difference the aim being to generate a climate of peaceful coexistence and harmonious social relations And this is perhaps more needed today than ever before as mankind is increasingly called upon to exercise tolerance in a markedly volatile world where living and working together in diversity is fast becoming the norm Interfaith dialogue is by no means easy defensive reaction uncomfortable exchange and an overwhelming desire to avoid a perceived compromise of deeply held principles are some of the pitfalls that can easily cool commitment and the best of endeavors It is here that this Guide makes an important contribution The book is designed to guide Muslims who are interested and or involved in building relations with those of the Jewish and Christian faiths Violence, Religion, Peacemaking Douglas Irvin-Erickson,Peter C. Phan,2016-09-09 This volume explores how religious leaders can contribute to cultures of peace around the world The essays are written by leading and emerging scholars and practitioners who have lived taught or worked in the areas of conflict about which they write Connecting the theory and practice of religious peacebuilding to illuminate key challenges facing interreligious dialogue and interreligious peace work the volume is explicitly interreligious intercultural and global in perspective The chapters approach religion and peace from the vantage point of security studies sociology ethics ecology theology and philosophy A foreword by David Smock the Vice President of Governance Law and Society and Director of the Religion and Peacebuilding Center at the United States Institute of Peace outlines the current state of the field Globalization, Gender, and Peacebuilding Pui-lan Kwok,2012 2011 Madeleva lecture in spirituality Religious Contributions to Peacemaking David R. Smock,2006

Approaches to Jewish-Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding: Theory and Practice Mollov, M. Ben,2024-10-01 Religion in its most negative form has and can be the basis of conflict escalation and terror However religion in its more noble and elevated forms can also be a force for peacebuilding particularly between Jews and Arabs If the slow but steady progress toward Israel s acceptance into Middle East continues an interreligious dimension will clearly accompany it as the Abraham Accords demonstrates Yet as the region continues to evolve and new challenges emerge new peacebuilding strategies will be required Approaches to Jewish Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding Theory and Practice follows the genre of scholars and practitioners who have contended that the religious contribution to conflict resolution and peacebuilding has been sorely overlooked particularly in the Middle East Based on the author s rich professional experience this book delves into the complexities of Jewish Arab relations by examining both the theoretical frameworks and practical initiatives that seek to bridge divides through religious dialogue Covering topics such as the Arab Israeli conflict Jewish political tradition and religious diplomacy this book is an essential resource for academicians scholars practitioners in peacebuilding policymakers government officials religious leaders and communities students and educators and more

The Role of Religion in Peacebuilding Pauline Kollontai,Sue Yore,Sebastian Kim,2017-12-14 The question who is my neighbour challenges the way we see ourselves as well as the way we see others Especially in situations where we feel conflicted between our own self identity and common identity within a wider society Historically religion has contributed to this inner conflict by creating us versus them mentalities Challenging this traditional view this volume examines how religions and religious communities can use their resources methodology and praxis to encourage peace making The book is divided into two parts the first includes sources theories and methodologies of crossing boundaries of prejudice and distrust from the perspectives of theology and religious studies The second includes case studies of theory and practice to challenge prejudice and distrust in a conflict or post conflict situation The chapters are written by scholars religious leaders and faith motivated peace practitioners from various global contexts to create a diverse academic study of religious peace building

Flying with Two Wings Virginia Garrard-Burnett,Yetkin Yildirim,2011-07-12 Many people are of the opinion that our world faces a crisis a clash of civilizations from which we are unlikely to recover However Turkish born educator scholar and advocate for peace Fethullah G len believes that through education tolerance and dialogue peace can be achieved G len has spoken of what he calls peace islands in an analogy describing his non violent cooperative ideas about conflict resolution The perceived clash of civilizations may come in waves of violence and anger throughout the world but once these waves reach these peace islands they will retreat with the tide leaving the islands unscathed G len ideals provide the blueprint for these islands This collection as a whole attempts what each individual paper proposes a dialogue rooted in tolerance that accounts for the unique histories and assumptions of each member involved Proper interfaith dialogue requires first an encounter between two or more individuals then a willingness rooted in tolerance of each individual to engage with the other This definition of interfaith dialogue is central to G len s writings and indeed to the focus of this collection of papers Each author relates to G len s ideas in a unique way offering a diversity of perspectives that gives true dialogue its vibrant energy

Faith-based Diplomacy and Interfaith Dialogue Scott Blakemore, 2019-05-27 Scholars are seeking to identify how to constructively integrate faith into diplomacy Proponents of faith based diplomacy recognise that incorporating faith into peacemaking activities assists in managing identity based conflict and religiously motivated violence in the contemporary international system A promising strategy within the scope of faith based diplomacy is interfaith dialogue The study and practice of interfaith dialogue has been reinvigorated since the advent of 9 11 and yet the link between interfaith dialogue and diplomacy remains underdeveloped The cases of Indonesia and the United States present lessons on how states can effectively use interfaith dialogue to achieve policy objectives while recognising that some policies are detrimental to achieving diplomatic goals This paper seeks to provide some framework for bringing interfaith dialogue into the scope of diplomacy by illuminating how faith based diplomacy and interfaith dialogue can be innovative diplomatic perspectives useful in addressing contemporary global issues
