life in Hannover as the daughter of a prominent and patriotic member of the Jewish community Her flight on the Kindertransport offers a vivid firsthand account of that effort to save the children of Jewish families Her memories of the camps include coming to the attention of Josef Mengele who often used twins in human experiments Gutmann writes with moving clarity and nuance about the complex feelings of survivorship Gutmann paints a multifaceted portrait of her father Samuel A leader in the Jewish community of Hannover he was cajoled coerced and ultimately forced to communicate with and cooperate with Nazi and public officials Gutmann uses her own memories as well as years of reflection and academic study to reevaluate his role in their community A Final Reckoning provides not only insights into Gutmann s own experience as a child in the midst of the atrocities of the Holocaust but also a window into the lives of those like her father who were forced to carry on and comply with the regime that would ultimately bring about their demise

Seventh Regiment Gazette, 1923 The B-List: 2007 Steve Buffum, 2008 All over the world the statues of Mary are miraculously crying In the meantime a journalist in Washington D C is diverted away from her own personal demons when she takes it upon herself to question why the Vatican is not declaring these occurrences as miracles after witnessing the unexplainable phenomena herself The journalist suspects her nightly barrage of haunting nightmares about the violent murders of countless women from five thousand year old priestesses to women accused of being witches in the seventeenth century may have something to do with the answer as she investigates the biggest story of her life Women all over the world in the 21st century are feeling the awakening as the discovery of ancient artifacts are disproving the beliefs set forth by
