Visions of

Eden Robert Bruce Stephenson, 1997 Since the turn of the century the opportunity to design a city nestled in a subtropical garden has attracted the nation's preeminent planners to St Petersburg The most ambitious plan was developed in 1923 by John Nolen who believed that an interconnected system of preserves and parks would enhance the city's development and attract tourists for generations His initiative failed miserably at the polls however because it threatened the conflicting notion of paradise held by hundreds of investors who were profiting from the greatest real estate boom in the nation's history and feared that planning would curtail speculation As Stephenson points out a half century would pass until a series of ecological disasters in the 1970s finally compelled city officials to adopt an environmentally sound development plan that reflected Nolen's original vision Research in Education ,1973 Libraries Publish Stephanie Katz,2021-01-11 In this book author Stephanie Katz founding editor of the award winning literary journal 805 Lit Art shares practical tools and advice for starting successful creative publishing projects Publishing benefits libraries by providing high quality content to patrons showcasing local writers and faculty and creating buzz for the library These endeavors can be launched at any type and size of library often for little to no cost Libraries Publish teaches libraries how to publish literary magazines book review blogs local anthologies picture books library professional journals and even novels You ll learn how to run a writing contest or writer in residence program form community partnerships with other literary organizations find funding navigate legal considerations market your publication and more Each chapter contains detailed information on how to start your project including comprehensive checklists recommendations for free software and legal considerations Social media strategies as well as tips for facilitating student or teen run projects are also covered If your library wants to start a publishing project this book will be your go to resource Sea Grant Publications Index ,1979 Conservation Directory, 1990 Rue Gordon,1990 EPA Publications Bibliography Quarterly Abstract Bulletin United States.
