From Self To Sources Essays And Beyond:

From Self to Sources Lee E. Brandon, 2003 This resource provides instructors with answers to questions in the student text plus marginal teaching tips Also the Instructor's Guide featured as part of the IAE includes syllabi writing strategies suggestions for evaluating papers and quizzes for both professional reading selections and handbook material Beyond Translation Alton L. Becker, Alton L. Becker, 2000 A bold new approach to language that addresses the subtleties of cultural identity Individuality and Beyond Benedetta Zavatta, 2019-07-05 Though few might think to connect the two figures Ralph Waldo Emerson was an important influence on Friedrich Nietzsche Specifically Emerson played a fundamental role in shaping Nietzsche's philosophical ideas on individualism perfectionism and the pursuit of virtue as well as his critiques of social conditioning religious dogmatism and anti natural morality With Individuality and Beyond Benedetta Zavatta offers the first philosophical interpretation of Emerson's influence on Nietzsche based on a sound philological analysis of previously unpublished materials from Nietzsche's private library Nietzsche's collection reveals numerous copies of Emerson's essays covered with annotations and marginalia as Nietzsche revisited these works throughout his life Through close reading Zavatta casts a new light on the ways in which Emerson's work informed Nietzsche's defining ideas of self creation the relation between fate and free will overcoming morality of customs and achieving moral autonomy and the transvaluation of such values as compassion and altruism Zavatta organizes these concepts into two main lines of thought the first concerns the development of the individual personality or the achievement of intellectual and moral autonomy and original self expression The second on the contrary concerns the overcoming of individuality and the need to transcend a limited view of the world by continually questioning one's own values and engaging with opposing perspectives Ultimately Zavatta clarifies the surprising contributions that Emerson made to 20th century European philosophy She provides a fresh portrait of Emerson as an American thinker long stereotyped as a naïve idealist disinterested in the social issues of his day Seen through the eyes of Nietzsche his acute interpreter Emerson becomes an incisive cultural critic whose contributions underpin contemporary philosophy Religion and Identity in South Asia and Beyond Steven E. Lindquist, 2013-12-01 This volume brings together sixteen articles on the religions literatures and histories of South and Central Asia in tribute to Patrick Olivelle one of North America's leading Sanskritists and historians of early India Over the last four decades the focus of his scholarship has been on the ascetic and legal traditions of India but his work as both a researcher and a teacher extends beyond early Indian religion and literature Religion and Identity in South Asia and Beyond is a testament to that influence The contributions in this volume many by former students of Olivelle are committed to linguistic and historical rigor combined with sensitivity to how the study of Asia has been changing over the last several decades Beyond Ontological Blackness Victor Anderson, 2016-10-06 In this study Victor Anderson traces instances of ontological blackness in African American theological religious and cultural thought arguing that African American critical thought has been trapped in a racial rhetoric that it did not create and which cannot serve it well Drawing together 18th and 19th century accommodationism and its assimilationist heirs with the movements of Black Power and Afrocentrism Anderson shows that all exhibit a similar structure of racial identity He suggests that it is time to move beyond the confines of the cult of black heroic genius to what Bell Hooks has termed postmodern blackness a racial discourse that leaves room to negotiate African American identities along lines of class gender sexuality and age as well as race

The Sinosphere and Beyond Joan Judge, Joachim Kurtz, Ori Sela, Dan Shao, Hugh Shapiro, 2024-07-22 The history of East Asia can be most productively studied through a transnational translingual and transcultural approach to the region In The Sinosphere and Beyond twenty six leading and emerging scholars use such approaches in rich clusters of essays on Historiography Sino Japanese Encounters Law and Justice Politics Art Literature and Translation Each essay builds on the legacy of Joshua Fogel whose scholarship defined the contours of the Sinosphere in the Western world and beyond The collection will be of interest to scholars and students with specific research concerns within these broader rubrics from the towering progenitors of Japanese Sinology to gendered diplomatic and cultural dimensions of Sino Japanese encounters from Sinitic poetry to legal culture and revolutionary life from art commerce and levels of literary expression to the quandaries of translation In addition to offering a broad range of case studies the volume is testimony to the methodological importance of a dynamic intra and transregional approach for an understanding of the layered history of East Asia

