The Cambridge History of Eighteenth-Century Political Thought Mark Goldie, Robert Wokler, 2006-08-31 Publisher description

The New South, 1945-1980 Numan V. Bartley, 1995 First published in 1955 to wide acclaim T Harry Williams P G T Beauregard is universally regarded as the first authoritative portrait of the Confederacy's always dramatic often perplexing general Chicago Tribune Chivalric arrogant and of exotic Creole Louisiana origin Beauregard participated in every phase of the Civil War from its beginning to its end He rigidly adhered to principles of war derived from his studies of Jomini and Napoleon and yet many of his battle plans were rejected by his superiors who regarded him as excitable unreliable and contentious After the war Beauregard was almost the only prominent Confederate general who adapted successfully to the New South running railroads and later supervising the notorious Louisiana Lottery This paradox of a man who fought gallantly to defend the Old South and then helped industrialize it is the fascinating subject of Williams superb biography

Spain in International Context, 1936-1959 Christian Leitz, David Dunthorn, 1999-09-01 This collection of articles covers a crucial period of Spain's history from the rise of Franco to the crucial Stabilization Plan of 1959 Separated into four chronologically divided sections it focuses largely on the international reactions to and the involvement of other powers in the Spanish Civil War including an examination of French and British reactions to the situation in Spain and Soviet German and Italian involvement and the period of the Second World War with a particular focus on Spain's relations to the Axis and Vichy France especially during the period of 1940-41 when a Spanish entry into the war was most likely. The fate of the Spanish refugees and exiles in Britain and France is also highlighted as is Spain's international position in the aftermath of the Second World War and particularly the attitude of the former Allies Britain, France, the Soviet Union and the USA. The volume ends with Spain's response to the unfolding economic co-operation and integration in Western Europe. The

Charitable Imperative Colin Jones, 2024-12-06. Drawing on a wide variety of archival and secondary sources, The Charitable Imperative originally published in 1989 provides an overview of the very different institutions that treated the poor in France from the seventeenth through to the early nineteenth centuries: hospitals and poorhouses, military infirmaries, reformatories for prostitutes, holding places for the insane and so on. It recovers much of the daily realities of the institutions for those who lived in or passed through them and highlights the very limited progress made in most of them by the medical profession. The principle of charity which underpinned this system of relief placed moral and social obligations on all who dealt with the poor: a kind of charitable imperative affected the thinking and behaviour of the administrators who managed the institutions, the nursing sisters who gave their lives and the donors who gave up their possessions to meet the needs of the poor. However, the poor were also expected to pay their part with the result that the Ancien Régime charity subsumed compulsion and repression as well as compassion. In spite of efforts to introduce a state-sponsored welfare system during the French Revolution, the charitable imperative was a legacy of the Ancien Régime to much of the nineteenth century. The breadth of institutions covered and the length of the historical period under review will ensure the appeal of this book to a wide variety of historians. In particular, the chapters on nursing sisters will be of great interest to social historians as well as those working in the history of medicine. Hearings Before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives,

From Liberalism to Fascism Kevin Passmore, 2002-05-16. An innovative study explaining the emergence of French fascism in the 1930s, first published in 1997. The Baltic States, Years of Dependence, 1940-1990 Romuald J. Misiunas, Rein Taagepera, 1993.

In this updated edition of their renowned The Baltic States, Romuald Misiunas and Rein Taagepera bring the story of Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia up to the 1990s. The authors describe and analyze how the Baltic nations survived fifty years of social disruption, language discrimination and Russian colonialism. The nations' histories are fully integrated and compared, and some notable differences between them are pointed out. With two new chapters, a revised preface and an appendix on the end of Soviet domination, this expanded study covers a tumultuous period of political, economic, cultural and ecological reform. Transnational Labour History Marcel van der Linden, 2017-07-05.

There has been a growing recognition amongst scholars that labour historians need to look beyond national borders in order to place the history of the working classes into a much broader context than has hitherto been the case. Whilst studies focused on individual countries are essential it is only by comparing and contrasting the experiences across time and space that a true understanding of the subject can be attempted Professor Marcel van der Linden has contributed much to the debate on cross border processes and comparisons This volume makes available in English a collection of twelve of his most important essays on the theme of transnational labour history Previously published in a range of journals and volumes with two original contributions Transnational Labour History brings them together in a single convenient collection together with a new introduction This work will undoubtedly provide an invaluable resource for all students of European labour history

Committee on Un-American Activities,1956 Humanitarian Intervention, Colonialism, Islam and Democracy Gustavo Gozzi,2021-04-12 This book offers a critical analysis of the European colonial heritage in the Arab countries and highlights the way this legacy is still with us today informing the current state of relations between Europe and the formerly colonized states The work analyses the fraught relationship between the Western powers and the Arab countries that have been subject to their colonial rule It does so by looking at this relationship from two vantage points On the one hand is that of humanitarian intervention a paradigm under which colonial rule coexisted alongside humanitarian policies pursued on the dual assumption that the colonized were barbarous peoples who wanted to be civilized and that the West could lay a claim of superiority over an inferior humanity On the other hand is the Arab view from which the humanitarian paradigm does not hold up and which accordingly offers its own insights into the processes through which the Arab countries have sought to wrest themselves from colonial rule In unpacking this analysis the book traces a history of international and colonial law to this end also using the tools offered by the history of political thought The book will be of interest to students academics and researchers working in legal history international law international relations the history of political thought and colonial studies
