 House. Committee on Appropriations,1919 Learning and Awareness Ference Marton,Shirley Booth,2013-02-01 This book stems from more than 25 years of systematic research into the experience of learning undertaken by a research team trying to account for the obvious differences between more or less successful instances of learning in educational institutions
 The book offers an answer in terms of the discovery of critical differences in the structure of the learner s awareness and critical differences in the meaning of the learner s world The authors offer a detailed account of the empirical findings that give rise to theoretical insights and discuss the particular form of qualitative research that has been employed and developed. The form of learning that is the object of study is considered to be the most fundamental form namely a change in the learner's way of seeing, experiencing, handling and understanding aspects of the world. The need for rigorous analysis of learning of specific subject matter, the individual construction of knowledge and its social and cultural embeddedness, the defining features of rival approaches into research on learning are reconciled from the approach adopted here into an intertwined and whole experience of learning. The learner's experience is always one of learning something in some way and in some context by holding the learner's experience of learning as the focus of study throughout and not studying the learning of the content and the acts and the context as separate and distinct focuses; the content, the act and the context remain united as constituents of the learner's experience. By empirically revealing critical differences in the ways of experiencing these aspects of learning and by developing a theoretical framework for the dynamics through which change comes about in the learner's awareness, this book gradually leads the reader to a powerful new view of learning. Equipped with the analytical tools and conceptual apparatus to be found in this book, the reader will be empowered to learn and to assist others to learn by creating environments conducive to the most fundamental form of learning: experiencing aspects of the world in new ways.

But when superfan Matt's latest business venture turns sour, he has to sell his most prized possession: his pair of Cavs season tickets. The buyer, Shawn, just sold his first short story, so watching his team in the flesh for the first time will be a sweet reward. Now just to figure out what to do with that second ticket. Thrown together by chance, the next twelve years prove as defining, dramatic and sometimes heart-breaking for Matt and Shawn as they do for the Cavs and for King LeBron James. Multi-award winner Rajiv Joseph offers a play-by-play look at how friendship and supporting a team intersect. His plays include the Obie Award-winning Describe the Night, Guards at the Taj, and his Pulitzer Prize finalist Broadway play Bengal Tiger at the Baghdad Zoo.
