

PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you ask us to put on the meekness and humility of your heart. I thank you for having glorified in the Church your humble servant, Saint Maravillas of Jesus. In this way, Lord, you give her in heaven the just reward for her fidelity on earth. May the example of her virtues stimulate the desire in many souls to walk along the veritable Way, the Truth and the Life which you alone are. Please, grant me through her intercessión the favour I ask you. Amen.

The History of the Prayer Book. The Derivation of Most of Its Formularies from Previous Liturgies, and the Dates of the Composition of Others of Them. The Index of Middle English Prose when completed will be a monumental achievement

REVIEW OF ENGLISH STUDIES Two very different collections are surveyed in this volume The manuscripts of Pembroke College Cambridge are typical of a medieval foundation Its core of books is a working library of that period representing the interests and needs of its Fellows very often given or bequeathed by them to the College The collection was substantially enlarged in 1599 through the gift by William Smart of Ipswich of a large number of manuscripts which until the Reformation had belonged to the Abbey of Bury St Edmunds By contrast the emphasis of the Fitzwilliam Museum collection is to a great extent art historical At its heart are the manuscripts bequeathed by Lord Fitzwilliam in 1816 These were supplemented throughout the 19th century by a series of gifts and bequests culminating in 1904 in the largest bequest to date from Frank McClean of some 203 manuscripts In spite of the different character of the two collections both contain a range of Middle English prose items among them Chaucer s Boece a complete Wycliffite sermon cycle and several Paston letters all from Pembroke the Anlaby Cartulary the Canutus pestilence tract the Brut Lydgate s Serpent of Division and Nicholas Love s Mirror of the Blessed Life of Jesus Christ from the Fitzwilliam

Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon,2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord s Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century The Book of Common Prayer George Sprott, 2023-01-29 Reprint of the original The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost The Wooing of Our Lord and The Wooing Group Prayers Catherine Innes-Parker, 2015-07-22 The Wooing of Our Lord and the Wooing Group prayers occupy a key position in the history of English literature and the development of English religious devotion Dating from the second quarter of the thirteenth century they are among a group of texts written in English at a time when the language of literature and the court was Anglo Norman French and the language of church and state was Latin The text for which this group is named The Wooing of Our Lord is also a highly skilled composition combining beautiful and poetic expression with a profound affective theology Its first person female narrator speaks directly to Christ becoming the voice of the reader whom the text guides through a passionate meditation upon the magnitude of Christ's love his sufferings in his Passion and the response of the individual soul Catherine Innes Parker's graceful new translation is paired with the original Middle English dialect in a facing page format The History of the Prayer Book ... George Henry Stoddart (B.D., Chaplain of Eassey Union, Sandwich.), 1864
