Last European Peace Conference:

The Last European Peace Conference, Paris, 1946--conflict of Values Stephen Denis Kertesz, 1985      The Last European Peace Conference Stephen D. Kertesz, 1992      The Disentanglement of Populations J. Reinisch, E. White, 2011-01-26 An examination of population movements both forced and voluntary within the broader context of Europe in the aftermath of the Second World War in both Western and Eastern Europe The authors bring to life problems of war and post war chaos and assess lasting social political and demographic consequences      The Democratic Peace and Territorial Conflict in the Twentieth Century Paul K. Huth, Todd L. Allee, 2002 Table of contents      Making Minorities History Matthew Frank, 2017-03-09 Making Minorities History examines the various attempts made by European states over the course of the first half of the twentieth century under the umbrella of international law and in the name of international peace and reconciliation to rid the Continent of its ethnographic misfits and problem populations It is principally a study of the concept of population transfer the idea that in order to construct stable and homogeneous nation states and a peaceful international order out of them national minorities could be relocated en masse in an orderly way with minimal economic and political disruption as long as there was sufficient planning bureaucratic oversight and international support in place Tracing the rise and fall of the concept from its emergence in the late 1890s through its 1940s zenith and its geopolitical and historiographical afterlife during the Cold War Making Minorities History explores the historical context and intellectual milieu in which population transfer developed from being initially regarded as a marginal idea propagated by a handful of political fantasists and extreme nationalists into an acceptable and a progressive instrument of state policy as amenable to bourgeois democracies and Nobel Peace Prize winners as it was to authoritarian regimes and fascist dictators In addition to examining the planning and implementation of population transfers and in particular the diplomatic negotiations surrounding them Making Minorities History looks at a selection of different proposals for the resettlement of minorities that came from individuals organizations and states during this era of population transfer      1945 Gregor Dallas, 2005-01-01 A masterpiece of historical writing dramatizing the chaos mistakes and unexpectedness that ushered in the Cold War      A State of Peace in Europe Petri Hakkarainen, 2011-12-01 From the mid 1960s to the mid 1970s West German foreign policy underwent substantial transformations from bilateral to multilateral from reactive to proactive The Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe CSCE was an ideal setting for this evolution enabling the Federal Republic to take the lead early on in Western preparations for the conference and to play a decisive role in the actual East West negotiations leading to the Helsinki Final Act of 1975 Based on extensive original research of recently released documents spanning more than fifteen archives in eight countries this study is a substantial contribution to scholarly discussions on the history of the CSCE and West German foreign policy The author stresses the importance of looking beyond the bipolarity of the Cold War decades and emphasizes the interconnectedness of European integration and European détente He highlights the need to place the genesis of the CSCE conference in its historical context rather than looking at it through the prism of the events of 1989 and shows that the bilateral and multilateral elements Ostpolitik and the CSCE were parallel rather than successive phenomena parts of the same complex process and in constant interaction with each other Peace and War Kalevi J.

Soldiers and Politics in Eastern Europe, 1945-90 Zoltan D. Barany,1993-07-27 Daily Report, Foreign Radio

Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1967 They All Made Peace—What Is Peace? Jonathan Conlin,Ozan Ozavci,2023-07-05 An analysis of the 1923 Treaty of Lausanne from multiple historical economic and social perspectives The last of the post World War One peace settlements the 1923 Treaty of Lausanne departed from methods used in the Treaty of Versailles and took on a new peace making initiative a forced population exchange that affected one and a half million people Like its German and Austro Hungarian allies the defeated Ottoman Empire had initially been presented with a dictated peace in 1920 In just two years however the Kemalist insurgency enabled Turkey to become the first sovereign state in the Middle East while the Greeks Armenians Arabs Egyptians Kurds and other communities previously under the Ottoman Empire sought their own forms of sovereignty Featuring historical analysis from multiple perspectives They All Made Peace What Is Peace considers the Lausanne Treaty and its legacy Chapters investigate British Turkish and Soviet designs in the post Ottoman world situate the population exchanges relative to other peacemaking efforts and discuss the economic factors behind the reallocation of Ottoman debt and the management of refugee flows Further chapters examine Kurdish Arab Iranian Armenian and other communities that were refused formal accreditation at Lausanne but which were still forced to live with the consequences consequences that are still emerging one hundred years on Rebirth Cyril Black,2018-05-04 Rebirth A History of Europe Since World War II examines the transition of Europe from a period of crisis to an era of political confidence and economic strength As the title suggests the pervasive theme of the book is that of rebirth The most recent decades are set in the context of modern European history as a whole The authors trace the disillusionment and uncertainty that overcame Europe at the turn of the twentieth century and that culminated in the devastation of the Second World War In their analysis of the political and economic causes of the renaissance that has followed the demise of the Cold War the authors highlight the themes of national integration and economic modernization The chapters are uniquely organized to present both international and domestic developments in Europe as coherent wholes as well as the importance of their interaction The initial analysis of key international developments in the twentieth century helps students to understand the relationship between foreign and domestic events and provides background for the substantial discussion of the major European countries that follows in chapters devoted to each national experience The political and economic histories of these nation states are considered in terms of their individual traditions and challenges and the authors explore difficult issues such as the overall costs and benefits of the scientific technological revolution the pursuit of social justice the proper role of the state and of political parties and contrasting national paths of economic and political development Rebirth is designed as a text for use in courses on modern European history especially twentieth century Europe and for students of comparative politics who are seeking a substantial consideration of the historical factors of European politics In this revised edition the authors have updated the text with an analysis of developments since 1991 and added recent scholarship to the lists of Suggested Readings

