A. J. C. Lavalle, 2014-08-15 Illustrated with over 30 maps diagrams and photos The Southeast Asia Monograph Series is designed and dedicated to telling the story of USAF's participation in the Vietnam War This monograph the sixth in the Series adds another exciting chapter to our continuing effort to bring forth and highlight the dedication courage and professionalism of the U S airman in combat The primary intent of this series is to emphasize and dramatize the human aspects of this long and frustrating struggle straying somewhat away from the cold hard statistics of tons of bombs dropped and structures destroyed etc frequently the headlines in historical presentations Last Flight From Saigon is an exciting and moving account of how all our Services as well as several civilian agencies pulled together to pull off the largest aerial evacuation in history what many have referred to as a modern day Dunkirk The three authors intimately involved with the evacuation from beginning to end have carefully pieced together an amazing story of courage determination and American ingenuity Above all it's a story about saving lives one that is seldom told in times of war All too often critics of armed conflict make their targets out to be something less than human bent on death and destruction One need only study the enormity of the effort and cost that went into the evacuation of Saigon and the resultant thousands of lives that were saved to realize that the American fighting man is just as capable and more eager to save lives than he is in having to wage war      From Axis Victories to the Turn of the Tide Alan Levine, 2012-06-01 Analyzes the most critical campaigns of World War II from 1942 to 1943 examining the conflict from a geographical perspective and discussing the key developments that turned the tides of war in favor of the Allied powers      MSF and the war in the former Yugoslavia 1991-2003 Laurence Binet, 2015-12-01 On 14 December 1995 the signing of the Dayton Peace Accords ended the separatist war in former Yugoslavia and created the State of Bosnia Herzegovina Twenty years on MSF reveals how the organization spoke out about a conflict marked by ethnic cleansing crimes against humanity targeted assaults of humanitarian organizations and individuals and the unfulfilled promises by the International Community MSF claimed that mass distributions of aid were simply a humanitarian alibi of the international community that lacked the will to take political and military measures to end the conflict Some MSF leaders even called for an armed intervention against the Bosnian Serb artillery bombing Sarajevo In December 1992 MSF published a report describing the Bosnian Serb policy of ethnic cleansing They denounced the Bosnian Serbs for hindering supplies to Srebrenica and Gorazde Muslim besieged enclaves They raised awareness and denounced the lack of protection of the population when the enclaves came under attack in 1994 and 1995 despite being declared safe zones by the UN In August 1995 MSF denounced a lack of access to the Serb refugees and from 2000 MSF advocated for parliamentary commissions to be set up to investigate the military and political responsibilities of the States involved in the Srebrenica crisis This Speaking

Out Case Study explores the variety of questions and dilemmas MSF faced Among them to what extent should MSF risk the lives of its staff in order to operate in conflict zones Should MSF condemn obstacles set up to limit the access to the population if it meant no longer having any access at all Should MSF denounce the fact that humanitarian aid was presented by the international political leaders as the only solution to the conflict and call for military force an action that would lead to loss of human life
