For A Modest God New And Selected Poems:

For a Modest God Eric Linn Ormsby, 1997 Ormsby's new work is here presented together with a generous selection from two previous volumes published in Canada Bavarian Shrine and Other Poems and Coastlines In this earlier material the poet delights in celebrating the hidden life in everyday objects a twisted nail a seashell a roadside weed the human body itself Revealing the mystery and amazement contained in the quotidian Ormsby's poetry has always been able to transmute the humblest object by virtue of his stunning gift for metaphor and his opulent exuberance of language This is a poet whose verse rewards both the head and the heart who can discover entire galaxies in a scrap of lichen who can locate an entire lifetime of submerged emotion in the touch of an old woman s hand You Are Here James Pollock, 2012-11-15 Northrop Frye wrote that for Canadian poets the question of identity isn t so much Who am I as Where is here In his ground breaking collection of essays You Are Here James Pollock gives his answer that where we are as a literary culture has a great deal to do with our relationship to elsewhere For far too long Canadians have refused to read our poetry in the larger international context of poetry as an art leaving our poets isolated and ignored Pollock sets out to situate our verse on the map of world poetry a map which like one of those incomplete globes from the sixteenth century still leaves Canada largely uncharted Acutely intelligent and unflinchingly honest in its judgements You Are Here is an eye opening guide to the new world of Canadian poetry sensitively exploring the work of such poets as Anne Carson Daryl Hine Jeffery Donaldson Karen Solie and Eric Ormsby The collection ends with a witty treatise on good criticism and a passionate and learned reconsideration of poetic values making You Are Here an essential companion for students and lovers of Canadian poetry everywhere The Blueline Anthology Rick Henry, Anthony O. Tyler, Stephanie Coyne-DeGhett, Myra Gann, Alan Steinberg, Alice Wolf Gilborn, 2004-03-01 Since 1979 the literary journal Blueline has served as a venue for literature that reflects the distinctive spirit of the Adirondack region These poems and prose pieces drawn from twenty five years of Blueline's pages represent the abundance and variety of creative responses to the singular geography and history of the Adirondacks Read together however they do something more they reveal a distinct way of looking at the world attuned both to nature in all its various detail and to profound questions about nature and humanity Under the editors discriminating eyes the contributions coalesce into a natural and elegant extension of the region's landscape and people From Joseph Bruchac's Writing by Moonlight and Neal Burdick's Waiting for a Train at the Plattsburgh Amtrak Station to Alice Wolf Gilborn's On Adirondack Porches The Blueline Anthology offers rare glimpses into the soul of a region brief and shifting views that like those glimpsed by a hiker looking out from the trees at the blue mountains capture the eye and the mind The Gastronomica Reader Darra Goldstein, 2010 Rarefied but unpretentious each issue is an artfully curated collection of essays poems art and journalistic reportage Gastronomica's fare never fails to nourish us Saveur magazine I am so impressed with this journal It indicates an accuracy and diversity of information and style that will inspire and encourage people to pay attention to what they are
