International Negotiation Evangelos Raftopoulos, 2019-01-03
Evangelos Raftopoulos explores international negotiation as a structured process of relational governance that generates international common interest between and among international participants and in relation to the international public order He challenges prescriptive models of negotiation developed in international relations and positivistic approaches to international law which artificially separate treaties from negotiation in the name of objectivity and opens a window for looking at international negotiations from a novel international law perspective Using an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates law philosophy politics and linguistics he proposes a holistic theoretical model of multilateral international negotiation that not only offers a subjective view of international law in practice but also demonstrates the importance of understanding the horizontal normativity of international ordering This work should be read by academics and practitioners of international law and negotiations officials of international organizations and anyone else interested in international law and international relations

An Introduction to International Negotiation Bertram I. Spector, 2025-08-26 This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the international negotiation system its key elements and processes what major issues and challenges it faces and its impacts on international relations As a major catalyst of global dynamics negotiation is used to resolve conflicts and promote cooperation peacefully It is important to understand how it works First the book analyzes the principal factors that interact to move the negotiation system forward the issues and context actors structures strategies and outcomes Then the discussion considers the four basic subprocesses of international negotiation getting to the table conducting negotiations developing implementation plans and continuing negotiations in the post agreement period Relevant research is presented in each chapter to elaborate on these dynamics and offer case studies of negotiations addressing intrastate conflict the environment terrorism anti corruption and good governance and post agreement issues In addition the book examines major conflictual conundrums currently facing the world in the Middle East and Ukraine to explore opportunities for negotiated solutions Providing a solid mix of theory research and real world cases that offers readers a comprehensive appreciation of the field and how it is used on a practical level this is an excellent basic text for courses on international relations peace studies conflict resolution and international negotiations and a useful resource for researchers policymakers and practitioners International Negotiations ,1991 The Dynamics of International Negotiation Bertram I. Spector, 2022-09-16 This book explores the dynamics of international negotiations from the perspectives of researchers and practical negotiators Reinforcing the idea that the study of negotiation is not merely an academic endeavor the essays reflect the author's lifetime experiences as a negotiation researcher and provider of analytical support to international negotiation teams Addressing a wide range of critical issues such as creativity and experimentation psychological dynamics avoiding incomplete agreements engineering the negotiation context reframing negotiations for development conflicts understanding what matters when implementing agreements utilizing decision support systems engaging new actors and expanding core values each chapter opens new doors on our conceptual and practical understanding of international negotiations The author introduces new ways of understanding and explaining the negotiation process from different intellectual perspectives The goal of this book is to resolve many critical unanswered questions by stimulating new research on these dynamics and developing new approaches that can help negotiation practitioners be more effective The book will be used in university courses on international negotiation and conflict resolution and provide a useful resource for researchers policymakers practitioners NGOs donor organizations and grant giving organizations and Fairness in International Negotiation Cecilia Albin, 2001-03-15 International negotiations have become an increasingly widespread feature of international affairs as the number of parties involved have grown and regional and global fora have multiplied Cecilia Albin examines the role of considerations of justice and fairness in these negotiations She argues that negotiators do not simply pursue their narrow interests or those of their countries but regularly take principles of justice and fairness into account These principles come into play at an early stage as talks are structured and agendas set in the bargaining process itself and in the implementation of and compliance with agreements The analysis is based on cases in four important areas the environment international trade ethnic conflict the Israeli Palestinian conflict and arms control Drawing on a mass of empirical data including a large number of interviews this book relates the abstract debate over international norms and ethics to the realities of international relations

The Diplomatic Making of EU-China Relations Lucie Qian Xia, 2024-04-11 This book provides a novel theoretical framework to understand EU China diplomatic relations The existing scholarly literature on EU China relations is characterised by a dichotomous distinction between material and ideational factors and overemphasises the interest versus value motif undergirding EU China relations The diplomacy and future direction of the relationship seem as opaque as their extent remains incalculably complex This book takes us beyond binary motives by introducing a novel theoretical model of diplomatic relationship building that brings to the fore the more nuanced and latent factors to make sense of EU China diplomatic relationship building the new theory captures the relational nature of diplomatic relationship building by integrating the social layer of intentions in understanding international diplomacy This study further sheds light on the opportunities and challenges in enhancing EU China relations through a comparative in depth investigation of the processes practices and politics of EU China climate change and agricultural trade relations over the past two decades The book draws on a rich collection of original data encompassing over 100 interviews with stakeholders of EU China relations conducted from 2015-2023 strengthened by participant observation at EU and Chinese institutional headquarters and in diplomatic fora that has taken place over the past ten years Enriching these data are newly disclosed official minutes and documentation regarding EU China negotiations and cooperation This book will be of much interest to students of diplomacy studies Chinese politics EU politics and international relations in general How

