The Philosophical Foundations of Soviet Aesthetics Edward M. Swiderski, 2012-12-06 0 1 GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROBLEMATIC This study is devoted to an examination of a concept of crucial significance for Soviet aesthetics the concept of the aesthetic esteticeskoe Soviet aestheticians have for some time already been trying to design a concept of the aesthetic that would satisfy on the one hand the requirements of aesthetic phenomena and on the other hand the principles of the Marxist Leninist world view The first part of this work shows how the concept of the aesthetic has been and continues to be problematic for Soviet aestheticians This task is carried out by dwelling first of all on the controversies among Soviet aestheticians concerning meta aesthetic issues viz the nature and scope of aesthetics as well as its place among other philosophical and non philosophical disciplines A particularly clear view of the problems that have traditionally pre occupied Soviet aestheticians is provided by an examination of what they standardly call the method of aesthetics where method is understood in the sense of an explanatory framework rather than in the strict logico scientific sense of the term This discussion will provide the occasion to pass in review the main periods of Soviet aesthetics and the characteristic aspects of Scanlan, 2012-12-06 Since the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 two of the most significant but at the same time least understood areas of that revolution's cultural impact have been philosophy and religion. The impact has of course been massive not only in the Soviet Union but after the second World War in Soviet dominated Eastern Europe as well. Yet the consequences of Communism for philosophy and religion throughout the Soviet orbit are far from having the simplicity suggested by the stereotypes of a single monolithic Marxism and a consistent crushing assault on the Church and on religious faith. Unquestionably Marxism is the ruling philosophy throughout Eastern Europe. In the Soviet Union Marxism Leninism or dialectical materialism is the official and the only tolerated philosophy and most of the other countries of Eastern Europe follow the Soviet lead in philosophy as in other fields. But in the latter countries Marxism was imposed only after World War II and its development has not always copied the Soviet model. Original thinkers in Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, and Hungary have thought their own way through the writings of Marx and his followers and have arrived at Marxist positions which are considerably at variance with the Soviet interpretations and often with each other. Moreover in recent years the Soviet philosophers themselves have been unable to ignore the theoretical questions raised by the other East of Marxism in the West.      The Humanities A.
