Motherhood?! How to Survive and Thrive After Your First Pregnancy Brit Tashjian, 2012-05-05 The handmade booties from your great aunt the trendy stuffed animals you picked out on a leisurely Saturday afternoon and the softer than anything you've ever felt baby blanket you kept petting during your pregnancy to remind yourself this whole thing is real are all great to have But they're about as useful as a hand towel in a tsunami when the first year with your first baby actually gets going What you need is a personal strategy to batten down the hatches of your life and stock up on resources to turn that tsunami into a fun filled day at the water park What you need is the forecast I've heard more than a few moms talk about what they wish they had known that first year In the quest for your life to normalize and even more than that to reach a new level of satisfying energy and the larger than yourself joy that parenting promised I suggest giving prioritized focus and gentle awareness to five key areas enabling you to become the balanced and beautiful mother that you knew you could be as soon as you peed on that stick I'm telling you what we all wish we could have told ourselves

Survive and Thrive Wendy Crone,2022-05-31 The experience of an untenured faculty member is highly dependent on the quality of the mentoring they receive This mentoring may come from a number of different sources and the concept of developing a constellation of mentors is highly recommended but a mentoring relationship that is guided by the mentee s needs will be the most productive Often however the mentee does not know their own needs what questions to ask and what topics they should discuss with a mentor This book provides a guide to the mentoring process for untenured faculty Perspectives are provided and questions posed on topics ranging from establishing scholarly expertise and developing professional networks to personal health and balancing responsibilities The questions posed are not intended for the mentee to answer in isolation rather a junior faculty member should approach these questions throughout their untenured years with the help of their mentors Survive and Thrive A Guide for Untenured Faculty will help to facilitate the mentoring process and lead junior faculty to a path where they can move beyond just surviving and truly thrive in their position Table of Contents Tough Questions About Why You Are Here Joining Your Department and Discipline Establishing Expertise Developing Networks Relationships and Mentoring Activities Getting Support and Evaluating Your Personal Health Planning for the Future Conclusion From Survive to Thrive Margaret S. Chisolm,2021-10-26 The author details a plan for helping individuals who have a mental health issue flourish in their lives Of Love & War Lynsey Addario,2018-10-23 Spectacular a majestic collection that captures the drama of everyday existence in war zones around the world There is no disputing the impact of this revelatory collection BookPage From the Pulitzer Prize winning photojournalist and New York Times bestselling author a stunning and personally curated selection of her work across the Middle East South Asia and Africa Pulitzer Prize winning photojournalist and MacArthur Fellow Lynsey Addario has spent the last two decades bearing witness to the world's most urgent humanitarian and human rights crises. Traveling to the most dangerous and remote corners to document crucial moments such as Afghanistan under the Taliban immediately before and after the 9/11 attacks, Iraq following the US-led invasion and dismantlement of Saddam Hussein's government and western Sudan in the aftermath of the genocide in Darfur, she has captured through her photographs visual testimony not only of war and injustice but also of humanity, dignity and resilience. In this compelling collection of more than two hundred photographs, Addario's commitment to exposing the devastating consequences of human conflict is on full display. Her subjects include the lives of female members of the military as well as the trauma and abuse inflicted on women in male-dominated societies. American soldiers rescuing comrades in the Korengal Valley of Afghanistan and Libyan opposition troops trading fire in Benghazi. Interspersed between her commanding and arresting images are personal journal entries and letters as well as revelatory essays from esteemed writers such as Dexter Filkins, Suzy Hansen and Lydia Polgreen. A powerful and singular work from one of the most brilliant and influential photojournalists working today. Of Love, War is a breathtaking record of our complex world in all its inescapable chaos, conflict and beauty. Prisoners in Paradise Theresa Kaminski, 2000. Draws on letters, diaries of American wives, missionaries, teachers, nurses and spies to uncover their heroic tales while captives of the Japanese during World War II.

Free Summer Brooks, 2018-03-12. For many, the most difficult person to love is themselves. Yet this may be the most important person to love as it sets up other relationships for success or failure. In Free, author Summer Brooks describes her healing journey of learning self-love after years of self-loathing. She offers a guide for all women struggling with the pressures of today's society. It's about change, love, parenting, bullying, motherhood and about how women can transform their lives by changing their thoughts to live a wonderful, happy life. In Free, Brooks reflects on her childhood to find the love within her before delving into the painful teenage bullying years. She moves through the stages of becoming a woman and all the problems many women face. She expresses the hardships of motherhood and societal pressures of marriage and parenting while sharing her own struggles, desires, fears and pain to help women understand why they are so critical of themselves and how to make a change today. Free will help all women find self-love and let go of all that's holding them back from becoming the absolute best they can be. Loss, Survive, Thrive Meryl Hershey Beck, 2019-11-22. No one is prepared for the loss of a child. No one. It feels completely unnatural for children to predecease their parents. Although it is not widely known, each year there are over 135,000 under-40-year-old deaths in the U.S. alone. And according to one study, 19% of parents outlive their children, often carrying the weight of horrendous grief to their own graves. Isolated and alone is how parents often describe the grief process. Well-meaning friends and family members usually rush to their side in the beginning. Once the floral arrangements have wilted and the dinners from caring friends diminish, there isn't really much that can be said to bring comfort to a suffering parent, especially if those friends haven't experienced it themselves. Unfortunately, when these caring friends do bring up the loss, quite often they say the wrong things. Loss, Survive, Thrive offers a lifeline of hope. Each

