Masculinities in Polish, Czech and Slovak Cinema Ewa Mazierska, 2008 Gender especially masculinity is a perspective rarely applied in discourses on cinema of Eastern Central Europe Masculinities in Polish Czech and Slovak Cinema exposes an English speaking audience to a large proportion of this region's cinema that previously remained unknown focusing on the relationship between representation of masculinity and nationality in the films of two and later three countries Poland Czechoslovakia the Czech Republic and Slovakia The objective of the book is to discuss the main types of men populating Polish Czech and Slovak films that of soldier father heterosexual and homosexual lover against a rich political social and cultural background Czech Slovak and Polish cinema appear to provide excellent material for comparison as they were produced in neighbouring countries which for over forty years endured a similar political system state socialism Larks on a String Bohumil Hrabal, Jirí Menzel, 1991 New York Magazine, 1991-02-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1991-02-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1991-02-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Rights of the Roma Celia Donert, 2017-12-14 The Rights of the Roma writes Romani struggles for citizenship into the history of human rights in socialist and post socialist Eastern Europe If Roma have typically appeared in human rights narratives as victims Celia Donert here draws on extensive original research in Czech and Slovak archives sociological and ethnographic studies and oral histories to foreground Romani activists as subjects and actors Through a vivid social and political history of Roma in Czechoslovakia she provides a new interpretation of the history of human rights by highlighting the role of Socialist regimes in constructing social citizenship in postwar Eastern Europe The post socialist human rights movement did not spring from the dissident movements of the 1970s but rather emerged in response to the collapse of socialist citizenship after 1989 A timely study as Europe faces a major refugee crisis which raises questions about the historical roots of nationalist and xenophobic attitudes towards non citizens Starlight and Stargazers Helena Goscilo,2024-05-21 Celebrification has thrived for centuries in literature theater music and other cultural spheres as vividly illustrated by Byron Sarah Bernhardt and Paganini It especially effloresced in cinema after the symbolically named Lumi re brothers pioneered movies as light projected moving life to be contemplated and shared in the intimate darkness of theaters Actors and actresses such as Valentino and Garbo acquired the status of divine beings whose life on and offscreen stimulated fascination and a passionate devotion most frequently invested in religious figures The recent explosion in social media has only amplified immeasurably the scale and intensity of that adulation Yearning for the seemingly transcendent fans as mere mortals seek contact with celebrities as objects of worship that like nocturnal stars are simultaneously remote yet accessible Starlight and Stargazers examines the multifaceted nature and specific manifestations of film celebrification in Czechoslovakia the Czech Republic Poland Soviet Russia Russia and Ukraine before and after 1991 A History of Fowling Hugh Alexander Macpherson,1897

Sensational Bird Crafts Jane Yates,2018-07-15 Birds are fun animals to watch play Why not try making toys for a favorite feathered friend at home Crafts especially for bird lovers fill this colorful volume including easy instructions for making a stacking toy a mirror and more to entertain pet birds A felt bird bird journal and other bird themed crafts draw in readers who simply enjoy birds but may not own one Age appropriate guidance through each fun craft makes this book a great addition to any children s library collection Memoirs of the Life and Adventures of Colonel Maceroni Francis Maceroni,1838 Mémoires of the life and adventures of Colonel Maceroni, late aide-de-camp to Joachim Murat, king of Naples ... With a portrait Colonel MACERONI,1838 The English Encyclopædia ,1802 Music in the British Provinces, 1690-1914 Peter Holman,2017-07-05 The period covered by this volume roughly from Purcell to Elgar has traditionally been seen as a dark age in British musical history Much has been done recently to revise this view though research still tends to focus on London as the commercial and cultural hub of the British Isles It is becoming increasingly clear however that by the mid eighteenth century musical activity outside London was highly distinctive in terms of its reach the way it was organized and its size richness and quality There was an extraordinary amount of musical activity of all sorts in provincial theatres and halls in the amateur orchestras and choirs that developed in most towns of any size in taverns and convivial clubs in parish churches and dissenting chapels and of course in the home This is the first book to concentrate specifically on musical life in the provinces bringing together new archival research and offering a fresh perspective on British music of the period The essays brought together here testify to the vital role played by music in provincial culture not only in socializing and networking but in regional economies and rivalries demographics and class dynamics religion and identity education and recreation and community and the formation of tradition Most important perhaps as our focus shifts from London to the regions new light is shed on neglected figures and forgotten repertoires all of them worthy of reconsideration The Sad King of Czech Literature Bohumil Hrabal Radko Pytlík,2000
