Rey-Araújo, 2020-11-24 Capitalism Institutions and Social Orders develops a novel political economy approach by establishing a dialogue between the Social Structures of Accumulation SSA theory and Ernesto Laclau's post Marxism theory Using this synthesis it provides an in depth analysis of Spain's recent socio economic evolution since the early 1990s The book develops a theoretical framework capable of appraising capitalist dynamics together with their relationship to the institutional environment surrounding and structuring them This is in order to explore the interrelation between the historical development of the capitalist mode of production on the one hand and the various co existing social processes social consensus and political identities on the other Contemporary Spain provides an interesting case study until the onset of the Great Recession Spain had an impressive macroeconomic record supported by several contradictory social processes such as a massive real estate bubble an upsurge in private indebtedness and a deteriorating manufacturing sector However the accumulation of internal imbalances during those years led inevitably to the sudden disintegration of this institutional and social environment in the years after 2008 thus resulting into a breakdown of capitalist activity accompanied by widespread social contestation The book also explores the ensuing political scenario including the emergence of the indignados movement and the anti austerity party Podemos This work is of significant interest to critical political economy and discourse theory scholars critical theorists in general and social scientists concerned with the recent Spanish experience      Power and Resistance Yoshiyuki Sato, 2022-10-18 The structuralist theories of power show that the subject is produced and reproduced by the investment of power but how then can we think of the subject's resistance to power Based on this fundamental question Power and Resistance interprets critically the post structuralist theory of power and resistance i.e. the theories of Foucault Deleuze Guattari Derrida and Althusser It analyses also the mechanism of power and the strategies of resistance in the era of neoliberalism This meticulous analysis that completely renewed the theory of power is already published in French Japanese and Korean with success      Preliminary References to the European Court of Justice Morten Broberg, Niels Fenger, 2014-03 This book provides a detailed examination of the law and practice of the preliminary reference procedure in EU law It is designed to be of practical use in litigation and case preparation      On the Relation between the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and National Fundamental Rights Alexander Heger, Moritz Malkmus, 2024-05-04 The sometimes complex and controversial relation between the fundamental rights of the European Union as enshrined in the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights CFR and national fundamental rights in the context of constitutional review is reflected in a series of landmark decisions in the multilateral cooperation of European courts which have reshaped the fundamental rights architecture in the multilevel system in recent decades This book aims to contribute to a systematic and comprehensive analysis of the EU and constitutional law issues involved thus serving as a reference point for scholars and practitioners dealing with this emerging topic in depth Following this approach it sheds light on the broader Union legal context of these developments examines the role of the CFR for Constitutional Courts the relationship between constitutional and ordinary courts and assesses the key decisions concerning the application of the CFR as a standard of constitutional review It also draws some initial conclusions on the development of the European fundamental rights architecture its prospects and possible implications for the Union's legal order The book contains several contributions by European legal experts from academia and the judiciary who examine the different methods of constitutional application of the CFR from a comparative law perspective These contributions deal with the following aspects first the role of the CFR for the respective Constitutional Court with regard to the application of EU law as well as national law falling within the scope of the CFR second the relationship between the respective Constitutional Court and the ordinary courts with regard to the application of the CFR third the relevant facts and legal reasoning of the most important Constitutional Court decisions on the application of the CFR as a relevant standard of constitutional review fourth the relevant case law of the CJEU on the relationship between Union and national fundamental rights as well as its broader implications for the multilateral cooperation of European courts The individual chapters examine inter alia the following decisions Verfassungsgerichtshof Austria March 14 2012 U 466 11 et al Corte Costituzionale Italy January 23 2019 Sentenza 20 2019 Bundesverfassungsgericht Germany November 6 2019 1 BvR 276 17 Tribunal Constitucional Portugal June 3 2022 Acórdão 268 2022 Tribunal Constitucional Spain June 29 2022 Sentencia Decision 89 2022

Relocating Agency Olakunle George, 2012-02-01 2003 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Combining a sustained critical engagement of Anglo American theory with focused close readings of major African writers this book performs a long overdue cross fertilization of ideas among poststructuralism postcolonial theory and African literature The author examines several influential figures in current theory such as Habermas Althusser Laclau and Mouffe as well as the theorists of postcolonialism and offers an extended reading of the Nigerian writers D O Fagunwa Wole Soyinka Amos Tutuola and Chinua Achebe He argues that contrary to what the purism and voluntarism common to postcolonial theory might suggest one lesson of African letters is that significant agency can result from acts that are blind to their determinations For George African letters offer an instance of agency in motion as opposed to agency in theory

