Himalayan Research Bulletin, 1998      Knowing our lands and resources Karki, Madhav, Hill, Rosemary, Dayuan Xue, Alangu, Wilfredo, Ichikawa, Kaoru, Bridgewater, Peter, 2017-12-31      HIV and AIDS in Darjeeling Binu Sundas, 2011

Jammu and Kashmir Rekha Chowdhary, 2015-10-05 This book provides a comprehensive and up to date analysis of the complex conflict situation in Kashmir Through an internal perspective it charts the shift in the Kashmiri response towards the Centre and offers a detailed examination of the background in which separatist politics took roots in Kashmir and the way it changed its nature in the militancy and post militancy period The volume shows how separatism and armed militancy as manifest in the Valley in the late 1980s though augmented by external factors have been internal responses to the changing nature of Kashmiri identity politics It explores how the ideas central to Indian nationalist politics especially democracy and secularism echoed in Kashmir and were instrumental in dismantling the feudal structure and negotiating an autonomous space within the framework of asymmetrical federalism Seamlessly blending facts and incisive analyses this book raises new questions about the nature of conflict and contestation in the region It will be of great interest to researchers and scholars of Indian politics especially on Jammu and Kashmir and sociology as well as government bodies think tanks and the interested general reader

Shooting a Tiger Vijaya Ramadas Mandala, 2018-10-18 The figure of the white hunter sahib proudly standing over the carcass of a tiger with a gun in hand is one of the most powerful and enduring images of the empire This book examines the colonial politics that allowed British imperialists to indulge in such grand posturing as the rulers and protectors of indigenous populations This work studies the history of hunting and conservation in colonial India during the high imperial decades of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries At this time not only did hunting serve as a metaphor for colonial rule signifying the virile sportsmanship of the British hunter but it also enabled vital everyday governance through the embodiment of the figure of the officer hunter administrator Using archival material and published sources the author examines hunting and wildlife conservation from various social and ethnic perspectives and also in different geographical contexts extending our understanding of the link between shikar and governance      Forests People and Power Oliver Springate-Baginski, Piers Blaikie, 2013-06-17 With tens of millions of hectares and hundreds of millions of lives in the balance the debate over who should control South Asia's forests is of tremendous political significance This book provides an insightful and thorough assessment of important forest management transitions currently underway MARK POFFENBERGER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY FORESTRY INTERNATIONAL The contributions in this volume not only breathe life into the field of writing and analysis related to forests they do so on the strength of extraordinarily insightful research Kudos to Springate Baginski and Blaikie for providing us with a set of thoroughly researched provocative studies that should be required reading not only for those interested in community forestry in south Asia but in resource governance anywhere ARUN AGRAWAL ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF NATURAL RESOURCES it challenges our assumptions of the benefits of participatory forest management and the role of forestry in poverty reduction It should be of interest to policy makers and to all those who have been involved with the struggle of transforming forestry over the decades DR MARY HOBLEY HOBLEY SHIELDS ASSOCIATES NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AND PLANNING CONSULTANCY A rare combination of extensive field study social science insights and policy studies will be of immense value DR N C SAXENA MEMBER OF NATIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL GOVERNMENT OF INDIA In recent decades participatory approaches to forest management have been introduced around the world This book assesses their implementation in the highly politicized environments of India and Nepal The authors critically examine the policy implementation processes and causal factors affecting livelihood impacts Considering narratives and field practice with data from over 60 study villages and over 1000 household interviews the book demonstrates why particular field outcomes have occurred and why policy reform often proves so difficult Research findings on which the book is based are already influencing policy in India and Nepal and the research and analysis have great relevance to forestry management in a wide range of countries Published with DFID

Understanding Security Practices in South Asia Monika Barthwal-Datta, 2012-05-04 This book explores the ways in which non state actors NSAs in South Asia are involved in securitizing non traditional security challenges in the region at the sub state level South Asia is the epicentre of some of the most significant international security challenges today Yet the complexities of the region s security dynamics remain under researched While traditional security issues such as inter state war border disputes and the threat of nuclear devastation in South Asia remain high on the agendas of policy makers and academics both within and beyond the region scant attention has been paid to non traditional or new security challenges Drawing on various case studies this work offers an innovative analysis of how NSAs in South Asia are shaping security discourses in the region and tackling security challenges at the sub state level Through its critique of securitization theory the book calls for a new approach to studying security practices in South Asia one which considers NSAs as legitimate security actors This book will be of much interest to students of security studies Asian security Asian politics critical security studies and IR in general

Religion and Politics in Jammu and Kashmir Reeta Chowdhari Tremblay, Mohita Bhatia, 2020-05-25 This book examines the shifting non linear relationship between religion nationalism and politics in the state of Jammu and Kashmir India In the wake of the revocation of Article 370 the state s plural and relatively harmonious society has come under multiple strains with religion often informing day to day politics The chapters in this volume Trace the formation of the political entity of Jammu and Kashmir and the seemingly secular politics of its three regions Discuss the rise of militancy and resistance movements in the Kashmir Valley Highlight the intersection between everyday life nationalism and resistance through a study of the literary traditions of Kashmir contemporary resistance photography and everyday communalism located in the changing food practices of Hindu and Muslim communities Religion and Politics in Jammu and Kashmir will be an indispensable read for students and researchers of religion and politics democratization and
