Sony Announces the Next PlayStation

This week at Sony's PlayStation Meeting 2013 in New York the company announced their latest video game system, the PlayStation 4. Although the hardware was not shown, several games were demoed for the audience. Further details about the system are being kept under wraps for now, including the price and release date. However, more information is sure to come at this year's Electronic Entertainment Expo, also known as E3.

new paragraph for new thought

To announce the new system, lead architect and long-time game developer Mark Cerny took the stage. After reviewing the history of the PlayStation brand, Cerny announced the much-speculated-upon existence of the PlayStation 4. While Cerny gave a few technical details regarding the hardware specifications of the device, the focus was clearly on games.

English News Writing:

English News Writing Bryce Telfer McIntyre, 1996 English News Writing is a professional writer's handbook for newspaper reporters magazine freelancers and journalism students who write in English The focus is on writing rather than reporting There is a thorough treatment of style usage and the many structures of news stories as well as dozens of tips on how writers can improve their work Specifically the book includes thorough discussions of interviewing techniques the inverted pyramid speech coverage feature writing reporting on trends reporting on public opinion polls using social indicators to develop news stories writing criticism writing personality profiles narrative styles of writing question and answer stories and the jargon of the journalism profession Examples of news structures are annotated The book also includes 42 Rules of Thumb that serve as a quick reference for reporters to improve their work

Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Frank Barnas, 2013-05-02 Jargon buster convergent journalism Media convergence is the most significant development in the news industry in the last century The ability to interchange text audio and visual communication over the Internet has fundamentally transformed the way news organizations operate Convergence has enabled media companies to gather disseminate and share information over a variety of platforms Throughout the history of journalism it has been common for journalists to study one medium such as traditional print or broadcast and to anticipate a career working only in their chosen field However the 21st century journalist has fluidity to write and deliver news content in a variety of formats source <http://www.convergencejournalism.com> Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist in today's world of convergent journalism it is more important than ever that broadcast textbooks cover the most current trends in media Convergent journalism the coverage of news across multiple delivery platforms such as the internet television podcasts ipods blogs etc is here to stay broadcast journalism continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed and broadcast journalists must understand how to write report and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously Just one crucial fact remains students will need training on how to perform successfully in a world in which current events aren't just shown on the ten o'clock evening news Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing will be completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page New co-author Frank Barnas brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that allows for multi-platform delivery systems and shows students with real world examples the functions and practices of today's media The new edition will be rewritten and restructured to accommodate common 16 week course modules and will be divided into four major sections of the news gathering writing reporting and producing Sidebars featuring how examples used in the text relate to convergence in journalism help students to draw connections easily between current stories and trends in the industry The comprehensive approach of this text brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that is needed more than ever in today's world of convergent journalism This newest edition is being completely overhauled by the experienced journalist Frank Barnas New photos and illustrations a restructuring of the text expanded end of chapter exercises newer and more relevant examples and more information on producing all contribute to giving readers what they need most a nuanced understanding of how the media of today function in a world without news boundaries Making News Thomas A. Bowers, 2009 Making News is the story of how the School of Journalism and Mass Communication at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill grew from a single course in the English department in 1909 to become an international leader in journalism mass comm Writing Broadcast News Mervin Block, 1997 The author offers clear advice and examples on broadcast journalism and elements that distinguish writing for broadcast news from writing for print sources Changing Genre Conventions in Historical English News Discourse Birte Bös, Lucia Kornexl, 2015-07-15 This volume explores the dynamics of genre conventions in historical English news discourse The contributions cover a wide spectrum of news writing and publication formats from corantos to modern tabloids from prototypical hard news stories and crime reports to more specialised genres such as medical and scientific news advertisements death notices and spoof news Investigating linguistic pragmatic and social factors the authors trace the triggers mechanisms and agents of change that have shaped genre conventions in historical news discourse from the 17th century to the present day High School News Lancaster (Pa.). Boys' high school, 1926 Announcement Washington State University, 1922 Diachronic Developments in English News Discourse Minna Palander-Collin, Maura Ratia, Irma Taavitsainen, 2017-08-15 The history of English news discourse is characterised by intriguing multilevel developments and the present cannot be separated from them For example audience engagement is by no means an invention of the digital age This collection highlights major topics that range from newspaper genres like sports reports advertisements and comic strips to a variety of news practices All contributions view news discourse in a specific historical period or across time and relate language features to their sociohistorical contexts and changing ideologies The varying needs and expectations of the newspaper producers writers and readers and even news agents are taken into account The articles use interdisciplinary study methods and move at interfaces between sociolinguistics journalism semiotics literary theory critical discourse analysis pragmatics and sociology The Newswriting Formula Vergel O. Santos, 1989 Writing to the World Rachael Scarborough King, 2018-06 Ultimately Writing to the World is a sophisticated look at the intersection of print and the public sphere The Linguistics of Newswriting Daniel Perrin, 2013-09-25 The Linguistics of Newswriting focuses on text production in journalistic media as both a socially relevant field of language use and as a strategic field of applied linguistics The book discusses and paves the way for scientific projects in the emerging field of linguistics of newswriting From empirical micro and theoretical macro perspectives strategies and practices of research development and knowledge transformation are discussed Thus the book is addressed to researchers teachers and coaches interested in the linguistics of professional writing in general and news writing in particular Together with the training materials provided on the internet

Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres Jonathan Ngai,2022-05-08 Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres Hard News Stories Editorials and Feature Articles is the first book length study of evaluation or stance in three major newspaper genres hard news stories editorials and feature articles the last of which is a Cinderella genre in linguistic studies It offers a fresh approach to exploring the ways in which evaluation or stance contributes to the construction of the three newspaper genres each with a distinct communicative purpose Key features include using a 900 000 word comparable corpus of newspaper texts arranged by genre and topic domain drawing on a specially developed framework of analysis with a strong orientation to news values carrying out structural analysis by creating sub corpora of different parts of newspaper texts and adopting a functional approach to evaluation in newspaper discourse Evaluation Across Newspaper Genres amply demonstrates that evaluation plays a vital and yet dynamic role in the construction of hard news stories editorials and feature articles by performing a great variety of discourse functions In doing so the book also illuminates such important linguistic concepts as specificity variation and textual colligation Providing a new and unifying perspective on evaluation as a prime driver of text construction it will be of interest and use to researchers teachers and students of English language applied linguistics and journalism A Creed for My Profession Ronald T. Farrar,2013-12-24 This superb biography provides for the first time a candid look at the remarkable life of Walter Williams the man who founded the world s first school of journalism and perhaps contributed more toward the promotion of professional journalism than any other person of his time Williams the youngest of six children was born in Boonville Missouri in 1864 Never an athletic child he always had a love of books and of learning yet he scarcely had a high school education He began his journalistic career as a printer s devil at seventy cents per week and eventually became editor and part owner of a weekly in Columbia Missouri During his time as an editor Williams became convinced that journalism would never reach its potential until its practitioners had the opportunity for university training in their field After years of crusading he established the first journalism school on the University of Missouri campus Later he was chosen president of the University of Missouri which he led with distinction during the Great Depression Williams was an unwavering advocate of high professional standards His Journalist s Creed became one of the most widely circulated codes of professional ethics Williams inspired the confidence of his fellow journalists and he carried his message to nearly every country in which newspapers were published Not only did he invent journalism education he also created global organizations of journalists and spread the gospel of professionalism throughout the world His death in 1935 was mourned throughout the United States and editorial tributes came from around the world As one British editor succinctly put it Williams was not born to greatness Neither was it thrust upon him Literally he achieved greatness Catalogue Boston University,1918 California Quarterly of Secondary Education ,1929 Boston University Bulletin Boston