Nico Stehr, Bernd Weiler, 2011-12-31 Who Owns Knowledge explores the emerging linkages between the extension of knowledge and the law It anticipates that the legal system will not only be called upon to adjudicate in matters of creative minds but will be expected to do so to an ever increasing degree Linkages between the legal system and knowledge are bound to multiply in modern societies Ironically while increasingly relying on knowledge we are simultaneously investing significant resources into controlling this same knowledge This includes developing a system of legal governance over how knowledge is extended or enlarged Such modes of governance may take the form of regulatory legal codes or legal challenges and judgments that shape the evolution of modern society and potentially transform knowledge itself as a productive force Who Owns Knowledge asks such questions as What is the appropriate balance of public and private interests involved in this process How can creative powers natural resources and indigenous knowledge be protected from either public or private exploitation Does the law have the power to prevent this exploitation or is adaptive technology needed Also in this identity theft conscious age how can the rights of the individual be protected against policies allowing access to any kind of information especially confidential information The editors and contributors demonstrate that the relationship between knowledge and the law needs to be further researched and discussed Who Owns Knowledge is a must read for those interested in the subjects of intellectual property the history and development of modern legal and economic systems and their entanglements and how judicial systems make choices between the legal and economic systems and especially between the public and private good and their often opposing interests White Mythologies Robert Young, 2004 In 1990 Robert Young's White Mythologies set out to question the very concepts of history and the West Is it possible he asked to write history that avoids the trap of Eurocentrism Is history simply a Western myth His reflections on these topics provided some of the most important new directions in postcolonial studies and continue to exert a huge influence on the field This new edition reprints what has quickly become a classic text along with a substantial new essay reflecting on changes in the field and in the author's own position since publication An essential read for all those working in postcolonial theory literature and history this book

Poverty of Theory E. P. P. Thompson, 1978-01-01 This classic collection of essays by E. P. Thompson one of England's most renowned socialist voices remains a staple text in the history of Marxist theory. The bulk of the book is dedicated to Thompson's famous polemic against Louis Althusser and what he considers the reductionism and authoritarianism of Althusserian structuralism. In lively and erudite prose Thompson argues for a self-critical and unapologetically humanist Marxist tradition. Also included are three essays of considerable importance to the development of the New Left.

Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies, Vol 10, 2007-2008 Catherine Barnard, 2008-12-18 The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies provides a forum for the scrutiny of significant issues in European Union Law, the Law of the Council of Europe and Comparative Law with a European dimension particularly those issues which have come to the fore during the year preceding publication. The chapters presented are all at the cutting edge of the fields which they address and reflect the views of recognised experts drawn from the University world, legal practice and the civil services of both the EU and its Member States. Inclusion of the comparative dimension brings a fresh perspective to the study of European law and highlights the effects of globalisation of the law more generally and the resulting cross-fertilisation of norms and ideas that has occurred among previously sovereign and separate legal orders. The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies is an invaluable resource for those wishing to keep pace with legal developments in the fast-moving world of European integration.

explores contemporary negative philosophies from Catherine Malabou's plasticity Julia Kristeva's abjection and Robert Pippin's self-consciousness to the God of negative theology new realisms and post-humanism and draws a radical line under them. Instead of establishing a dialogue with these other ideas of disparity Slavoj Žižek wants to establish a definite departure a totally different idea of disparity based on an imaginative dialectical materialism. This notion of rupturing what has gone before is based on a provocative reading of how philosophers can if they're honest engage with each other. Slavoj Žižek borrows Alain Badiou's notion that a true idea is the one that divides. Radically departing from previous formulations of negativity and disparity Žižek employs a new kind of negativity namely positing that when a philosopher deals with another philosopher his or her stance is never one of dialogue but one of division of drawing a line that separates truth from falsity.

Problems in Class Analysis Guglielmo Carchedi, 2023-02-24 First published in 1983 Problems in Class Analysis presents a coherent theory of labour's domination by capital based upon the notion of the capitalist nature of both the product relations and of the productive forces themselves including science and technology. The author demonstrates that all knowledges are a product direct or indirect of economic relations so that different knowledges will be the product of different social classes as determined by their position within economic production relations. By posing and re-solving fundamental problems in class analysis Dr Carchedi forms a bridge between the theory of the production process and contemporary debates in economics sociology and epistemology. Call, Responding and the Worlds Inbetween

Johann-Albrecht Meylahn, 2020-01-10 The book is a reading of numerous contemporary continental philosophers Badiou Deleuze and Guattari Laruelle and Derrida amongst others and bringing them into conversation with each other around various ethical and political challenges of living in capitalist worlds. What can contemporary continental philosophy offer with regards to the questions of decolonial thinking the challenges of identity politics the formation of political identities in response to the dominant norms in the context of the struggles of victims of these norms. Relational Sociology

Pierpaolo Donati, 2010-07-12 Simultaneous invention has become commonplace in the natural sciences but is still virtually unknown within the sphere of social science. The convergence of two highly compatible versions of Critical Realism from two independent sources is a striking exception. Pierpaolo Donati's Relational Sociology develops upwards from sociology into a Realist meta-theory unlike Roy Bhaskar's philosophy of science that works downwards and underlabours for the social sciences. This book systematically introduces Donati's Relational Sociology to an English readership for the first time since he began to advance his approach thirty years ago. In this eagerly awaited book Pierpaolo Donati shifts the focus of sociological theory onto the relational order at all levels. He argues that society is constituted by the relations people create with one another their emergent properties and powers and internal and external causal effects. Relational Sociology provides a distinctive variant upon the Realist theoretical conspectus especially because of its ability to account for social integration. It will stimulate debate amongst realists themselves and of course with the adversaries of realism. It is a valuable new resource.
