Front Matter Dead Souls:

The Front Matter, Dead Souls Leslie Scalapino, 2012-01-01 Leslie Scalapino is widely regarded as one of the best avant garde writers in America today This extraordinary new book is essay fiction poetry an experiment in form a serial novel for publication in the newspaper that collapses the distinction between documentary and fiction Loosely set in Los Angeles the book scrutinizes our image making producing extreme and vivid images hyena Muscle Beach in Venice the Supreme Court subway rides in order for them to be real Countering contemporary trends toward interiority Scalapino's work constitutes a unique effort to be objectively in the world The writing is an action a dynamic push to make intimacy in the public realm She does not distinguish between poetry and real events her writing is analogous to Buddhist notions of dreaming one is a butterfly and becoming aware that actually being the butterfly is as real as dreaming it The Front Matter, Dead Souls

Prentice-Hall Staff, 1999-01-01 Democracy in Contemporary U.S. Women's Poetry N. Marsh, 2007-10-01 This book reads the work of contemporary women poets against recent debates in third wave feminism and democratic theory in exploring the range of ways in which women poets have interrogated the complexities of being public in contemporary U S culture

The Extraordinary Tide Susan Aizenberg, Erin Belieu, Jeremy Countryman, 2001 Featuring four hundred poems by more than one hundred female authors this celebration of American women poets includes major work from the last third of the 20th century The Public World/Syntactically Impermanence Leslie Scalapino, 2012-01-01 The Public World Syntactically Impermanence is a brilliant consideration of the strategies of poetry and the similarities between early Zen thought and some American avant garde writings that counter the language of determinateness or conventions of perception The theme of the essays is poetic language which critiques itself recognizing its own conceptual formations of private and social the form or syntax of the language being syntactically impermanence Whether writing reflexively on her own poetry or looking closely at the writing of her peers Leslie Scalapino makes us aware of the split between commentary discourse and interpretation and interior experience The poetry in the collection is both commentary and interior experience at once She argues that poetry is perhaps most deeply political when it is an expression that is not recognized or readily comprehensible as discourse

North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Lisa Sewell, Kazim Ali, 2020-02-25 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Beyond Lyric and Language is an important new addition to the American Poets in the 21st Century series Like the earlier anthologies this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work Among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Catherine Cucinella on Marilyn Chin Meg Tyler on Fanny Howe Elline Lipkin on Alice Notley Kamran Javadizadeh on Claudia Rankine and many more A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States

The Wisdom Anthology of North American Buddhist Poetry Andrew Schelling, 2005-05-15 This unique collection brings us African Americans reading the Black diaspora through the eyes of exiled Tibetan monks Americans of Vietnamese and Tibetan heritage wrestling with the cultural norms of their parents or ancestors Zen and Dada inspired performance pieces and groundbreaking writings from the pioneers of the Beat movement so many of whom remain not just relevant but vital to this day With its eclectic mix of acknowledged elders and newly emergent voices this landmark anthology vividly displays how Buddhism is influencing the character of contemporary poetry

How to Live/what to Do Adalaide Kirby Morris, 2003 Adalaide Morris removes the work of the iconic writer H D from the various compartments into which it has traditionally been placed and examines what she terms the ongoingness of her writing showing her to be a playful linguistic innovator whose writings are relevant to many fields of human activity

Dissonance (if you are interested) Rosmarie Waldrop, 2005-08-21 Incisive essays on modern poetry and translation by a noted poet translator and critic As an immigrant to the United States from Germany Rosmarie Waldrop has wrestled with the problems of language posed by the discrepancies between her native and adopted tongues and the problems of translating from one to the other Those discrepancies and disjunctions instead of posing problems to be overcome have become for Waldrop a generative force and the very foundation of her interests as a critic and poet In this comprehensive collection of her essays Waldrop addresses considerations central to her life's work typical genres and ways of countering the conventions of genre how concrete poets have made syntax spatial rather than grammatical and the move away from metaphor in poetry toward contiguity and metonymy Three essays on translation struggle with the sources and targets of translation of the degree of strangeness or foreignness a translator should allow into any English translation Finally other essays examine the two way traffic between reading and writing and Waldrop s notion of reading as experience It's go in horizontal Leslie Scalapino,2008-04-08 Internationally recognized as one of the most innovative writers in America today Leslie Scalapino persistently challenges the boundaries of many forms in which she works poetry prose plays and more This outstanding volume includes work from sequential and serial poems written over thirty two years The poems demonstrate ideas and inventions in writing and how one writing invention leads to the next Three series are selected from the long poem way about which Philip Whalen said She makes everything take place in real time in the light and air and night where all of us live everything happening at once Recent poems such as those from DeLay Rose appear to leave the page itself as a single infinite line in which the actions of individuals and occurrences in the outside world are synonymous mysterious and simultaneous It s go in horizontal is a dazzling entryway into the oeuvre of a daring and powerful writer Biting the Error Gail Scott,Robert Glück,Camille Roy,2000-11-19 What is the best way to tell a story In this anthology the first ever collection of essays by innovative cutting edge writers on the theme of narration forty of the continent s top experimental writers describe their engagement with language storytelling and the world The anthology includes renowned writers like Kathy Acker Dennis Cooper Nicole Brossard Daphne Marlatt Lydia Davis and Kevin Killian writers who have spent years pondering the meaning of storytelling and how storytelling functions in our culture as well as presenting a new generation of brilliant thinkers and writers like Christian B k Corey Frost Derek McCormack and Lisa Robertson Contemporizing the friendly anecdotal style of Montaigne and written by daring writers of different ages of different origins from many different regions of the continent from Mexico to Montreal these essays run the gamut of mirth prose poetry tall tales and playful explorations of reader writer dynamics They discuss aesthetics founded on new explorations in the field of narrative the mystery that is the body questions of how representation may be torqued to deal with gender and sexuality the experience of marginalized people the negotiation between different orders of time the performance of outlaw subject matter Brave energetic and fresh Biting the Error tells a whole new story about narrative Biting the Error is edited by Mary Burger Robert Glück Camille Roy and Gail Scott the co founders of the Narrativity Website Magazine based at the Poetry Center San Francisco State University Listening to Reading Stephen Ratcliffe,2000-01-01 Less concerned with labels than with asking how this writing works it invites us to read from earlier works by Mallarme Stein and Cage to books published in the eighties and nineties by Mei mei Berssenbrugge David Bromige Clark Coolidge Beverly Dahlen Michael Davidson Larry Eigner Robert Grenier Lyn Hejinian Paul Hoover Susan Howe Ron Padgett Michael Palmer and Leslie Scalapino writers whose work is viewed as difficult and who have as yet been largely ignored by criticism BOOK JACKET Synecopations Jed Rasula,2004-05-18 An analysis of the sustaining vitality behind contemporary American poetry from 1975 to the 2003 these 12 essays examine both exemplary innovators and the social context in which innovation is resisted acclaimed or taken for granted The Language of Inquiry

