Migrating Faith Daniel Ramírez, 2015-09-14 Daniel Ram rez s history of twentieth century Pentecostalism in the U S Mexico borderlands begins in Los Angeles in 1906 with the eruption of the Azusa Street Revival The Pentecostal phenomenon characterized by ecstatic spiritual practices that included speaking in tongues perceptions of miracles interracial mingling and new popular musical worship traditions from both sides of the border was criticized by Christian theologians secular media and even governmental authorities for behaviors considered to be unorthodox and outrageous Today many scholars view the revival as having catalyzed the spread of Pentecostalism and consider the U S Mexico borderlands as one of the most important fountainheads of a religious movement that has thrived not only in North America but worldwide Ram rez argues that because of the distance separating the transnational migratory circuits from domineering arbiters of religious and aesthetic orthodoxy in both the United States and Mexico the region was fertile ground for the religious innovation by which working class Pentecostals expanded and changed traditional options for practicing the faith Giving special attention to individuals and families firsthand accounts and tracing how a vibrant religious music culture tied transnational communities together Ram rez illuminates the interplay of migration mobility and musicality in Pentecostalism s global boom

Tirres, 2014-01-17 What is the future of liberation thought in the Americas In this groundbreaking work Christopher D Tirres takes up this question by looking at the methodological connections between two quintessentially American traditions liberation theology and pragmatism He explains how pragmatism lends philosophical clarity and depth to some of liberation theology s core ideas and assumptions Liberation theology in turn offers pragmatism a more nuanced and sympathetic approach to religious faith especially its social and pedagogical dimensions Ultimately Tirres crafts a philosophical foundation that ensures the continued relevance of liberation thought in today s world Keeping true to the method of pragmatism the book begins inductively with a set of actual experiences the Good Friday liturgies at the San Fernando Cathedral in San Antonio Texas and provides a compelling description of the way these performative rituals integrate the aesthetic and ethical dimensions of faith Subsequent chapters probe this integration deductively at three levels of theoretical analysis experience metaphysics sociality and pedagogy As Tirres shows the aesthetic and ethical dimensions of faith emerge in different yet related ways at all three levels He argues that utilizing the categories of the aesthetic and
