Complex Adpositions in European Languages Benjamin Fagard, José Pinto de Lima, Dejan Stosic, Elena Smirnova, 2020-10-26 While much attention has been devoted to simple nominal relators especially prepositions and case markers complex nominal relators have not yet been the focus of a systematic and cross linguistic study The chapters of this volume provide not only a working definition of such constructions but also a description of complex adpositions and other complex nominal relators in a variety of European languages both Indo European and non Indo European including some languages for which this phenomenon had received little attention such as Breton and Albanian Building on synchronic and diachronic corpus based investigations the authors show commonalities and specificities of these linguistic items across languages trying to explain why and how they emerged The research presented in this volume confirms the wide spread use of complex adpositions in Europe and the data reviewed in the final discussion suggests it might be the same in other parts of the world as well This book thus offers not only detailed descriptions of complex nominal relators in fifteen languages but also indications of what to look for in other languages and how to distinguish between a syntactically free sequence and a genuine complex nominal relator

Estonia Alexander Theroux, 2011-11-21 Any journey with Alexander Theroux is an education Possessed of a razor sharp and hyperliterate mind he stands beside Thomas Pynchon as one of the sharpest cultural commentators of our time So when he decided to accompany his wife the artist Sarah Son Theroux on her Fulbright Scholarship to Estonia it occasioned this penetrating examination of a country that for many seems alien and distanced from the modern world For Theroux the country and its people become a puzzle His fascination with their language manners and legacy of occupation and subordination lead him to a revelatory examination of Estonia's peculiar place in European history All the while his trademark acrobatic allusions quotations and digressions which take us from Hamlet through Jean Cocteau to Married with Children render his travels as much internal and psychical as they are external and physical Through these obsessive references to Western culture we come to appreciate how insular the country has become yet also marvel at its fierce individuality and preternatural beauty such is the skill of Theroux's gaze This travelogue of his nine months abroad also brims with anecdotes of Theroux's encounters with Estonian people and in some of its most bitterly comedic episodes his fellow Americans whom he at times feels more alienated from than the frosty humorless Europeans
