Oropesa,2010-01-01 In the years following the Mexican Revolution a nationalist and masculinist image of Mexico emerged through the novels of the Revolution the murals of Diego Rivera and the movies of Golden Age cinema Challenging this image were the Contempor neos a group of writers whose status as outsiders sophisticated urbanites gay men women gave them not just a different perspective but a different gaze a new way of viewing the diverse Mexicos that exist within Mexican society In this book Salvador Oropesa offers original readings of the works of five Contempor neos Salvador Novo Xavier Villaurrutia Agust n Lazo Guadalupe Mar n and Jorge Cuesta and their efforts to create a Mexican literature that was international attuned to the realities of modern Mexico and flexible enough to speak to the masses as well as the elites Oropesa discusses Novo and Villaurrutia in relation to neo baroque literature and satiric poetry showing how these inherently subversive genres provided the means of expressing difference and otherness that they needed as gay men He explores the theatrical works of Lazo Villaurrutia s partner who offered new representations of the closet and of Mexican history from an emerging middle class viewpoint Oropesa also looks at women s participation in the Contempor neos through Guadalupe Mar n the sometime wife of Diego Rivera and Jorge Cuesta whose novels present women s struggles to have a view and a voice of their own He concludes the book with Novo s self transformation from intellectual into celebrity which fulfilled the Contempor neos desire to merge high and popular culture and create a space where those on the margins could move to the center Extreme Cinema Mattias Frey,2016-03-15 Received an Honorable Mention for the 2017 British

Association of Film Television and Screen Studies BAFTSS Best Monograph Award From Shortbus to Shame and from Oldboy to Irreversible film festival premieres regularly make international headlines for their shockingly graphic depictions of sex and violence Film critics and scholars alike often regard these movies as the work of visionary auteurs hailing directors like Michael Haneke and Lars von Trier as heirs to a tradition of transgressive art In this provocative new book Mattias Frey offers a very different perspective on these films exposing how they are also calculated products designed to achieve global notoriety in a competitive marketplace Paying close attention to the discourses employed by film critics distributors and filmmakers themselves Extreme Cinema examines the various tightropes that must be walked when selling transgressive art films to discerning audiences distinguishing them from generic horror pornography and Hollywood product while simultaneously hyping their salacious content Deftly tracing the links between the local and the global Frey also shows how the directors and distributors of extreme art house fare from both Europe and East Asia have significant incentives to exaggerate the exotic elements that would differentiate them from Anglo American product Extreme Cinema also includes original interviews with the programmers of several leading international film festivals and with niche distributors and exhibitors giving readers a revealing look at how these institutions enjoy a symbiotic relationship with the taboo breakers of art house cinema Frey also demonstrates how these apparently transgressive films actually operate within a strict set of codes and conventions carefully calibrated to perpetuate a media industry that fuels itself on provocation