Jones,2020 From a stage erected in front of the US Capitol on April 25 1993 Michael Callen surveyed the throng an estimated one million people stretched across the National Mall in the largest public demonstration of queer political solidarity in history What a sight he told the crowd his earnest Midwestern twang reverberating through loudspeakers You re a sight for sore eyes Being gay is the greatest gift I have ever been given and I don t care who knows about it He then launched into a gorgeous rendition of Love Don t Need a Reason the AIDS anthem he composed with Marsha Malamet and the late Peter Allen As Callen finished singing people stood cheering and flashing the familiar American Sign Language symbol for I Love You For they knew the song s sentiment rang true for Callen who had recently announced his retirement from music and activism after a living for more than a decade with what was then called full blown AIDS After the March on Washington Callen returned to his recently adopted West Coast home Los Angeles In the ensuing months his health rapidly declined and on 27 December 1993 Callen died of AIDS related pulmonary

Kaposi's sarcoma Love Don't Need a Reason focuses on Callen's most important and lasting legacy his music A witness to the overlooked last years of Gay Liberation and a major figure in the early years of the AIDS crisis Michael Callen chronicled these experiences in song A community organizer activist author and architect of the AIDS self empowerment movement he literally changed the way we have sex in an epidemic when he co authored one of the first safe sex guides in 1983 A gifted singer songwriter and performer he also made gay music for gay people and used music to educate and empower people with AIDS Listening again to his music allows us to hear the shifting dynamics of American families changing notions of masculinity gay migration to urban areas the sexual politics of Gay Liberation and HIV AIDS activism Using extensive archival materials and newly conducted oral history interviews with Callen's friends family and fellow musicians Matthew J Jones reintroduces Callen to the history of LGBTQIA music and places Callen's music at the center of his important activist work

Poets and the Fools Who Love Them Richard Katrovas, 2022-02-16 Poets and the Fools Who Love Them blends autobiography with cultural commentary and meditates on creative writing as a cottage industry within humanities higher education Celebrated poet and memoirist Richard Katrovas examines his picaresque early years with a criminal father a beleaguered mother and four siblings as state and federal authorities pursued the family across the highways of America His freewheeling wide ranging essays consider among other social constructs the relation of crime and art and the relation of both to the authority of the state particularly in terms of race and class Katrovas speaks candidly about how white privilege facilitated his father's criminal career as a lifestyle of larceny and used car scams perpetuated state to state would have surely had different implications for a family of color Drawing on his adulthood in academe Katrovas's memoir in essays chronicles a quest to locate surrogate fathers among older poets and other creative writers and reflects upon the ways in which that search has affected his role as the father to three Czech American daughters The book flows from the love of a poet for other poets for the community of poets one likened to a gang of priests and a herd of bears Katrovas maintains that most lovers of poets are themselves poets and those lovers of poets who are not themselves poets are saints At its heart Poets and the Fools Who Love Them contemplates with care and unabashed honesty the role of art and the artist in the madcap twenty first century

Candy Apple Love Deborah R. Donathan, 2008-12-09 A young woman tells her compelling life's story It is a story of great controversy even to this day My name is Candy Apple Love Some of you may be thinking that I have a strange name Let me tell you how I got it My Mother chose my name because of the circumstances of my birth After I have told you my story you will understand why I am who I am You see I am the product of an abortion that developed a very serious complication I was born alive examines the status of women in different eras and in different areas of society The contributors draw on their international experience to consider how women are viewed and treated in society today and offer perspectives on why the status of women and girls has not changed in some areas Love and Treasure Ayelet Waldman,2015-01-20 A Washington Post Best Book of the Year An Oprah com Best Book of the Year In 1945 on the outskirts of Salzburg American soldiers discover a train filled with unspeakable riches gold watches and wedding rings picture frames and Shabbat candlesticks Jack Wiseman is the lieutenant tasked with guarding this treasure in the chaotic aftermath of war a responsibility that grows more complicated when he meets Ilona a fierce beautiful Hungarian woman who has lost everything in the ravages of the Holocaust Seventy years later amid the shadowy world of art dealers who profit off the sins of previous generations Jack gives a necklace to his granddaughter Natalie and charges her with returning it to its owner And as Natalie searches for the woman whose portrait and unknown fate have come to haunt her she will come to understand the secret her grandfather took to his grave