Negotiations End I. William Zartman, 2019-04-11 The first full length work to analyze the closing phase of negotiations identifying the negotiators behavior patterns in the endgame International Water Treaties Shlomi Dinar, 2007-12-13 Systematic and analytical this book written an expert in the field of hydro politics develops a theory to explain solutions to property rights conflicts over shared rivers Negotiation Theory and the EU Andreas Dür, Gemma Mateo, Daniel C. Thomas, 2013-10-31 Negotiations are central to the ethos and functioning of the European Union yet the dynamics of EU negotiations have received far too little systematic scholarly attention This volume offers a thematic and forward looking survey of cutting edge research on EU negotiation dynamics identifying findings to date and setting an empirical and methodological agenda for future research The chapters by leading international experts address a wide range of critical questions in this area including What factors influence negotiation behaviour and outcomes in the EU How can we explain variation in the choice of negotiation styles When do actors engage in arguing or bargaining What are the determinants of bargaining power What are the institutional foundations of EU negotiations And what role does the presidency play in EU negotiations The volume also discusses how the findings of the multi disciplinary field of negotiation studies can inform research on negotiation dynamics in the EU The volume will be of great interest to established scholars and advanced students of international relations European integration and governance and negotiation analysis This book was based on a special issue of Journal of European Public Policy

Integrated Europe? Klaus Gottstein, 2019-04-15 This volume contains information on the views held in various countries concerning what the future holds and what should be done by each nation s own government as well as by the governments of the partner nations

Climate Change Negotiations Gunnar Sjöstedt, Ariel Macaspac Penetrante, 2013-04-12 As the Kyoto Protocol limps along without the participation of the US and Australia on going climate negotiations are plagued by competing national and business interests that are creating stumbling blocks to success Climate Change Negotiations A Guide to Resolving Disputes and Facilitating Multilateral Cooperation asks how these persistent obstacles can be down scaled approaching them from five professional perspectives a top policy maker a senior negotiator a leading scientist an international lawyer and a sociologist who is observing the process The authors identify the major problems including great power strategies the EU the US and Russia leadership the role of NGOs capacity and knowledge building airline industry emissions insurance and risk transfer instruments problems of cost benefit analysis the IPCC in the post Kyoto situation and verification and institutional design A new key concept is introduced strategic facilitation Strategic facilitation has a long time frame a forward looking orientation and aims to support the overall negotiation process rather than individual actors This book is aimed at academics university students and practitioners who are directly or indirectly engaged in the international climate negotiation as policy makers diplomats or experts

The Organization of Global Negotiations Joanna Depledge, 2013-06-17 The basic assumption of this book is that the organization of a negotiation process matters The global negotiations on climate change involve over 180 countries and innumerable observers and other participants addressing enormously complex and economically vital issues with conflicting agendas For the UN to create an effective and well supported international regime has required enormous and very skilful organization factors such as the role of the Chair the choice of negotiating arenas the rules for the conduct of business and the approach of negotiating texts are usually taken for granted and rarely attract attention until something goes wrong This book explores how the negotiations were organized to produce the Kyoto Protocol to the Climate Change Convention and the subsequent Bonn Agreements and Marrakesh Accords The author draws out the lessons and implications for other intricate and far reaching negotiations not all of which have succeeded so far such as the WTO trade negotiations at Seattle and

Cancun This is essential reading for all participants in and organizers of international negotiations and for researchers and students of international relations climate change and environmental studies Israeli-Palestinian Negotiations in the 1990s: How NGOs Facilitated the Peace Process Tilman Pradt, 2012-08 Non governmental organisations NGOs have become important actors in the globalised world They run aid and relief programmes in the poorest countries support international institutions like the United Nations or are watchdogs of them for example watchdogs of the Bretton Woods institutions In doing so NGOs naturally work permanently with state agencies and it is probably hard to find an NGO which is totally free of any governmental support in financial logistical or informative matters Thus there are strong NGO government connections on a daily work basis NGOs run multiple attempts to contribute to the resolution of conflicts on all political levels They bring together people on the grass root level they try to influence high officials through public pressure and they organise conferences and discussions with members and consultants of the concerned parties The latter approach is analysed in this study But how do NGOs influence the level of official international relations To which degree can NGOs improve the relations of two conflicted parties especially when the conflict is protracted and severe The aim of this book is to define the preconditions of successful NGO mediation to measure the NGO influence as an antecedent condition for successful mediation and to exhibit its limits The underlying assumption is that conflict resolution is more likely if NGO mediation supports this attempt This approach can be labelled as an assumption of constant effect since the focus is on understanding the NGOs influence on international conflict resolution
