Enigma Of Hastings:

THE ENIGMA OF HASTINGS. Edwin Tetlow, 1977      Battleground Sussex John Grehan, 2012-03-19 From its south eastern tip Sussex is little more than sixty miles from continental Europe and the county's coastline some seventy six miles long occupies a large part of Britain's southern frontier Before the days of Macadam and the Turnpike water travel could prove more certain than land transportation and the seas that define the borders of our nation aided rather than deterred the invader Though the last successful invasion of Britain took place almost 1 000 years ago the gently shelving beaches of Sussex have tempted the prospective invader with the promise of both an easy disembarkation and a short and direct route to London the last time being just seven decades ago As the authors demonstrate the repeated threat of invasion from the Continent has shaped the very landscape of the county The rounded tops of the Iron Age hill forts the sheer walls of the medieval castles the squat stumps of Martello towers the moulded Vaubanesque contours of the Palmerstone redoubts and the crouched concrete blocks and bricks of the Second World War pillboxes constitute the visible evidence of Sussex's position on Britain's front line      Memory, Heritage, and Preservation in 20th-Century England David

Strittmatter, 2023-03-09 This book explores commemoration practices and preservation efforts in modern Britain focusing on the years from the end of the First World War until the mid 1960s The changes wrought by war led Britain to reconsider major historical episodes that made up its national narrative Part of this process was a reassessment of heritage sites because such places carry socio political meaning as do the memorials that mark them This book engages the four way intersection of commemoration preservation tourism and urban planning at some of the most notable historic locations in England The various actors in this process from the national government and regional councils to private organizations and interested individuals did nothing less than engineer British national memory The author presents case studies of six famous British places namely battlefields Hastings and Bosworth political sites Runnymede and Peterloo and world's fairgrounds the Crystal Palace and Great White City In all three genres of heritage sites one location developed through commemorations and tourism while the other anti sites simultaneously faltered as they were neither memorialized nor visited by the masses Ultimately the book concludes that the modern social and political environment resulted in the revival creation or erasure of heritage sites in the service of promoting British national identity A valuable read for British historians as well as scholars of memory public history and cultural studies the book argues that heritage emerged as a discursive arena in which British identity was renegotiated through times of transitions both into a democratic age and an era of geopolitical decline      The Speeches of the Right Honourable Richard Brinsley Sheridan Richard Brinsley Sheridan, 1853      *The modern orator.
