My Husband's Crime M. R. Housekeeper, 1868      Instruction Manual , 1991      National Women's Health Survey for Trinidad and Tobago Cecile Pemberton, Joel Joseph, 2018-03-06 This report presents the first nationally representative estimates of the prevalence of intimate partner violence IPV and non partner sexual violence NPSV against women in Trinidad and Tobago The data come from the 2017 Trinidad and Tobago Women s Health Survey WHS a national quantitative cross sectional survey of 1 079 women ages 15 64 The report finds that 30 percent of ever partnered women experienced physical and or sexual violence by an intimate partner in their lifetime and 6 percent in the 12 months prior to data collection Seven percent of all respondents reported having been forced into sexual intercourse by a non partner in their lifetime 1 percent in the last 12 months Significant risk factors associated with IPV identified using Chi square tests included lower education female and partner cohabitation without marriage rural residency younger age non consensual marriage having been pregnant having experienced or witnessed violence in childhood substance abuse by the partner and the partner being unemployed and having been in prior relationships The report documents the negative consequences of IPV for women and their children as well as the most common responses and coping mechanisms One in three women who experienced IPV remained quiet about their experience and most survivors did not seek or receive assistance for their situation Women most often sought help from their personal contacts mostly their mothers rather than police social services or other entities adequately resourced to address IPV Several factors precluded women from accessing help these included fear shame and the normalcy associated with violence Based on these findings recommendations for policy and further research are presented      Tudor Folk Tales Dave Tonge, 2015-11-02 In Tudor times the common sort were no different from us laughing together mocking each other and sharing bawdy tales in tavern yards marketplaces and anywhere else that people came together These stories were later collected in the cheap print of the period and professional storyteller Dave Tonge has sought them out to assemble here Within these pages hide smooth talking tricksters lusty knaves wayward youths and stories of the eternal struggle to wear the breeches in the family for a sometimes coarse but often comic telling of the everyday ups and downs in Tudor life      Violence Against Women Holly Johnson, Natalia Ollus, Sami Nevala, 2007-11-23 In December 2006 the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution on intensification of efforts to eliminate all forms of violence against women A RES 61 143 This resolution followed the launch of the Secretary General s in depth study on violence against women in October 2006 A 61 122 Add 1 and Corr 1 and is the first ever comprehensive action by the General Assembly on this persistent scourge that potentially affects one woman in three in the course of her lifetime The resolution urges Member States to exercise leadership and devise systematic comprehensive multi sectoral and sustained approaches adequately supported and facilitated by strong institutional mechanisms and financing to eliminate all forms of violence against women In particular it calls upon Member States to establish national plans of action on the elimination of violence against women undertake legislative capacity building and awareness raising measures provide services for women and ensure the systematic collection and analysis of data The resolution calls upon the entities of the United Nations system to support national efforts especially with respect to data collection and the development of national plans of action It urges them to enhance coordination and intensify their efforts to eliminate all forms of violence against women and girls It also notes the need to provide adequate resources to efforts throughout the United Nations system to eliminate violence against women and girls

Third Husband's the Charm Nancy Yeager, 2019-09-27 A New England Reader's Choice Award Finalist An irreverent gentleman an abandoned wife and a secret marriage But is anything really what it seems Fun loving Percy the Captain Lord Granston is everyone's favorite cad but his easy charm hides his fear that he's losing his grip on reality Then his wife arrives in London The only problem is he doesn't remember marrying her Twice widowed Finola Tenney Simmons has lost her hard earned fortune and needs a pretend husband to help her reclaim it She turns to her old acquaintance Captain Granston to play the part There's just one complication The captain inexplicably believes they're truly married When Percy learns the truth he agrees help her secure her fortune in return for her assistance in settling his family affairs before he loses his faculties Their plan will work like a charm if only they can deny the passion between them and keep from falling in love Heat Level Steamy The Harrow's Finest Five Series books are stand alone novels with no cliffhangers and can be read in any order

