Phelan, Jr.,2005-06-14 Devotional material has always been of immeasurable value to Gods people Spurgeons Morning and Evening has encouraged many a pilgrim as they prepared for their day and sought comfort on their pillow at night We do not aspire to this caliber of thought or experience yet we feel a burden for the same work One reason is because there is always a need for contemporary authors people who live and breathe in this present world who may be identified as a living brother and companion in tribulation Another reason has given equal force to vent our hearts in written form There was once a day when families gathered together to discuss religious topics It was by those discussions however brief and unstructured they may have been that children became aware of their parents faith and ultimately their God Today we live in a busy world With computers television VCR s CD s and a world of entertainment at our fingertips this opportunity of teaching has become all but extinct Gadgets noise and electronics stifle familial communication Granted children may know that their parents believe in God because they go to church yet the dynamics of personal interactions between parent and child is all but lost Thus we come to this final reason for this collection of articles To give the parent some short meditations to enjoy personally and ultimately share with their family and children Our homilies are for the most part a condensed version of messages delivered to our congregation Surely if they were given us by the Chief Shepherd for the feeding of the gathered flock they will be beneficial to other sheep which are not of our immediate fold For your benefit we have included some helpful hints for parents at the conclusion of each devotion Every Day with the Father Mark Stibbe,2012-01-18 Dr Mark Stibbe fell in love with John s Gospel as a teenager This set of devotional readings springs from profound reflection over many years but the tone is inspirational and popular He writes John is my favourite Gospel In John s Gospel Jesus is the Son who reveals the Father He is presented to us as the one who came to show us what the Father is truly like He says of himself that he is the only Way to the Father and the one who discloses the truth about the Father heart of God Every verse of John s Gospel reveals the Father Together we consider 366 texts and look at how they reveal the Father who has adopted us embraced us in his family and promised never to abandon us The purpose of every daily study is to turn what we learn into the language of adoration
