Public Record Office, 1898 Atlanta Magazine, 2006-01 Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region

Bookwork Garrett Stewart, 2011-05-01 There they rest inert impertinent in gallery space those book forms either imitated or mutilated replicas of reading matter or its vestiges Strange after its long and robust career for the book to take early retirement in a museum not as rare manuscript but as functionless sculpture Readymade or constructed such book shapes are canceled as text when deposited as gallery objects shut off from their normal reading when not in some yet more drastic way dismembered or reassembled So begins Bookwork which follows our passion for books to its logical extreme in artists who employ found or simulated books as a sculptural medium Investigating the conceptual labor behind this proliferating international art practice Garrett Stewart looks at hundreds of book like objects alone or as part of gallery installations in this original account of works that force attention upon a book's material identity and cultural resonance Less an inquiry into the artist's book than an exploration of the book form's contemporary objecthood Stewart's interdisciplinary approach traces the lineage of these aggressive artifacts from the 1919 Unhappy Readymade of Marcel Duchamp down to the current crisis of paper based media in the digital era Bookwork surveys and illustrates a stunning variety of appropriated and fabricated books alike ranging from hacksawed discards to the giant lead folios of Anselm Kiefer The unreadable books Stewart engages with in this timely study are found again and again to generate graphic metaphors for the textual experience they preclude becoming in this sense legible after all

Irish Rural Interiors in Art Claudia Kinmonth, 2006-01-01 This book offers a fascinating view of many aspects of Irish rural life from the eighteenth to the mid twentieth century Illustrated with more than 250 images many of which have not been published before the book evokes the hardships and celebrations of laborers and farmers men and women the old and the young as depicted in oil paintings watercolors drawings prints postcards and cartoons Most of the illustrations show people engaged in indoor activities at home but schools shops pubs and doctors surgeries are also included Claudia Kinmonth draws on extensive knowledge of the material culture of rural life to present a new social history of Irish country people Working within a broadly chronological framework the author addresses such themes and patterns of rural life as the architecture of houses where people slept cooking over the open hearth rural dress display childcare work within the home the arrangement of marriages weddings wakes and celebrations The book also explores why Irish and foreign artists depicted rural interiors and sets their work in the context of art history Clandestine Marriage Theresa M. Kelley, 2012-11-15 Botany in the romantic era played a role in debates about life nature and knowledge as evidenced in this ambitious beautifully illustrated study Winner 2012 British Society for Literature and Science Book Prize Romanticism was a cultural and intellectual movement characterized by discovery revolution and the poetic as well as by the philosophical relationship between people and nature Botany sits at the intersection where romantic scientific and literary discourses meet Clandestine Marriage explores the meaning and methods of how plants were represented and reproduced in scientific literary artistic and material cultures of the period Theresa M Kelley synthesizes romantic debates about taxonomy and morphology the contemporary interest in books and magazines devoted to plant study and images and writings by such authors as Mary Wollstonecraft and Anna Letitia Barbauld Period botanical paintings of flowers are reproduced in vibrant color bringing her argument and the romantics passion for plants to life In addition to exploring botanic thought and practice in the context of British romanticism Kelley also looks to the German philosophical traditions of Kant Hegel and Goethe and to Charles Darwin s reflections on orchids and plant pollination Her interdisciplinary approach allows a deeper understanding of a time when exploration of the natural world was a culture wide enchantment The Athenaeum ,1866 Mark Lane Express ,1906
