Audience and Reception in the Early Modern Period John R. Decker, Mitzi Kirkland-Ives, 2021-09-09 Early modern audiences readerships and viewerships were not homogenous Differences in status education language wealth and experience to name only a few variables could influence how a group of people or a particular person received and made sense of sermons public proclamations dramatic and musical performances images objects and spaces The ways in which each of these were framed and executed could have a serious impact on their relevance and effectiveness The chapters in this volume explore the ways in which authors poets artists preachers theologians playwrights and performers took account of and encoded pluriform potential audiences readers and viewers in their works and how these varied parties encountered and responded to these works The contributors here investigate these complex interactions through a variety of critical and methodological lenses The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Modern Sonneteers, Hilary Mantel, and Critical Letters Ethan Lewis, 2021-01-13 This series of critiques serves to help demarcate as well as add to three specific literary forums The first section of the book Modern Sonneteers discusses the genre plied by countless pens since Petrarch's inception of the sonnet honed by Shakespeare and cultivated through Donne Milton Keats and Wordsworth among others showing that it thrives still The twentieth century yielded a second Sonnet Golden Age reminiscent of the first at the apex of the English Renaissance Auden Borges Cummings Larkin and Stokes comprise part of the cadre of recent masters The second part of the book Homage to Hilary Mantel comprises half a dozen pieces on a pre eminent novelist of our time whose most notable achievement The Thomas Cromwell Trilogy enshrines and reconceives an earlier time In counterpoint to her historical fiction literary analyses of Mantel are of necessity new The essays gathered here shed light on her work and spur further inquiry The third section Critical Letters in Critical Times compasses pensees written to students colleagues and friends regarding Shakespeare Borges Nabokov Wordsworth Tarrt Schmidt poetry and ethics and the sublime Most of this work is predicated on our unprecedented circumstances ensuing from the COVID 19 pandemic It stands to reason that our literary analyses will be colored by our situation for some critical times to come      Reading