The methods and materials of demography Henry S. Shryock, Jacob S. Siegel, 1980 The Watsons of Kilconnor, County Carlow, 1650 - present Peter J F Coutts, Alan Watson, 2019-02 The book describes the history of a humble family that migrated from England to Ireland in the mid 17th c and put down roots at Kilconnor in County Carlow By the end of the century many members of the family had joined the Society of Friends and concurrently the family had elevated its social and economic status as it enjoined with the landed gentry During the late 17th c and 18th c family members left County Carlow and established themselves in other places in Ireland including Counties Wexford Tipperary Dublin Kildare Laois and Offaly and later again in England Australia and New Zealand Diversification in occupation followed members entering the legal military banking and medical professions Others stayed with the land and were caught up with a fascination for horses fox hunting polo and racing in Ireland England and Australia some members acquiring formidable reputations up to the present day Family members have for example contributed to the growth of theatre and prison reform for juveniles in England the early banking system in Ireland the growth of the dairy farming in Victoria Australia the fostering of pride and interest in exotic gardens in Ireland the invention of revolutionary instruments for detecting submarines and the invention of the backhand stroke in the sport of polo To this day the family continues to produce exceptional people whose achievements are memorable John Watson now living at Ballybolger in County Carlow is one such example having represented Ireland recently at Olympic equestrian events

Power Over the Body, Equality in the Family Charles J. Reid, 2004-10-29 The term conjugal rights has long characterized ways of speaking about marriage both in the canonistic tradition and in the secular legal systems of the West This book explores the origins and dimensions of this concept and the range of meanings that have attached to it from the twelfth century to the present Employing far ranging sources Charles Reid Jr examines the language of marriage in classical Roman law the Germanic legal codes of early medieval Europe and the writings of canon lawyers and theologians from the medieval and early modern periods The heart of the book however consists of the writings of the canonists of the High Middle Ages especially the works of Hostiensis Bernard of Parma Innocent IV and Raymond de Peafort Reid s incisive survey provides a new understanding of subjects such as the right of parties to marry free of parental coercion the nature of paternal power the place of bodies in the marriage contract the meaning and implications of gender equality and the right of inheritance

American Crimes and the Liberation of Paris Kenneth D. Alford, 2015-12-07 The Allies triumphant march into Paris in 1944 was met with cheering crowds of liberated Parisians After the cheering stopped American deserters and their French cohorts violently exploited the city with the ruthless efficiency of the Chicago mobs of the 1920s Well organized and heavily armed these GIs turned gangsters made huge profits on the thriving black market with their unlimited supplies of gasoline cigarettes and other commodities Along with this illicit enterprise came rape murder robbery prostitution and epidemic venereal disease American military justice worked at controlling the crime wave handling nearly 8 000 criminal investigations in the year after liberation but only the end of the war in 1945 put a stop to it This book identifies both French and American offenders

Nothing Lasts Forever Robert Steiner, 2014-03-18 These three novellas each shimmer with exactitudes of falling out of love and falling into death as existence at critical moments renounces normal life for moments of absolute desire These are narratives of obsession and calamity Lovers and wives are at the edge of themselves saying the unsayable doing the undoable challenging us to keep our eyes open to the disintegration and pain At the core of each tale is an erotic intensity The prose is urgent The stories are unforgettable Into the Green Ocean Deep sees a man s last days with a dying lover as they engage in a final burst of transgressive eroticism Negative Space recites the anguished thoughts of a man whose wife of twenty years has confessed her love for someone else as she packs to leave In Inviolate a wife suffers the imminent death of her husband from a fall that has left him comatose Once coma defined the limit of her husband s existence for the rest of it he was as well as he would ever be and so his wife at the foot of the bed observed that this was as good as he was going to look

A grammar of Kukama-Kukamiria Rosa Vallejos, 2016-04-08 This book offers a comprehensive description of Kukama Kukamiria spoken by about 1000 elders in the Peruvian Amazon The empirical basis for the grammar is fifteen years of fieldwork including text data from 36 fluent speakers Seventeen chapters deal with phonology morphology syntax and discourse phenomena Salient typological features include a robust morphological distinction between male and female speech the expression of TAM categories via fixed clitics the encoding of three place predicates by means of transitive clauses six directive constructions that distinguish degrees of pragmatic force and multiple types of purpose clauses that differ in terms of coreference control This grammar also shows the Tup Guarani origin of an
