Hitler's Propaganda Machine Ward Rutherford, 1978      Selling Hitler Nicholas Jackson O'Shaughnessy, 2021 A new interpretation of the Nazi propaganda machine that argues Hitler not Goebbels was at the center Reveals how Nazis used graffiti and rumor in novel ways      The Nazi Propaganda Machine Noble Poplawski, 2015-10-10 The propaganda used by the Nazi Party in the years leading up to and during Adolf Hitler's leadership of Germany was a crucial instrument for acquiring and maintaining power and for the implementation of Nazi policies The pervasive use of propaganda by the Nazis is largely responsible for the word propaganda itself acquiring its present negative connotations      The Nazi Propaganda Machine, 1941      Selling Hitler Nicholas O'Shaughnessy, 2016-09-01 Hitler was one of the few politicians who understood that persuasion was everything deployed to anchor an entire regime in the confessions of imagery rhetoric and dramaturgy The Nazis pursued propaganda not just as a tool an instrument of government but also as the totality the raison d'être the medium through which power itself was exercised Moreover Nicholas O'Shaughnessy argues Hitler not Goebbels was the prime mover in the propaganda regime of the Third Reich its editor and first author Under the Reich everything was a propaganda medium a building block of public consciousness from typography to communications to architecture to weapons design There were groups to initiate rumours and groups to spread graffiti Everything could be interrogated for its propaganda potential every surface inscribed with polemical meaning whether an enemy city's name an historical epic or the poster on a neighbourhood wall But Hitler was in no sense an innovator his ideas were always second hand Rather his expertise was as a packager fashioning from the accumulated mass of icons and ideas the historic debris the labyrinths and byways of the German mind a modern and brilliant political show articulated through deftly managed symbols and rituals The Reich would have been unthinkable without propaganda it would not have been the Reich      Marketing the Third Reich Nicholas O'Shaughnessy, 2017-09-13 In this fascinating volume Nicholas O'Shaughnessy elucidates the phenomenon of the Nazi propaganda machine via the perspective of consumer marketing conceptualising the Reich as a product campaign Building on his acclaimed Selling Hitler 2016 he uses marketing scholarship to show how propaganda and political marketing existed not merely as an instrument of government in Nazi Germany but as the very medium of government itself Marketing the Third Reich explores the insidious connection between a mass culture and a political movement and how the cultures of consumption and politics influence and infect each other consumerised politics and politicised consumption Ultimately its concern is with the engineering of consent the troubling matter of how public opinion can be manufactured and governments elected via sophisticated methodologies of persuasion developed in the consumer economy Nazism functioned as a brand packaging almost everything with persuasive purpose Revealing obvious parallels between Adolf Hitler's use of the living theatre of politics and our present public political dramaturgy between Nazi lies and our post truth the book raises the chilling question was Hitler ahead of his time This radical original in depth study will be an invaluable resource for all

From Incarceration to Repatriation Susan C. I. Grunewald,2024-07-15 From Incarceration to Repatriation explores the lives and memories of the nearly 1.5 million German POWs who were held by the Soviet Union during and after World War II and released in phases through 1956 seven years longer than the prisoners of any other Allied nation Susan C I Grunewald argues that Soviet leadership deliberately kept able bodied German POWs to supplement their labor force after the end of the war The Soviet Union lost 27 million citizens and a quarter of its physical assets during the war motivating Soviet leadership to harness the labor of German POWs for as long as possible Engaging with recently declassified documents in former Soviet archives archival material from multiple German governments as well as innovative use of digital humanities methods and geographic information system GIS mapping Grunewald demonstrates that Soviet authorities detained German POWs primarily for economic rather than punitive reasons In fact the GIS mapping of the historical materials makes it clear that most of the four thousand POW camps across the USSR were strategically located near industrial infrastructure and natural resource sites that were critical to postwar economic reconstruction From Incarceration to Repatriation is the first book to draw together the distinct fields of Soviet and German history to provide a more nuanced and comprehensive understanding of German POW captivity in the USSR during and after World War II Attending to the ways that the memory of German POWs remains in circulation in both the former Soviet Union and Germany Grunewald tracks the political repercussions of war commemoration
