sunrises and sunsets without fanfare as he toils to his eventual end If he is lucky he realizes the folly of his ways and slows to see the beauty before him appreciate the little things the quiet things the ripple on the pond stopping to breathe and reflect and perhaps to listen to the soft sounds of God s great work I have entered the sunset of my life My time on earth ordained by God wanes like the setting of the sun and as the brilliant colors light the sky so does my love for what God has given me through my many years To see the singular snowflake hear the cry of the chickadee I invite you to come with me as my stories tell of my journey to this moment in time Sit back in a quiet spot open this book feel its pages and see what I have seen May God bless and keep you and perhaps slow you down Speak Ill of the Living Mark Arsenault,2008-02-07
