The Rotarian, 1999-12 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine

Artifacts from Medieval Europe James B. Tschen-Emmons, 2015-02-10 Using artifacts as primary sources this book enables students to comprehensively assess and analyze historic evidence in the context of the medieval period This new addition to the Daily Life through Artifacts series provides not only the full benefit of a reference work with its comprehensive explanations and primary sources but also supplies images of the objects bringing a particular aspect of the medieval world to life Each entry in Artifacts from Medieval Europe explains and expands upon the cultural significance of the artifact depicted Artifacts are divided into such thematic categories as domestic life religion and transportation Considered collectively the various artifacts provide a composite look at daily life in the Middle Ages Unlike medieval history encyclopedias that feature brief reference entries this book uses artifacts to examine major aspects of daily life Each artifact entry features an introduction a description an examination of its contextual significance and a list of further resources This approach trains students how to best analyze primary sources General readers with an interest in history will also benefit from this approach to learning that enables a more complete appreciation of past events and circumstances

Design and the Vernacular Paul Memmott, John Ting, Tim O'Rourke, Marcel Vellinga, 2023-11-16 Design and the Vernacular explores the intersection between vernacular architecture local cultures and modernity and globalization focussing on the vast and diverse global region of Australasia and Oceania The relevance and role of vernacular architecture in contemporary urban planning and architectural design are examined in the context of rapid political economic technological social and environmental changes including globalization exchanges of people finance material culture and digital technologies Sixteen chapters by architects designers and theorists including Indigenous writers explore key questions about the agency of vernacular architecture in shaping contemporary building and design practice These questions include How have Indigenous building traditions shaped modern building practices What can the study of vernacular architecture contribute to debates about sustainable development And how has vernacular architecture been used to argue for postcolonial modernisation and nation building and what has been the effect on heritage and conservation Such questions provide valuable case studies and lessons for architecture in other global regions and challenge assumptions about vernacular architecture being anachronistic and static instead demonstrating how it can shape contemporary architecture nation building and cultural identities
