Voices from the Classroom: A Celebration of Learning Vana Chiou, Lotte Geunis, Oliver Holz, Nesrin Oruç Ertürk, Fiona Shelton, 2021 Voices from the Classroom illustrates that teachers have a leading voice in the policies that impact their students and the profession of teaching. The aim is to provide a rich and broad view of the impact of inquiry in the classrooms from primary to higher education and to provide a window into the perspective of teachers. Voices from the Classroom allows us to advance this mission by identifying and then turning educators' ideas into action. The publication includes chapters on issues ranging from dyslexic students' geospatial abilities to teachers' differential behaviours related to student characteristics and the experiences of refugees with bullying in the educational space. All the contributions published in this book emerged from real classrooms; our teachers and researchers conducted their research by drawing on their experience as educators. We believe that these insights into everyday classrooms and the issues affecting them are crucial to making teaching and learning better. We hope they can help drive real positive change for students and teachers.

To which is prefixed a Rhetorical Grammar* William KENRICK (LL.D.), 1773 Book Bulletin, 1920 Research from Archival Case Records Philip C.C. Huang, Kathryn Bernhardt, 2014-04-30. Legal history studies have often focused mainly on codified law without attention to actual practice and on the past without relating it to the present. As the title Research from Archival Case Records: Law, Society and Culture in China of this book suggests, the authors deliberately follow the research method of starting from court actions and only on that basis engage in discussions of laws and legal concepts and theory. The articles cover a range of topics and source materials both past and present. They provide some surprising findings about disjunctures between code and practice, adjustments between them, and how those reveal operative principles and logics different from what the legal texts alone might suggest. Contributors are Kathryn Bernhardt, Danny Hsu, Philip C. C. Huang, Christopher Isett, Yasuhiko Karasawa, Margaret Kuo, Huaiyin Li, Jennifer M. Neighbors, Bradley W. Reed, Matthew H.
