Footnotes Tommy Tune, 1997 Contains primary source material Romano Guardini Romano Guardini, 2023-03-01 This book is not just a history To be sure it offers an historical account of the life of Romano Guardini 1885 1968 as recounted by Guardini himself However it is not simply about the past Precisely because it deals with the life of a faithful and thoughtful person the book is also about the present and projects itself into the future For as Guardini always insisted leading a thoughtful and faithful life means being oriented toward the good life that is toward the vision of a just and loving community This orientation does not just happen by itself nor can it be imposed or dictated from above but has to be nurtured steadily by hearts open to the voice of the Spirit and the call of truth Seen in this way Romano Guardini occupies a crucial place in the world in his world in ours and in the world to come As he emphasizes beautifully at the end of his memoir Narratives of My Life Autobiographical Notes he never considered himself as an isolated individual nor as the spokesman of a dominant ideology or doctrine Rather his work was always energised by and in dialogue with a broader context a context which one of his mentors Max Scheler aptly called the life world The Ettrick Shepherd Edith Clara Batho, 1927 The Memoirs of Robert and Mabel Williams Robert F. Williams, Mabel R. Williams, 2025-05-09 Born in Jim Crow era Monroe North Carolina Robert F Williams and Mabel R Williams were the state s most legendary African American freedom fighters The Williamses leadership in Monroe was just the beginning of a lifelong pursuit of freedom and justice for Black people in the United States and for oppressed populations throughout the world Their activism foreshadowed major developments in the civil rights and Black Power movements including Malcolm X s advocacy of fighting oppression by any means necessary the emergence of the Black Panther Party and Black solidarity with Third World liberation movements Robert documented his experiences in Monroe in his classic 1962 book Negroes with Guns and completed a draft of his memoir While God Lay Sleeping months before his death in 1996 Mabel began a memoir of her own before her death in 2014 The family selected John Bracey Jr Akinyele K Umoja and Gloria Aneb House to edit and complete the manuscripts which are presented together in this book offering a gripping portrait of these pioneering freedom fighters that is both deeply intimate and a fierce call to action in the ongoing fight against racial injustice The Memoirs of Toussaint and Isaac Louverture Arthur F. Saint-Aubin, 2015-07-15 This book examines the memoir of Toussaint Louverture a former slave general in the French army and leader of the Haitian Revolution and the memoir of his son Isaac The Revolution and its leaders have been studied and written about extensively Until recently 2004 however the memoir of Toussaint has received little attention and only as a historical document This is the first study that explores the 1802 work foremost as a literary text a creative production that deploys the techniques of fiction and drama to make truth claims about the past moreover this is the first book length study of Isaac Louverture s memoir The two texts are read as examples of how black men thought of themselves as men citizens and therefore how they expressed their masculinity at that historical moment as experiences of mourning and loss This study builds upon three areas of scholarship the tradition of memoir writing historicist readings of Toussaint's memoir and descriptions and theories of men and masculinity within the black Atlantic The study distinguishes itself in ways that will make it of interest to more than just historians in addition to using the intersection of race and masculinity as an analytical tool it speaks to the nature of literary creativity and it draws from studies examining the relationship between history memory and fiction As a result scholars and students in literary and cultural criticism as well as those in gender and diasporic studies will also find this study of interest and value

Memoirs of a Militant Nawal Qasim Baidoun,2023-01-11 A first person account of a young woman activist imprisoned for four years in the notorious Khiam Women's Prison Shattering the notion that Muslim women did not play an active role in armed resistance and national liberation struggles A unique and rare insight into the life of a woman living in extreme and uncertain conditions Recounting the Israeli invasion and occupation of South Lebanon Brilliantly translated by Michelle Hartman and Caline Nasrallah from McGill University in Montreal An important message about the need to liberate prisoners and the call for solidarity in the face of injustice Shattering the notion that Muslim women did not play an active role in armed resistance national liberation struggles In order to carry on with life in prison you must believe you will be there forever In the haunting and inspiring Memoirs of a Militant My Years in the Khiam Women's Prison Nawal Baidoun offers us her first person account of the life of a young woman activist imprisoned for four years as well as the events leading up to her arrest and detention Born into a nationalist family in Bint Jbeil Lebanon not far from the location of the prison itself Baidoun like so many others found herself compelled to take up arms to resist the Israeli occupation Her memoir skillfully weaves together two stories that of the oppressive conditions facing ordinary people and families in South Lebanon and that of the horrors of daily life and the struggle for survival inside the prison itself Arrested for her role in planning the assassination of the well known Israeli agent and collaborator Husayn Abdel Nabi Baidoun was at one point detained with Soha Bechara a fellow militant whose similar operation is better known Her activism rooted in her Islamic faith Baidoun shatters the notion that Muslim women did not play an active role in the armed resistance

