Thompson, F. G. De Fontaine, Henry Box Brown, John Dixon Long, Harriet Jacobs, Jacob D. Green, Thomas S. Gaines, Willie Lynch, Margaretta Matilda Odell, Joseph Mountain, 2023-11-26 Living to Tell the Horrid Tales True Life Stories of Former Slaves Historical Documents Novels is a seminal collection that weaves together a tapestry of narratives documenting the visceral realities of slavery and its enduring impact. This anthology presents a rich array of literary styles from harrowing autobiographical accounts to incisive essays and riveting novels. The collection's strength lies in its diversity featuring standout pieces that poignantly capture the human spirit's resilience amidst unimaginable adversity. It serves as a crucial compendium positioning itself within the literary context as both a vital historical document and a compelling narrative of personal and collective struggle. The contributors to this anthology are a distinguished assemblage of writers each bringing their unique perspectives and experiences. Spanning across different historical and cultural contexts authors such as Frederick Douglass, Sojourner Truth, and Harriet Jacobs lend their voices to create a resonant chorus of testimony and resistance. Their collective contributions align with abolitionist and Civil Rights movements offering profound insights into the socio-political landscapes of their times. This diversity of voices coalesces to enhance the reader's understanding of the complexities and nuances inherent in the theme of freedom and human dignity. Recommended for both its educational and emotional depth Living to Tell the Horrid Tales invites readers into a journey of exploration across myriad perspectives and narratives. This anthology offers a unique opportunity to traverse the landscapes of hardship and hope presented through a multiplicity of styles and themes. Readers are encouraged to engage with this collection not only to enrich their historical knowledge but to participate in the ongoing dialogue about freedom, justice, and humanity. Through this singular volume one can appreciate the breadth of insights and the indelible impact of these powerful narratives on contemporary discourse.

A Life in Chains Mark Twain, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Lydia Maria Child, James Weldon Johnson, William Wells Brown, Frederick Douglass, Booker T. Washington, Harriet E. Wilson, Charles W. Chesnutt, Harriet Jacobs, 2023-11-16 A Life in Chains presents a resonant anthology that captures the indomitable spirit and varied narratives emerging from America's complex history of slavery, emancipation, and identity formation. This collection seamlessly weaves together narratives, essays, and tales that explore the depths of human resilience and the abhorrent realities of bondage. From poignant reflections on personal sufferings to broader commentaries on societal injustice, each piece illuminates the multifaceted experiences of enslaved and free individuals. In amalgamating such diverse literary voices, the anthology traverses genres from autobiography and fiction to polemical essays, offering works of great cultural and historical significance. Unified under a theme borne from both individual and collective anguish and triumph, the contributing authors are essential figures in the American literary and cultural landscape. The anthology draws on the poignant rhetoric of Frederick Douglass, the evocative storytelling of Harriet Beecher Stowe, and the astute observations of Charles W. Chesnutt among others. It aligns with abolitionist and post-Reconstruction movements, underscoring the struggles and victories of those shaping the course of American history and literature By presenting such a rich tapestry of voices the collection lends invaluable insights into diverse viewpoints on American enslavement and liberty For readers and scholars alike A Life in Chains offers an unparalleled opportunity to delve into the multiplicity of perspectives chronicling America's struggle with slavery and its enduring legacy It invites exploration and reflection and promises understanding and enlightenment on the perpetual dialogue about race freedom and human dignity This anthology serves not only as an academic resource but as a catalyst for ongoing conversations encouraging readers to grapple with its profound themes and engage critically with the past The Last Scientist Cassandra

Morphy,2020-07-01 In a world where magic has supplanted science those that can use it become the new upper class while those that can't are cast out into the world barely getting by Eric the last scientist sets out to change all that to restore a balance lost decades ago But when a young mage is killed in front of him he must struggle to get away from the dogged pursuit of the Mage Authority and coerce anyone he needs to in order to finish his quest Even those that would work against their own interest in the process Bethany is the leader of her investigative team of the Mage Authority When she gets assigned the case of the wrongful death of a young mage she is thrown down the rabbit hole of conspiracies and intrigue Will she be able to find the mage responsible before the politics of the guild system forces her to arrest the wrong man Ardith is broke and in debt Despite her own abilities the world of magic just wasn't working for like it should have So when the mysterious man appeared with promises of silver she jumped at the chance to make some money It was her first real work out of the academy but if she isn't careful it may be her last The Last Sabre James Paddock,2011-07-13 Book III of the

