LEGENDS of MAUI - 15 Polynesian Legends from the Hawaiian Islands Anon E. Mouse, 2018-10-01 Within this unique volume are 15 legends of Maui Legends like MAUI THE FISHERMAN MAUI LIFTING THE SKY MAUI SNARING THE SUN and twelve more captivating stories and tales from antiquity from the Polynesian people of the South Pacific These legends are not only different from the myths of other nations but they are unique in the character of the actions recorded There are three centres for these legends New Zealand in the south Hawaii in the north and the Tahitian group in the east In each of these groups of islands separated by thousands of miles there are the same legends told in almost the same way and with very little variation in names and content However Maui's deeds rank in a higher class than most of the mighty efforts of the demi gods of other nations and races and are usually of more utility The Maui legends are full of helpful imaginations which are distinctly and uniquely Polynesian in nature Here you will find adventures from the great voyages of discovery which carry fragments and hints of wonderful deeds The Maoris of New Zealand claim Maui as an ancestor of their most ancient tribes and class him as one of the most ancient of their gods calling him creator of land and creator of man even sometimes the sun himself the solar fire and the the sun god while his mother Hina was called the moon goddess NOTE MAUI Ma u i Ma oo e is a Polynesian demi god His name derives from Mohyi meaning causing to live or life applied sometimes to the gods and sometimes to chiefs as preservers and sustainers of their followers The Maui story probably contains a larger number of unique and ancient myths than that of any other legendary character in the mythology of any nation They also form one of the strongest links in the mythological chain of evidence which binds the scattered inhabitants of the Pacific into one nation They possess remarkable antiquity YESTERDAY'S BOOKS FOR TODAY'S CHARITIES 10% of the profit from the sale of our books is donated to charities TAGS Maui Hawaii Myths Legends Folklore children's stories adventure exploration Maui's home Fisherman Lifting The Sky Snaring The Sun Finding Fire The Skillful Tuna Brother In Law Kite Flying Oahu Legends Seeking Immortality Hina Hilo Wailuku River Ghosts Hilo Hills Woman In The Moon New Zealand Maori Polynesian Pacific Ocean South Pacific Canoe

Legends of Maui: A Demi God of Polynesia and of his Mother Hina William Drake Westervelt, Four brothers each bearing the name of Maui belong to Hawaiian legend They accomplished little as a family except on special occasions when the youngest of the household awakened his brothers by some unexpected trick which drew them into unwonted action The legends of Hawaii Tonga Tahiti New Zealand and the Hervey group make this youngest Maui the discoverer of fire or the ensnarer of the sun or the fisherman who pulls up islands or the man endowed with magic or Maui with spirit power The legends vary somewhat of course but not as much as might be expected when the thousands of miles between various groups of islands are taken into consideration Maui was one of the Polynesian demi gods His parents belonged to the family of supernatural beings He himself was possessed of supernatural powers and was supposed to make use of all manner of enchantments In New Zealand antiquity a Maui was said to have assisted other gods in the creation of man Nevertheless Maui was very human He lived in thatched houses had wives and children and was scolded by the women for not properly supporting his household The time of his sojourn among men is very indefinite In Hawaiian genealogies Maui and his brothers were placed among the descendants of Ulu and the sons of Kii and Maui was one of the ancestors of Kamehameha the first king of the united Hawaiian Islands This would place him in the seventh or eighth century of the Christian Era But it is more probable that Maui belongs to the mist land of time His mischievous pranks with the various gods would make him another Mercury living in any age from the creation to the beginning of the Christian era The Hervey Island legends state that Maui's father was the supporter of the heavens and his mother the guardian of the road to the invisible world In the Hawaiian chant Akalana was the name of his father In other groups this was the name by which his mother was known Kanaloa the god is sometimes known as the father of Maui In Hawaii Hina was his mother Elsewhere Ina or Hina was the grandmother from whom he secured fire The Hervey Island legends say that four mighty ones lived in the old world from which their ancestors came This old world bore the name Ava iki which is the same as Hawa ii or Hawaii The four gods were Mauike Ra Ru and Bua Taranga It is interesting to trace the connection of these four names with Polynesian mythology Mauike is the same as the demi god of New Zealand Mafuika On other islands the name is spelled Mauika Mafuika Mafuie and Mahuika Ra the sun god of Egypt is the same as Ra in New Zealand and La sun in Hawaii Ru the supporter of the heavens is probably the Ku of Hawaii and the Tu of New Zealand and other islands one of the greatest of the gods worshiped by the ancient Hawaiians The fourth mighty one from Ava ika was a woman Bua taranga who guarded the path to the underworld Talanga in Samoa and Akalana in Hawaii were the same as Taranga Pua kalana the Kalana flower would probably be the same in Hawaiian as Bua taranga in the language of the Society Islands

A Motif-Index of Traditional Polynesian Narratives Bacil F. Kirtley,2019-09-30 This reference work analyzes and classifies the story themes of Polynesian myths tales and legends according to an internationally employed system developed by Stith Thompson in his Motif Index of Folk Literature 1955 1958 Thousands of tales including those from almost all of the major original collections from the Polynesian area have been examined and their thematic contents cataloged in this work In his introduction the author explains the concept of the motif as a basis for cataloging He quotes from Professor Thompson s definition of a motif the smallest element in a tale having the power to persist in tradition for example gods marvelous creatures magic objects and certain kinds of incidents The author believes the function of an index of motifs is to cite bibliographical sources of narratives containing these viable often irreducible story elements and thus to provide the investigator of specific story ideas with comparative Information The present work is an attempt to survey thoroughly the totality of Polynesian oral tradition and to indicate the distribution and relationships of narrative materials Not since the publication of Roland B Dixon s work on Oceanic mythology in 1916 has this been attempted This index will be an invaluable reference tool for anyone doing research in Oceanic ethnology and folklore Hawaiian Legends Index: A-J ,1989
