

A photograph of a beach at sunset or sunrise. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. Waves are crashing onto the shore, creating white foam. The sand is wet and reflects the light. There are some dark rocks or seaweed on the beach.

If you enter a race and finish last, you are a winner. The loser never entered the race.

Last Of A Race:

The Racing Game Marvin Scott, 2017-07-28 This study of a unique social world probes beneath the thrill and spectacle of horse racing into the lives of the honest boys the gyps the manipulators the stoops and the Chalk eaters the constituents of race track society and the players of the racing game With scientific precision and journalistic vigor Scott describes the everyday activities the objectives and strategies of those whose lives are organized around track proceedings and who compete with chance and one another The players in the racing game range from track owners to stable boys from law enforcers to lawbreakers and from casual sportsmen to pathologically addicted gamblers Considering the self interests the normative and operational codes and the interactional relationships among the major types and subtypes of participants the author defines the components of strategic movement within the framework of rules and resources to show how a player's relations to the means of production governs his behavior The fruitful application of sociological theory and method to an unusually interesting social context makes this particularly useful still for courses in social problems and the sociology of organizations and of leisure

Northern Race J.L. Bryson, 2014-01-10 The Northern Races are an extreme winter sport with snowboarding skiing target shooting and a physical obstacle course The four teams must win two out of three races to move on to the next location First the Red team with a rookie Will he be able to handle the pressure of going professional Will the star regret her decision to change teams after her win last season Secondly the Blue team The dominating all male team and the winners of last season's finale Can they do it two years in a row Will it be the Green team with the oldest but most accomplished snowboarder Will their strict coach push them to the win Or lastly the Yellow team The fierce all female team must prove they can work together but will a love interest with an opposing Racer be a distraction

Stream System Gerald Murnane, 2018-04-03 Stories from a mind bending Australian master a genius on the level of Beckett Teju Cole Never before available to readers in this hemisphere these stories originally published from 1985 to 2012 offer an irresistible compendium of the work of one of contemporary fiction's greatest magicians While the Australian master Gerald Murnane's reputation rests largely on his longer works of fiction his short stories stand among the most brilliant and idiosyncratic uses of the form since Borges Beckett and Nabokov Brutal comic obscene and crystalline Stream System runs from the haunting Land Deal which imagines the colonization of Australia and the ultimate vengeance of its indigenous people as a series of nested dreams to Finger Web which tells a quietly terrifying fractal tale of the scars of war and the roots of misogyny to The Interior of Gaaldine which finds its anxious protagonist stranded beyond the limits of fiction itself No one else writes like Murnane and there are few other authors alive still capable of changing how and why we read
