English-speaking South Africa Today 1820 Settlers National Monument Foundation,1976 The Public Eye Robert P Winston,Nancy C Mellerski,1992-09-15 European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard,1986

South Africa Into The 1980s Richard E Bissell,Chester A. Crocker,2019-07-11 The question of South Africa s future has become a paramount issue in global politics This book examines the position of South Africa as it faces the 1980s its strengths its weaknesses and the probable influences of other states on South Africa in the years to come The authors share a common interest in an analytical approach to a topic often argued with more emotion than rationality They discuss South Africa s internal situation with particular emphasis on the interests and aspirations of the political parties competing for power then they focus on external realities looking at the country s ability to project influence abroad as well as the power of others to affect events within it In sum they highlight crucial trends shaping South Africa s current and future development

The Linguistic Landscape of Post-Apartheid South Africa Liesel Hibbert,2016-06-24 The appointment of Nelson Mandela as President of South Africa in 1994 signalled the end of apartheid and transition to a new democratic constitution This book studies discursive trends during the first twenty years of the new democracy outlining the highlights and challenges of transforming policy practice and discursive formations The book analyses a range of discourses which signal how and by what processes the linguistic landscape and identities of South Africa s inhabitants have changed in this time finding that struggles in South African politics go hand in hand with shifts in the linguistic landscape In a country now characterised by multilingualism heteroglossia polyphony and translanguaging the author debates where the discourse practices of those born post 1994 may lead The Africana Conference Paper Index: Register of conferences through Author index Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies,1982

In Different Times Ian van der Waag,Albert Grundlingh,2019-11-15 This is the first attempt to bring together diverse scholars using different lenses to study South Africa s Border War As a book it is critical in approach provides deeper reflection and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war The result is a more complex picture of the war s dynamics and its legacies Although South Africa is a vastly different country today the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013 It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces and their use as foreign policy instruments in far off theatres on military planning and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Bangui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics Fact - Fiction - "faction" Horst Zander,1999 Africa Today

,1977 Segregation and Singularity Peter Stewart,2021-11-15 As a political sociology of whites in the last years of apartheid in South Africa this book provides an analysis of the social origins and social context of political attitudes among a sample of middle class English speaking whites in selected suburbs in the city of Johannesburg Gauteng Province It reveals that such attitudes emanated in the context of acute and continuing political polarisation principally between black and white in the twilight of apartheid and before the first democratic elections The book adds another dimension to the interpretation of class dynamics in the study of apartheid South Africa In contrast to other studies that have concentrated on the working class and on very restricted political and economic elites which gives an incomplete picture of class dynamics this book considers the impact of the middle classes in shaping the history of apartheid South Africa Migration, Space and