The Hague Peace Conferences of 1899 and 1907
James Brown Scott, 1909 Slavic Review, 1987 Coverage of Russian Eurasian and East European issues Paradoxes of Peace in Nineteenth Century Europe Thomas Hippler, Miloš Vec, 2015-02-19 Peace is often simplistically assumed to be war's opposite and as such is not examined closely or critically idealized in the literature of peace studies its crucial role in the justification of war is often overlooked Starting from a critical view that the value of restoring peace or keeping peace is and has been regularly used as a pretext for military intervention this book traces the conceptual history of peace in nineteenth century legal and political practice It explores the role of the value of peace in shaping the public rhetoric and legitimizing action in general international relations international law international trade colonialism and armed conflict Departing from the assumption that there is no peace as such nor can there be it examines the contradictory visions of peace that arise from conflict These conflicting and antagonistic visions of peace are each linked to a set of motivations and interests as well as to a certain vision of legitimacy within the international realm Each of them inevitably conveys the image of a specific enemy that has to be crushed in order to peace being installed This book highlights the contradictions and paradoxes in nineteenth century discourses and practices of peace particularly in Europe

The Hungarian Peace Negotiations, 1922 For Peace in Europe Marta Petricoli, Donatella Cherubini, 2007 Le processus d'union européenne voit aujourd'hui un point d'arrêt sur le plan politique et institutionnel malgré les tapes décisives réalisées après la Seconde Guerre mondiale Il reste en effet affronter des thèmes et des problèmes qui pendant l'entre-deux-guerres animaient le débat entre les pionniers de l'europeanisme Si à l'époque leurs propositions restaient sans suite ayant une issue destructrice pour la paix et l'Europe cet héritage idéal si précieux a permis une continuité et de germer par la suite Ce livre a pour but de présenter une série d'idées d'initiatives de programmes qui entre les deux guerres entendirent promouvoir le maintien d'un ordre international pacifique partant du véritable contexte européen Il en ressort ainsi un humus significatif et transversal opposé aux tendances inexorablement prédominantes dans la politique et les institutions mais aussi dans la société civile Ses animateurs œuvraient dans les organisations internationales les partis les mouvements les associations de type non seulement politique de même que dans l'historiographie la littérature le théâtre le cinéma le sport signalant les éléments en vue d'une renaissance de la cohabitation pacifique sur le plan européen et international Despite the decisive steps forward made since the Second World War the process of European unification has come to a standstill at a political and institutional level Issues and problems which were already the subject of debate among the pioneers of Europeanism between the two wars have still to be addressed Although at the time their proposal as a whole went unheeded with destructive consequences for peace and for Europe this valuable legacy of ideals has nevertheless guaranteed a continuity and a subsequent blossoming The purpose of this book is to examine a series of ideas initiatives and programmes which between the two World Wars aimed to promote the maintenance of a pacified international order starting from the crucial European context What emerges is a significant and transversal humus that countered the inexorably prevailing tendencies in politics and institutions and even in society Its exponents operated in international organisations in parties and in movements and associations not necessarily of a political stamp as well as in historiography literature theatre cinema and sport laying the foundations for a rebirth of peaceful co existence at European and international level     Soviet Imperatives for the 1990's United States.
