aboriginal adivasi and artisan communities for ages The book explores the structured tapestry of Ho people's relations and interrelatedness within their culture specific sociocosmic universe ensuring their social reproduction in the present and affording them the means for and the awareness of living in a world of plenty This world of abundance with the Ho as its conceptual centre includes the Ho's dead their complex spirit world and supreme deity and their tribal and nontribal fellow humans and it manifests itself in manifold facets of their lives socially ritually economically and linguistically This is an important piece of work The ethnographic details in it are invaluable The fieldwork is superb What comes across so magnificently is that unique quality of the author's human and emotional contact and shared understanding with the people
