Last Days Of Hammarskjöld:

Who Killed Hammarskjöld? Susan Williams, 2014-08-15 One of the outstanding mysteries of the twentieth century and one with huge political resonance is the death of Dag Hammarskjöld and his UN team in a plane crash in central Africa in 1961 Just minutes after midnight his aircraft plunged into thick forest in the British colony of Northern Rhodesia Zambia abruptly ending his mission to bring peace to the Congo Across the world many suspected sabotage accusing the multi nationals and the governments of Britain Belgium the USA and South Africa of involvement in the disaster These suspicions have never gone away British High Commissioner Lord Alport was waiting at the airport when the aircraft crashed nearby He bizarrely insisted to the airport management that Hammarskjöld had flown elsewhere even though his aircraft was reported overhead This postponed a search for so long that the wreckage of the plane was not found for fifteen hours White mercenaries were at the airport that night too including the South African pilot Jerry Puren whose bombing of Congolese villages led in his own words to flaming huts destruction and death These soldiers of fortune were backed by Sir Roy Welensky Prime Minister of the Rhodesian Federation who was ready to stop at nothing to maintain white rule and thought the United Nations was synonymous with the Nazis The Rhodesian government conducted an official inquiry which blamed pilot error But as this book will show it was a massive cover up that suppressed and dismissed a mass of crucial evidence especially that of African eye witnesses A subsequent UN inquiry was unable to rule out foul play but had no access to the evidence to show how and why Now for the first time this story can be told Who Killed Hammarskjöld follows the author on her intriguing and often frightening journey of research to Zambia South Africa the USA Sweden Norway Britain France and Belgium where she unearthed a mass of new and hitherto secret documentary and photographic evidence At the heart of this book is Hammarskjöld himself a courageous and complex idealist who sought to shield the newly independent nations of the world from the predatory instincts of the Great Powers It reveals that the conflict in the Congo was driven not so much by internal divisions as by the Cold War and by the West's determination to keep real power from the hands of the post colonial governments of Africa It shows too that the British settlers of Rhodesia would maintain white minority rule at all costs

Hammarskjöld Roger Lipsey, 2013-03-18 Drawing from little explored archives and personal correspondence chronicles the life of the second secretary general of the United Nations who was killed in 1961 while en route to ceasefire negotiations in the Congo Military Review, 1963 Congressional Record United States. Professor Ove Bring to look into both the past and the future of international law Like Ove Bring they have dealt with many aspects of the law governing the use of force from arms control to human rights international criminal law the UN Charter and of course international humanitarian law Like Professor Bring they have allowed themselves to draw trajectories from history and into the future and have shunned away from neither the controversial nor the speculative be it on the Middle East the invasion of Iraq or the independence of Kosovo This collection brings together insights from a former UN Legal Counsel a former Executive Chairman of UNMOVIC present and former judges of the European Court of Justice the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea one present and one former member of the International Law Commission as well as law professors and practitioners from all Nordic countries Germany and Australia Together they form a highly challenging mosaic of perspectives on topical issues like cluster munitions targeting human rights in peace operations and the purposes of sentencing in international tribunals The volume also contains a bibliography and a presentation of Professor Bring s work The United Nations under Dag Hammarskjöld, 1953-1961 Peter B.
