From The Cockpit Spitfire:

Story of the Spitfire Ken Delve, 2025-01-30 An in depth exploration of the Spitfire's combat legacy pilot tactics and its enduring iconic status To many people the Supermarine Spitfire was Britain's saviour during the Battle of Britain and the embodiment of air combat during the Second World War The Story of the Spitfire presents a thrilling appraisal of this unique aircraft focusing on its fighting capability and the tactics of the pilots who flew it Using official evaluations and reports alongside technical and tactical developments plus the recollections of Spitfire pilots Ken Delve provides a fascinating insight into the combat career of this legendary aircraft Despite some problems with their new aircraft the Fighter Command pilots of 1938 were generally delighted with the Spitfire speed manoeuvrability and firepower were all far greater than they had been with the earlier biplanes In tactics and training the RAF was outdated but it adapted quickly and the air battles over Britain in late 1940 forged the Spitfire legend How justified was the legend There were only nineteen Spitfire squadrons in Fighter Command during the Battle of Britain it was only later as the RAF turned to the offensive that the number of Spitfire units increased dramatically At certain times the combat initiative was lost to improved Messerschmitt Bf 109s and Focke Wulf Fw 190s but with increased performance and better training the Spitfire clawed back the advantage By 1944 the Spitfire was operating as a fighter bomber in various theatres of war with new tactics and new problems Many fighter pilots thought that having bombs strapped under the aircraft verged on an insult but with aerial targets in short supply this was the most effective if risky way of taking the war to the enemy After the war the Spitfire saw action right up to 1948 in the Arab Israeli War Today there are approximately seventy airworthy Spitfires in existence and R J Mitchell's remarkable aircraft is still the highlight of flying displays around the world Spitfire's Forgotten Designer Mike Roussel, Eric Brown, 2013-03-01 The Supermarine Spitfire was a classic design well known for its efforts in defending British shores during the Second World War However while Reginald Mitchell is rightly celebrated for his original design of the Spitfire the role of Joe Smith in the development of the Spitfire is often overlooked Smith was an integral member of the design team from the earliest days and on Mitchell's death in 1937 he was appointed design office manager before becoming chief designer Smith's dedicated leadership in the development of the Spitfire during the war as well as his efforts on post war jet aircraft deserve their place in history Charting the fascinating history of Supermarine from 1913 to 1958 when the company ceased its operations in Southampton shortly after Joe Smith's death in 1956 this book tells its story through the eyes of apprentices and many other members of Smith's team Marvellous photographs add to the sense of what it was like to work under Joe Smith at the drawing boards of one of Britain's most famous wartime aviation manufacturers Spitfire Aces of the Channel Front 1941-43 Andrew Thomas, 2016-06-16 80 years after the Spitfire was first developed it remains an icon of military aviation Though many associate its victory during the Battle of Britain as the high point in the history of the Spitfire the years following were of equal importance Having weathered the initial storm at the start of 1941 Fighter Command took the fight to the Germans with offensive missions over the Channel This book reveals how first using the Spitfire I and II and then following the introduction of the Bf 109 the cannon armed Spitfire V RAF squadrons embarked on a range of missions which included one of the most important air battles of the war over Dieppe on 19 August 1942 Alongside British pilots were squadrons manned by exiled Europeans and pilots from the RAAF RCAF and RNZAF In just three years over 100 of these pilots were to rack up ace status in the Spitfire
