Cooke, Lionel Stevenson, 1959 The Literature of the Victorian Era Hugh Walker, 1913 The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 The Victorian Age in Literature Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1914 The Victorian Age in Literature by Gilbert Keith Chesterton first published in 1914 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it English Fiction of the Victorian Period Michael Wheeler, 2014-01-14 Professor Wheeler s widely acclaimed survey of the nineteenth century fiction covers both the major writers and their works and encompasses the genres and minor fiction of the period This excellent introduction and reference source has been revised for this second edition to include new material on lesser known writers and a comprehensively updated bibliography English Literature of the Victorian Period John Daniel Cooke, 1971 The Victorian Period Robin Gilmour, 2014-09-19 This is a thought provoking synthesis of the Victorian period focusing on the themes of science religion politics and art It examines the developments which radically changed the intellectual climate and illustrates how their manifestations permeated Victorian literature The author begins by establishing the social and institutional framework in which intellectual and cultural life developed Special attention is paid to the reform agenda of new groups which challenged traditional society and this perspective informs Gilmour s discussion throughout the book He assesses Victorian religion science and politics in their own terms and in relation to the larger cultural politics of the middle class challenge to traditionalism Familiar topics such as the Oxford Movement and Darwinism are seen afresh and those once neglected areas which are now increasingly important to modern scholars are brought into clear focus such as Victorian agnosticism the politics of gender Englishness and photography The most innovative feature of this compelling study is the prominence given to the contemporary preoccupation with time The Victorians time hauntedness emerges as the defining feature of their civilisation the remote time of geology and evolution the public time of history the private time of autobiography The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940

English Poetry of the Victorian Period, 1830-1890 Bernard Arthur Richards, 2001 Deeply unpoetical was how Matthew Arnold described the Victorian period and many of his contemporaries would have agreed Even to later generations poetic achievement from 1830 to 1890 seems dwarfed by the great burgeoning of the novel However English Poetry of the Victorian Period demonstrates the very real diversity and richness of Victorian poetry This was the era of Tennyson the Brownings Arnold Swinburne Clough the Rossettis and Hopkins poets who not only wrote with distinctly original voices but who also reflected the deeper tensions of their time Bernard Richards balances detailed analysis of individual poets and works with a broader perspective of the poetic spirit of the age Two new chapters have been added to this revised edition on nonsense poetry and women poets He characterises the Victorian age as one of tremendous poetic wealth related to but different from the Romantic period which preceded it and the Modernist period which followed it The Victorian Age in Literature