Lyn Hejinian, 2000-12-27 Lyn Hejinian is among the most prominent of contemporary American poets Her autobiographical poem My Life a best selling book of innovative American poetry has garnered accolades and fans inside and outside academia The Language of Inquiry is a comprehensive and wonderfully readable collection of her essays and its publication promises to be an important event for American literary culture Here Hejinian brings together twenty essays written over a span of almost twenty five years Like many of the Language Poets with whom she has been associated since the mid 1970s Hejinian turns to language as a social space a site of both philosophical inquiry and political address Central to these essays are the themes of time and knowledge consciousness and perception Hejinian's interests cover a range of texts and figures Prominent among them are Sir Francis Bacon and Enlightenment era explorers Faust and Sheherazade Viktor Shklovsky and Russian formalism William James Hannah Arendt and Martin Heidegger But perhaps the most important literary presence in the essays is Gertrude Stein the volume includes Hejinian's influential Two Stein Talks as well as two more recent essays on Stein's writings

A Guide to Poetics Journal Lyn Hejinian, Barrett Watten, 2013-10-21 Lyn Hejinian and Barrett Watten are internationally recognized poet critics Together they edited the highly influential Poetics Journal whose ten issues published between 1982 and 1998 contributed to the surge of interest in the practice of poetics A Guide to Poetics Journal presents the major conversations and debates from the journal and invites readers to expand on the critical and creative engagements they represent In making their selections for the guide the editors have sought to showcase a range of innovative poetics and to indicate the diversity of fields and activities with which they might be engaged The introduction and headnotes by the editors provide historical and thematic context for the articles The Guide is intended to be of sustained creative and classroom use while the companion Archive of all ten issues of Poetics Journal allows users to remix remaster and extend its practices and debates See <http://www.upne.com/0819571236.html> for more information on the digital archive

New Time Leslie Scalapino, 2012-02-08 Time spent in Japan and everyday life in Berkeley and Oakland come together as a kaleidoscope of words and consciousness in New Time Leslie Scalapino pushes at the edges spatial shape of language and experience in her new collection by writing that is itself events which are to punch a hole in reality Real events occurring in real time are transformed in the act of writing them as perceived rather than interpreted Phrases repeat conjoin break apart and return in this challenging and innovative work as Scalapino moves toward a new time wherein there is no inner one's illusion that is the adamant social being is inner and the body is a new form

Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology s wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics Authority and the Historical Document in Late Twentieth-Century Literature Elizabeth Rich,2021-08-23 After the Fact Authority and the Historical Document in Late Twentieth Century Literature examines six historiographic metafiction novels that critically employ archival documents The writers endeavor ethical and critical projects that reveal how authority is constructed in historical records comprised of an array of genres that perform ideological work Poetic Epistemologies Megan Simpson,2000-01-27 Poetic Epistemologies explores the political and epistemological implications of women s language oriented writing in the United States arguing that in its investigation of knowledge language and gender this writing re unites art with philosophy and both with social critique Featuring eight contemporary and four earlier twentieth century poets including Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Leslie Scalapino Mina Loy and Gertrude Stein Simpson emphasizes each writer s unique contribution to the emerging tradition of feminist epistemological poetry Drawing upon original interviews as well as poststructuralist and feminist theory Poetic Epistemologies offers an informed account of one of the most vital recent developments in contemporary American poetry
