Food And Loathing:

Food and Loathing Betsy Lerner, 2003-02-04 Never before Food and Loathing has the intimate relationship between mood swings and food swings been so honestly chronicled As a bright but chubby girl Betsy Lerner believed that thinness was the key to success with friends and boys By junior high she had precisely divided the world of food into two camps the dietetic and the forbidden Becoming a member of the then fledgling Overeaters Anonymous she formed a cult like devotion to the program and lost fifty pounds in a matter of months only to gain it all back and more I am powerless over Hostess cakes she writes and my life has become unmanageable Her twenties are marked by yo yo dieting depressive episodes and a sadistic shrink who dubs her the boy who cried wolf Then just as Lerner begins to realize her dream of becoming a writer entering Columbia s prestigious MFA program she spirals into a suicidal depression and lands at New York State Psychiatric Institute There a young doctor helps her take her first steps toward selfhood and unraveling the dual legacy of compulsion and depression A powerfully rendered story for anyone who has every wielded a fork in despair or calculated her worth on the morning scale

Food and Loathing Betsy Lerner, 2003 In FOOD AND LOATHING a bright chubby girl believes that thinness is next to godliness and so attends one of the first meetings of Overeaters Anonymous in 1975 Her twenties are marked by yo yo dieting depressive episodes and a sadistic shrink Then just as her dream of being a writer is within reach entering Columbia s prestigious MFA program she spirals into a suicidal depression and lands for a six month stay at New York State Psychiatric Institute There a young resident helps her take her first steps towards selfhood unravelling the self loathing of an eating disorder coupled with a paralysing mood disorder He also helps her confront a tragic family secret whose silence had enveloped an otherwise average Jewish middle class family FOOD AND LOATHING is a book about how people use food to narcotise to love and to escape It s about therapy the good the bad and the down right destructive and about every woman who spends too much of her life thinking about her weight and how she can forgive herself for living and even learn to love

Speaking Two Languages Allen J. Frantzen, 1991-01-01 This book is designed for the medievalist interested in contemporary criticism but cautious about its limits The volume s essays are not designed to offer rereadings of familiar texts but to address the problems of articulating tradition and contemporary theory Each contributor interprets critical methods as consciously chosen and spoken languages and explores the consequences of combining a traditional and a contemporary method and hence speaking two languages Each essay includes a critical bibliographical note pointing to further reading in the languages it employs Embodied Shame J. Brooks Bouson, 2010-07-02 How does physical emotional and sexual abuse shape women s perceptions of their bodies and identities How are women s psyches affected by the sexual racial and cultural denigration that occurs when women s bodies are represented as defective spoiled damaged or dirtied Embodied Shame skillfully explores these questions in the context of recent writings by North American women contributing to work in shame theory and to feminist analyses of the intersections of theories of the body affect emotions narrative and trauma By examining popular contemporary fictional and nonfictional texts including Alice Munro's Lives of Girls and Women Dorothy Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Edwidge Danticat's Breath Eyes Memory and Lucy Grealy's Autobiography of a Face J Brooks Bouson illuminates how deeply entrenched bodily shame continues to operate in contemporary culture even as we celebrate the supposed freeing of the female body from the social and cultural constraints that have long bound it

A Compendium of Materia Medica, Therapeutics and Repertory of the Digestive System Arkell Roger McMichael, 1892 Food, the Body and the Self Deborah Lupton, 1996-04-25 In this wide ranging and thought provoking analysis of the sociocultural and personal meanings of food and eating Deborah Lupton explores the relationship between food and embodiment the emotions and subjectivity She includes discussion of the intertwining of food meaning and culture in the context of childhood and the family as well as the gendered social construction of foodstuffs food tastes dislikes and preferences the dining out experience spirituality and the civilized body She draws on diverse sources including representations of food and eating in film literature advertising gourmet magazines news reports and public health literature and her own empirical research into people's preferences memories experiences

The Hahnemannian Monthly, 1911 Bodies of Desire and Bodies in Distress Xavier Mendik, 2015-09-18 In recent years there has been an explosion of critical interest in the icons genres and traditions of 1970s Italian cult film Thanks to the international success of directors such as Dario Argento and Sergio Martino and the influential giallo thriller cycle in which they worked these unconventional and often controversial films are now impacting on new generations of filmmakers scholars and moviegoers alike Bodies of Desire and Bodies in Distress The Golden Age of Italian Cult Cinema 1970-1985 considers the current interest in specific Italian directors and cult genres exploring the social political and cultural factors that spawned a decade of cinema dominated by extreme yet stylish images of sexuality and violence Bodies of Desire and Bodies in Distress situates the explosion of 1970s Italian cult excess against the toxic backdrop of political violence and terrorist activity that produced shocking images of carnage and crime during this period The volume also considers why the iconography of the sexually liberated female became recast as a symbol of fear and violation in a range of Italian cult film narratives In addition the book also analyses how longstanding regional distinctions between Italy's urban North and the much maligned rural South fed into sex and death cycles produced between 1970 and 1985 Bodies of Desire and Bodies in Distress profiles leading 1970s Italian directors and performers including Aristide Massaccesi Joe D Amato Laura Gemser and Dario Argento who also provides an interview discussing his work and 1970s Italian society The volume also provides case studies of the giallo cycle rape and revenge dramas the Italian rogue cop series post apocalypse films barbarian movies and sex comedy formats By considering the icons and genres from the golden age of Italian cult film alongside the crucial social and sexual tensions that influenced their creation this book will be of interest to film scholars and cult movie fans alike

