From Narcissism to Nihilism Anthony Archdeacon, 2021-12-30 This book explores how the myth of Narcissus which is at once about self love and self destruction desire and death beauty and pain became an ambivalent symbol of humanistic endeavour and articulated the conflicts of early modern authorship In early modern literature there were expressions of humanistic self congratulation that sometimes verged on narcissism and at the same time expressions of self doubt and anxiety that verged on nihilism The themes of self love and self negation had a long history in western thought and this book shows how the medieval treatments of the themes developed into something distinctive in the sixteenth century The two themes either individually or combined encompass such topics as poverty unrequited love transgressive sexuality sexual violence suicidality self worth authorship religious penitence martyrdom courtly ambition and tyranny Archdeacon uses over 100 texts from the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries to show how the early modern writer existed in a culture of contrary forces pulling towards either self affirmation or self erasure Writers attempted to negotiate between the polarised extremes of self love and self negation realising that they are fundamental to how we respond to each other our selves and the world

Too Many Lovers Paul Taylor, 2010-09 This book is a wake up call for Christians who are suffering from the rampant yet unrecognized effects caused by the deception of idolatry Idolatry is not an outdated practice of extinct religions it is very much alive and flourishing today Most Christians who practice idolatry aren't even aware of it They are suffering spiritually emotionally and even physically but can't connect the dots between their misery and their practice of idolatry How does this happen Instead of giving the best of our love To The God who deserves it many Christians have gradually fallen more and more in love with what God created instead of the Creator Himself With our lips we tell God we love Him but our everyday thoughts and actions may be revealing that we have other lovers These so called lovers seem innocent enough because they offer to give us what we want But in the end they betray us by taking the best of what God has given only to leave us poor empty and dead inside Now For The Good News Our God isn't afraid of idols or idolaters He is a compassionate and merciful God who may be saying to you today Do you know why I stopped you from running after your other lovers We may even sense His anger but it is really the passion of a loving God who hates to see His children damaged by the sin of serving false gods Like any good father He wants His children to have the best and it just so happens HE IS THE BEST Even though you are a Christian do you find yourself battling emptiness hopelessness loneliness or despair it may be that you are suffering from Too Many Lovers