Moving Beyond Individualism in Pastoral Care and Counseling Barbara J. McClure, 2010-01-01 Despite astute critiques and available resources for alternative modes of thinking and practicing individualism continues to be a dominating and constraining ideology in the field of pastoral psychotherapy and counseling Philip Rieff was one of the first to highlight the negative implications of individualism in psychotherapeutic theories and practices As heirs and often enthusiasts of the Freudian tradition of which Rieff and others are critical pastoral theologians have felt the sting of his charge and yet the empirical research that McClure presents shows that pastoral counseling practitioners resist change Their attempts to overcome an individualistic perspective have been limited and ineffective because individualism is embedded in the field's dominant theological and theoretical resources practices and organizational arrangements Only a radical reappraisal of these will make possible pastoral counseling practices in a post individualistic mode McClure proposes several critical transformations broadening and deepening the operative theologies used to guide the healing practice expanding the role of the pastoral counselor reimagining the operative anthropology reclaiming sin and judgment nuancing the particular against the individual rethinking the ideal outcome of the practices and reimagining the organizational structures that support the practices Only this level of revisioning will enable this ministry of the church to move beyond its individualistic limitations and offer healing in more complex effective and socially adequate ways

Beyond Secular Faith Matyas Szalay, 2023-01-19 Attempts to reach an understanding of how to live a Christian life in the contemporary context have never been more necessary. This is the aim of the International Symposium Beyond Secular Faith, an annual conference held in Granada, Spain. This volume represents the fruits of over seven years of scholarship. The title Beyond Secular Faith suggests we are interested in re-discovering and reflectively elaborating ways to overcome the limits imposed by the dominant contemporary culture. We are convinced that only a faith liberated from the conceptual restrictions and reductions put forward by secular philosophy and theology and centered radically on Christ can flourish in the dimension that is proper to faith: that is, in all spheres of human life. Featuring contributions from internationally recognized philosophers and theologians such as Tracey Rowland, Jaroslav Jagiello, Rocco Buttiglione, Alison Milbank, Massimo Borghesi, John Milbank, and others, we will explore a diversity of questions from this common perspective: the light of revelation illuminates how Christians should live in the modern world, leading to a new beginning.

Issues in Science and Theology: Nature - and Beyond Michael Fuller, Dirk Evers, Anne Runehov, Knut-Willy Sæther, Bernard Michollet, 2020-02-25 This book addresses a variety of important questions on nature, science, and spirituality. Is the natural world all that there is? Or is it possible to move beyond nature? What might it mean to transcend nature? What reflections of anything beyond nature might be found in nature itself? Gathering papers originally delivered at the 2018 annual conference of the European Society for the Study of Science and Theology (ESSSAT), the book includes contributions of an international group of scientists, philosophers, theologians, and historians, all discussing nature and what may lie beyond it. More than 20 chapters explore questions of science, nature, spirituality, and more, including Nature and Beyond, Immanence and Transcendence in Science and Religion, Awe and wonder in scientific practice, Implications for the relationship between science and religion, The Cosmos Considered as a Moral Institution, The transcendent within, how our own biology leads to spirituality, Preserving the heavens and the earth, Planetary sustainability from a Biblical and educational perspective, Issues in Science and Theology. Nature and Beyond will benefit a broad audience of students, scholars, and faculty in such disciplines as philosophy, history of science, theology, and ethics.

After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad, 2020-11-04 After Mission touches on three questions. The first question is about self-perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants' relation to their Arab-Muslim Middle Eastern context. This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity, othering, relationality. The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re-form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox.

Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one

College Writing and Beyond Anne Beaufort, 2008-02-06 Composition research consistently demonstrates that the social context of writing determines the majority of conventions any writer must observe Still most universities organize the required first year composition course as if there were an intuitive set of general writing skills usable across academic and work world settings In College Writing and Beyond A New Framework for University Writing Instruction Anne Beaufort reports on a longitudinal study comparing one student s experience in FYC in history in engineering and in his post college writing Her data illuminate the struggle of college students to transfer what they learn about general writing from one context to another Her findings suggest ultimately not that we must abolish FYC but that we must go beyond even genre theory in reconceiving it Accordingly Beaufort would argue that the FYC course should abandon its hope to teach a sort of general academic discourse and instead should systematically teach strategies of responding to contextual elements that impinge on the writing situation Her data urge attention to issues of learning transfer and to developmentally sound linkages in writing instruction within and across disciplines Beaufort advocates special attention to discourse community theory for its power to help students perceive and understand the context of writing Beyond Duty Thomas E.