The Muse of Abandonment Lee Upton, 1998 The Muse of Abandonment examines personal and cultural forms of

abandonment in the poetry of Charles Wright Russell Edson Jean Valentine James Tate and Louise Gluck These poets register the tremors of the post modern exhaustion of universals and a conflicted desire for authenticating presences The first book to study these poets as members of a generation The Muse of Abandonment analyses the poets recasting of confessional and surrealistic legacies and discusses their reflections on coercion of thought and behavior and an atmosphere in contemporary culture that would trivialize private sensibility Eating Identities Wenying Xu,2018-03-31 The French epicure and gastronome Brillat Savarin declared Tell me what you eat and I will tell you who you are Wenying Xu infuses this notion with cultural political energy by extending it to an ethnic group known for its cuisines Asian Americans She begins with the general argument that eating is a means of becoming not simply in the sense of nourishment but more importantly of what we choose to eat what we can afford to eat what we secretly crave but are ashamed to eat in front of others and how we eat Food as the most significant medium of traffic between the inside and outside of our bodies organizes signifies and legitimates our sense of self and distinguishes us from others who practice different foodways Narrowing her scope Xu reveals how cooking eating and food fashion Asian American identities in terms of race ethnicity gender class diaspora and sexuality She provides lucid and informed interpretations of seven Asian American writers John Okada Joy Kogawa Frank Chin Li Young Lee David Wong Louie Mei Ng and Monique Truong and places these identity issues in the fascinating spaces of food hunger consumption appetite desire and orality Asian American literature abounds in culinary metaphors and references but few scholars have made sense of them in a meaningful way Most literary critics perceive alimentary references as narrative strategies or part of the background Xu takes food as the central site of cultural and political struggles waged in the seemingly private domain of desire in the lives of Asian Americans Eating Identities is the first book to link food to a wide range of Asian American concerns such as race and sexuality Unlike most sociological studies which center on empirical analyses of the relationship between food and society it focuses on how food practices influence psychological and ontological formations and thus contributes significantly to the growing field of food studies For students of literature this tantalizing work offers an illuminating lesson on how to read the multivalent meanings of food and eating in literary texts The Nightmare Before Christmas Filipa Antunes,Brittany Eldridge,Rebecca Williams,2025-02-20 This edited collection considers The Nightmare Before Christmas as a milestone in animation and film history considering the different layers of meaning and history of the film from pre production to the present day The Nightmare Before Christmas Henry Selick 1993 has become a key point of reference in negotiations of genre and the boundaries between mainstream and cult cultures both on screen and in the spaces of fandom and in original and retrospective reception contexts where it often becomes tangled with nostalgia Contributors to this edited collection consider the film as a cultural object with significant impact on animation representations of family and horror and fandom and subcultures Covering topics including representations of fairy tales Christmas media cultural appropriation family horror merchandise theme parks and food this work explores the film's ongoing cultural impact      The New Sydenham Society's Lexicon of Medicine and the Allied Sciences New Sydenham Society, Henry Power, Leonard William Sedgwick, 1881      The American Journal of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children , 1884      The Waste Fix William G. Little, 2020-03-11 First published in 2002 This book explores the philosophical social and aesthetic implications of twentieth century America's obsession with eliminating waste Through interdisciplinary engagement with fiction and popular culture William Little traces the way this obsession finds expression in powerful social forces e.g. the drive to consume conspicuously the Progressive era campaign to manage scientifically the current demand to reduce reuse recycle and shows how such forces are governed by an idealism that links proper treatment of waste with the promise of salvation      The Horror Reader Ken Gelder, 2000 This study brings together writings on this controversial genre spanning the history of horror in literature and film It discusses texts from the United States Europe the Caribbean and Hong Kong      Online Belongings Debra Ferreday, 2009 In her reading of cyberculture studies after the affective turn the author argues for a new cyberculture studies that goes beyond dominant cultural narratives of the Internet as dystopian or utopian space and pays attention to the ways in which online culture has become embedded in everyday lives The book intervenes in narratives of virtual reality to propose that the Internet can be re-read as a space of fantasy      Doctors Factotum , 1910      The Doctor's Factotum , 1904      Homœopathic therapeutics Samuel Lilienthal, 1879      The Homœopathic Therapeutics of Uterine and Vaginal Discharges William Eggert, 1879
