Eva's Day with Daddy Laurie A. Mueller, 2009-05 Eva's Cousin Sibylle Knauss, 2007-12-18 Berchtesgaden Germany is a beautiful place set among the gentle meadow clad hills rising to the sheer heights of bare Alpine peaks It is here where an elderly woman arrives and recollects her past and her peripheral role in a chapter of world history She walks along a beaten path which has come into being because so many tourists have ventured this way to see something that exists only in her memory In the summer of 1944 twenty year old Marlene is thrilled when her older more glamorous cousin Eva Braun Adolph Hitler s mistress invites her to come to the Fuhrer s Bavarian mountain retreat Against her father s wishes Marlene accepts and immediately sets forth to Berghof There while Hitler is away desperately trying to turn the tides of war Marlene finds herself in a strange paradise a world of opulence and imminent danger of freedom and surveillance The two women sneak off and skinny dip in a nearby lake watch films in the Fuhrer s private cinema and flirt with the SS officers at the dinner table one of whom will become Marlene s first lover Initially delighted by Eva s attentions Marlene later tries to understand the elusive connection between her cousin and the man she loves In quiet defiance she begins to commit her own acts of subversion which include listening to BBC radio broadcasts forbidden by the Fuhrer But a clandestine mission of mercy will force her to question her allegiance to both her cousin and her country and to face the chilling reality that exists outside her sheltered world Based on the true experiences of Eva Braun s cousin Gertrude Weisker who has shared her memories with Sibylle Knauss after more than fifty years of silence Eva s Cousin is a novel that illuminates the banality of the domestic face of evil It casts a special light on the profound questions of innocence and complicity that still haunt much of the world today Eva's Jones Delcenia Thurmond, 2014-07-08 A chance meeting between two people a journey into their love and life Eva is a woman who has it all brains beauty success and the love and support of her family She has the IT factor Men adore her and women envy her Alex is the man that women fantasize about marrying and men respect he s charismatic handsome intelligent and he s the boss What happens when two influential people meet fall in love causing their worlds to collide and merge Can their love withstand the test of time past relationships the stress of business and family Can they juggle careers egos family emotions and everyday life and find balance to be successful in love Will they be able to withstand the pressure of the celebrity of who they are Only time can tell Eva's Deadline Linda Hope Lee, 2014 Eva's Fortunes Harriet Maria Gordon Smythies, 1875 Thermally Stable and Flame Retardant Polymer Nanocomposites Vikas Mittal, 2011-06-30 Polymer nanocomposites have revolutionised material performance most notably in the plastics automotive and aerospace industries However in order to be commercially viable many of these materials must withstand high temperatures In this book leaders in the field outline the mechanisms behind the generation of suitable polymer systems pulling together recent research to provide a unified and up to date assessment of recent technological advancements The text is divided into two clear sections introducing the reader to the two most important requirements for this material type

Highlighted Diseases, 1998 ,1999 Part 4 ,1999 Protest and Possibility in the Writing of Tillie Olsen Mara

Faulkner, 1993 Tillie Olsen's fiction and nonfiction portray with all their harsh contours the lives of people who cannot speak for themselves or whose words have been forgotten or ignored Olsen's writing is neither serene nor despairing In this sensitive thematic reading Mara Faulkner shows that its most subversive function is the assertion that human life can be other than and more than it is Olsen's promise of full creative life aims to make her readers forever dissatisfied with physical emotional and intellectual starvation Faulkner finds in Olsen's writing a triple layered pattern combining protest against oppression blight celebration of courage and strength fruit and the heartening dream of a radically transformed future world possibility She focuses on four of Olsen's main themes motherhood the relationship between men and women community and language and shows how because of social and economic circumstances potentially creative tensions become destructive contradictions motherhood stifles women's lives patriarchy and poverty turn men into enemies of women and children communities force their members into betrayal and language distorts or erases human experience Olsen reveals according to Faulkner the overlapping oppressions of class race gender nationality education and age that both link people and set them apart Yet she refuses to exalt suffering and deprivation In this comprehensive examination of a literature of social consciousness Faulkner approaches Olsen's works within their historical social and political contexts without treating them as propaganda In fact she shows that it is Olsen's compressed poetic style that gives her writing its revolutionary power She illuminates both the author's individual talent and the traditions in which her works were created traditions of women writers of color writers of the working class and writers who were immigrants or children of immigrants Agriculture