Much like her sisters in Algeria and Palestine Nawal Baidoun belongs to a generation of Muslim women in the Arab world who played a significant role in their national liberation struggles She describes the intense mental and physical torture she endured and her refusal to confess despite this Memoirs of a Militant offers us rare and unique insight into the strength and courage of Baidoun in extreme circumstances and conditions Nawal Baidoun herself has said that she wrote this book as a sort of history lesson for the generations who come after her to show the ways in which women actively took part in the resistance and struggle against the occupation Her strongly abolitionist message about prisons and the need to liberate all prisoners and detainees resonates strongly today as does her call for solidarity in the face of injustice Memoirs ,1925

The Ettrick Shepherd Henry Thew Stephenson,1922 The Memoirs of Alton Augustus Adams, Sr. Alton Augustus Adams,2008-04-02 Alton Augustus Adams Sr was a musician writer hotelier and the first black bandmaster of the United States Navy Born in the Virgin Islands in 1889 Adams joined the U S military in 1917 Although naval policy at the time restricted blacks to menial jobs Adams and his all black ensemble provided a bridge between the local population and their all white naval administrators His memoirs edited by Mark Clague with a foreword by Samuel Floyd Jr reveal an inspired activist who believed music could change the world mitigate racism and bring prosperity to his island home The Long Journey of Noah Webster Richard M. Rollins,2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas Biographical Memoir of Theodore Nicholas Gill, 1837-1914 Alfred Goldsborough Mayer,Cleveland Abbe,Edward Leamington Nichols,Edwin Herbert Hall,Ernest William Brown,George Cary Comstock,National Academy of Sciences (U.S.),Rebecca C. Longstreth,Silas Weir Mitchell,William Healey Dall,William Jackson Humphreys,William Morris Davis,William Wallace Campbell,1919 List of papers contained in v 1 9 is given in National Academy of Sciences Proceedings Index 1915 24 1926 Memoirs Geological Survey of Great Britain,1925 The Memoir of Toussaint Louverture Philippe R. Girard,2014-02-28 Here is an annotated scholarly multilingual edition of the only lengthy text personally written by Haitian revolutionary Toussaint Louverture the memoirs he wrote shortly before his death in the French prison of Fort de Joux The translation is based on an original copy in Louverture s hand never before published Historian Philippe Girard begins with an introductory essay that retraces Louverture s career as a slave rebel and governor Girard provides a detailed narrative of the last year of Louverture s life and analyzes the significance of the memoirs and letters from a historical and linguistic perspective The book includes a full transcript in the original French of Louverture s handwritten memoirs The English translation appears side by side with the original The memoirs contain idiosyncrasies and stylistic variations of interest to linguists Scholarly interest in the Haitian Revolution and the life of Toussaint Louverture has increased over the past decade Louverture is arguably the most notable man of African descent in history and the Haitian Revolution was the most radical of the three great revolutions of its time Haiti's proud revolutionary past and its more recent upheavals indicate that interest in Haiti's history goes far beyond academia many regard Louverture as a personal hero Despite this interest there is a lack of accessible primary sources on Toussaint Louverture An edited translation of Louverture's memoirs makes his writings accessible to a larger public Louverture's memoirs provide a vivid alternative perspective to anonymous plantation records quantitative analyses of slave trading ventures or slave narratives mediated by white authors Louverture kept a stoic facade and rarely expressed his innermost thoughts and fears in writing but his memoirs are unusually emotional Louverture questioned whether he was targeted due to the color of his skin bringing racism an issue that Louverture rarely addressed head on with his white interlocutors to the fore
