Deconstructing Post-WWII New York City Robert Bennett, 2013-12-02 Situating post WWII New York literature within the material context of American urban history this work analyzes how literary movements such as the Beat Generation the New York poets and Black Arts Movement criticized the spatial restructuring of post WWII New York City

The New Plantation B. Hawkins, 2010-02-15 The New Plantation examines the controversial relationship between predominantly White NCAA Division I Institutions PWI's and black athletes utilizing an internal colonial model It provides a much needed in depth analysis to fully comprehend the magnitude of the forces at work that impact black athletes experiences at PWI s Hawkins provides a conceptual framework for understanding the structural arrangements of PWI s and how they present challenges to Black athletes academic success yet challenges some have overcome and gone on to successful careers while many have succumbed to these prevailing structural arrangements and have not benefited accordingly The work is a call for academic reform collective accountability from the communities that bear the burden of nurturing this athletic talent and the institutions that benefit from it and collective consciousness to the Black male athletes that make of the largest percentage of athletes who generate the most revenue for the NCAA and its member institutions Its hope is to promote a balanced exchange in the athletic services rendered and the educational services received

Bum Rush the Page Tony Medina, Louis Reyes Rivera, 2001-10-23 Bum Rush the Page is a groundbreaking collection capturing the best new work from the poets who have brought fresh energy life and relevance to American poetry Here is a democratic orchestration of voices and visions poets of all ages ethnicities and geographic locations coming together to create a dialogue and to jam not slam This is our mouth on paper our hearts on our sleeves our refusal to shut up and swallow our silence These poems are tough honest astute perceptive lyrical blunt sad funny heartbreaking and true They shout they curse they whisper and sing But most of all they tell it like it is Tony Medina from the Introduction

Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S.