Sabre Toothed Cat Trilogy Three weeks after her mother's death Rebecca Reba Price cannot stand the oppressiveness filling her Texas home Her sister aunt and maybe even her father blame her She cannot disagree Hacking into her father's accounts she takes what she sees as her rightful inheritance and escapes to school in Montana She convinces herself it's not to be near where her mother died nor near the sabre toothed cats However as her freshman year ends she is drawn back into those mountains only to discover that the plot which drove her mother to sacrifice herself for her family is alive and well As the body count rises human and sabre toothed feline Reba must call upon all her inner power to find a way to bring it to a final end The Last Hope Henry Seton Merriman,2019-12-19 In The Last Hope Henry Seton Merriman weaves a poignant narrative that explores the complexities of human ambition moral dilemmas and the indomitable spirit of hope amidst despair Set against the backdrop of late 19th century England Merriman employs a rich Victorian prose style that recalls the works of contemporaries such as Thomas Hardy and George Eliot The novel intricately blends romantic elements with a political consciousness reflective of its time delving into the societal constraints that impact personal aspirations and relationships Through the characters intertwining fates Merriman crafts a meditation on the nature of sacrifice and redemption encapsulating a compelling tale of endurance in the face of adversity Henry Seton Merriman born in 1862 was a novelist and journalist whose own experiences as a traveler and observer of society heavily influenced his storytelling His background in law and his extensive travels across Europe lend depth to the settings and characterizations found in his works The Last Hope reflects his keen observation of human nature and the societal structures that shape individual destinies reflecting Merriman's desire to provoke thought about duty, desire, and the inescapable consequences of our choices. This captivating narrative is highly recommended for readers who seek not only compelling storytelling but also a deeper understanding of the human condition. Merriman's masterful prose and intricate character development offer readers an emotional journey that resonates with contemporary themes of resilience and moral complexity. Whether you are drawn to historical fiction or the exploration of moral quandaries, The Last Hope promises to leave a lasting impact. The Last Blade Priest W P

Wiles, 2022-07-12 WINNER of The Kitschies Red Tentacle Award 2023 An epic fantasy with rich world building and a wry take on genre conventions from a Betty Trask Award winning author Inar is Master Builder for the Kingdom of Mishig Tenh. Life is hard after the Kingdom lost the war against the League of Free Cities. Doubly so since his father betrayed the King and paid the ultimate price. And now the King's terrifying chancellor and torturer in chief has arrived and instructed Inar to go and work for the League. And to spy for him. And any builder knows you don't put yourself between a rock and a hard place. Far away Anton Blade Priest for Craithe the God Mountain is about to be caught up in a vicious internal war that will tear his religion apart. Chosen from infancy to conduct human sacrifice, he is secretly relieved that the practice has been abruptly stopped. But an ancient enemy has returned, an occult conspiracy is unfolding, and he will struggle to keep his hands clean in a world engulfed by bloodshed. In a series of constantly surprising twists and turns that take the reader through a vividly imagined and original world full of familiar tensions and surprising perspectives on old tropes, Inar and Anton find that others in their story may have more influence on their lives, on the future of the League, and on their whole world than they or the reader imagined. File Under Fantasy Nightmare Crows Scarred Altars Broken Stone Unlikely Elves The Last Reunion

Billie Conner, 2020-02-26 All of the previous 9 books I have written are about a family and their friends who are scattered all around the country and Scotland. They seldom see each other except at the annual family reunion. Book 10 brings these people together for their final reunion in the territory of Wyoming the first week of October 1959. Some come from Scotland by ship, join others in NYC, ride a train to Omaha, and a stagecoach to Wyoming. Others riding a train from western Virginia mountains joined them in Pittsburg. Some came by wagon train from western Kentucky. The Last Suppers Mandy Mikulencak, 2017-12-26 In this raw and heartbreaking novel set in 1950s Louisiana, a compassionate prison cook uncovers the lives of death row prisoners. Historical Novel Review Ginny Polk has come back to Louisiana's Greenmount State Penitentiary, the place where her father worked and died to become a prison cook. She knows the harsh reality of life within those walls. That's why, among her duties, Ginny has taken on a special responsibility: preparing last meals for prisoners facing execution. Ginny prepares whatever the men ask for, even meeting with their heartbroken relatives to get each recipe just right. The prison board frowns on the ritual, as does Roscoe Simms, Greenmount's Warden. Her daddy's best friend before he was killed.

by an inmate Roscoe has always watched out for Ginny But when Ginny stumbles upon information about the man executed for killing her father it leads to a series of dark and painful revelations Truth justice mercy none of these are as simple as Ginny once believed And sometimes the most shocking crimes we commit are not inspired by anger or greed but by love

The Category of Comparison in Latin Lucie Pultrová,2022-11-14 This book focuses on one of the basic yet still rather neglected in Latin linguistics grammatical categories comparison of adjectives and adverbs Which Latin adjectives and adverbs allow for comparative and superlative forms and which ones do not This question may seem trivial to those working with modern languages but is not at all trivial in the case of a dead language such as Latin that has no native speakers and a limited corpus of written texts Based on extensive data collection the book aims to provide today s readers of Latin with some objective criteria for determining the answer
